

Department of Planning and Budget
2025 General Assembly Session
State Fiscal Impact Statement

---

PUBLISHED: 1/15/2025 8:58 AM

ORIGINAL

Bill Number: SB751                    Patron: Diggs
Bill Title: Protective orders; military protective orders.

Bill Summary: Permits a court to find good cause to issue a preliminary protective order when a petitioner has a Military Protective Order. The bill directs a law-enforcement officer to notify the agency that entered the Military Protective Order into the National Crime Information Center Systems (NCIC) that he has probable cause to believe the person violated the Military Protective Order if such person violated provisions of a state-issued protective order.

Budget Amendment Necessary: No                    Items Impacted: N/A
Explanation: N/A

Fiscal Summary: This bill is not expected to have a fiscal impact on Courts, Virginia State Police (VSP), or the Department of Military Affairs. The impact this bill may have on local law enforcement agencies is not known.

Fiscal Analysis: None required

Other: This bill is the same as HB1882 and SB957.