Bill Title: Seizure of property used in connection with or derived from financial exploitation of vulnerable adults.

The bill allows a court, upon motion of the attorney for the Commonwealth and for good cause shown, to order the release of all moneys, cash, or negotiable or nonnegotiable instruments or securities. Any remaining moneys, cash, or negotiable or nonnegotiable instruments or securities may also be released to the owner by the court with the consent of the attorney for the Commonwealth.

The substitute bill defines several terms used in the section, makes technical changes, and requires, unless otherwise ordered by the court, notification of the seizure of any moneys or other assets of value shall be made by certified mail to the asset owner. Notification shall include a copy of the seizure warrant or complaint, unless the matter is sealed by the court.
