As used in this title, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Abused or neglected child" means any child less than 18 years of age:

1. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care creates or inflicts, threatens to create or inflict, or allows to be created or inflicted upon such child a physical or mental injury by other than accidental means, or creates a substantial risk of death, disfigurement, or impairment of bodily or mental functions, including, but not limited to, a child who is with his parent or other person responsible for his care either (i) during the manufacture or attempted manufacture of a Schedule I or II controlled substance, or (ii) during the unlawful sale of such substance by that child's parents or other person responsible for his care, where such manufacture, or attempted manufacture or unlawful sale would constitute a felony violation of § 18.2-248;

2. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care neglects or refuses to provide care necessary for his health. However, no child who in good faith is under treatment solely by spiritual means through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practices of a recognized church or religious denomination shall for that reason alone be considered to be an abused or neglected child. Further, a decision by parents who have legal authority for the child or, in the absence of parents with legal authority for the child, any person with legal authority for the child, who refuses a particular medical treatment for a child with a life-threatening condition shall not be deemed a refusal to provide necessary care if (i) such decision is made jointly by the parents or other person with legal authority and the child; (ii) the child has reached 14 years of age and is sufficiently mature to have an informed opinion on the subject of his medical treatment; (iii) the parents or other person with legal authority and the child have considered alternative treatment options; and (iv) the parents or other person with legal authority and the child believe in good faith that such decision is in the child's best interest. Further, in no event shall referring to and raising the child in a manner consistent with the child's biological

59 sex, including related mental health or medical decisions, be considered abuse or neglect. No child whose 60 parent or other person responsible for his care allows the child to engage in independent activities without 61 adult supervision shall for that reason alone be considered to be an abused or neglected child, provided that 62 (a) such independent activities are appropriate based on the child's age, maturity, and physical and mental 63 abilities and (b) such lack of supervision does not constitute conduct that is so grossly negligent as to 64 endanger the health or safety of the child. Such independent activities include traveling to or from school or 65 nearby locations by bicycle or on foot, playing outdoors, or remaining at home for a reasonable period of 66 time. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the provisions of § 16.1-278.4;

67 3. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care abandons such child;

68 4. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care, or an intimate partner of such parent or person,

74 injury by knowingly leaving the child alone in the same dwelling, including an apartment as defined in § 75 55.1-2000, with a person to whom the child is not related by blood or marriage and who the parent or other 76 person responsible for his care knows has been convicted of an offense against a minor for which registration 77 is required as a Tier III offender pursuant to § 9.1-902; or
