7 WHEREAS, the Torpedo Factory Art Center, a preeminent cultural institution serving the Alexandria arts 8 community and beyond, celebrates its 50th anniversary in 2024; and

9 WHEREAS, on May 7, 1974, Alexandria City Council approved a three-year pilot program proposed by 10 The Art League to install artist studios in a former naval munitions factory along the Alexandria waterfront, 11 an endeavor that would come to be known as the Torpedo Factory Art Center; and

12 WHEREAS, initially led by The Art League's president, Marian Van Landingham, the Torpedo Factory 13 Art Center was subsequently helmed by its longest-serving director, Margaret Alderson, who guided the 14 institution through its first decade and oversaw its major renovation in the early 1980s; and

15 WHEREAS, the Torpedo Factory Art Center has grown over the years to become the nation's largest 16 collection of working artists' open studios under one roof, with more than 70 studios occupied by artists
17 across various mediums, including painting, ceramics, photography, jewelry, stained glass, fiber, 18 printmaking, and sculpture; and

19 WHEREAS, with its open studio format, the Torpedo Factory Art Center provides members of the public 20 with the unique opportunity to engage with artists and observe the creative process first hand; and

21 WHEREAS, since 1987, Target Gallery has served as the Torpedo Factory Art Center's contemporary 22 exhibition space, enabling the institution to support artists outside of its studios and to broaden its impact on 23 the world of contemporary art; and

24 WHEREAS, formerly overseen by the City of Alexandria and then by the Torpedo Factory Artists
25 Association and the Torpedo Factory Art Center Board, the Torpedo Factory Art Center has been officially 26 managed by the City of Alexandria's Office of the Arts since 2018; and

27 WHEREAS, the Torpedo Factory Art Center was founded on a principle of providing low-cost studio 28 space to artists to enable them to thrive, a commitment that the institution continues to uphold to this day; and

29 WHEREAS, through its artist residencies, exhibitions, and other programming, the Torpedo Factory Art
30 Center has become the crown jewel of the Alexandria arts scene and an important part of what makes the city
31 a wonderful place to live, work, and be creative; now, therefore, be it

32 RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That the Torpedo Factory Art Center of Alexandria hereby be 33 commended on the occasion of its 50th anniversary; and, be it

34 RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for 35 presentation to the Torpedo Factory Art Center as an expression of the House of Delegates' respect for the institution's legacy of service and best wishes for its continued success.
