

25105735D

SENATE BILL NO. 1221

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE

(Proposed by the Senate Committee for Courts of Justice on January 22, 2025)

(Patron Prior to Substitute—Senator Aird)

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 16.1-107, 55.1-1208, and 55.1-1245, as it is currently effective and as it shall become effective, of the Code of Virginia, relating to public housing authorities; indigent parties; unlawful detainer.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 16.1-107, 55.1-1208, and 55.1-1245, as it is currently effective and as it shall become effective, of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 16.1-107. Requirements for appeal.

A. No appeal shall be allowed unless and until the party applying for the same or someone for him shall give bond, in an amount and with sufficient surety approved by the judge or by his clerk if there is one, or in an amount sufficient to satisfy the judgment of the court in which it was rendered. Either such amount shall include the award of attorney fees, if any. Such bond shall be posted within 30 days from the date of judgment, except for an appeal from the judgment of a general district court on an unlawful detainer pursuant to § 8.01-129. However, no appeal bond shall be required of a plaintiff in a civil case where the defendant has not asserted a counterclaim, the Commonwealth or when an appeal is proper to protect the estate of a decedent, an infant, a convict, or an insane person, or the interest of a county, city, town or transportation district created pursuant to the Transportation District Act of 1964 (§ 33.2-1900 et seq.) of Title 33.2. In a case where a defendant with indemnity coverage through a policy of liability insurance appeals, the bond required by this section shall not exceed the amount of the judgment that is covered by a policy of indemnity coverage.

B. In all civil cases, except trespass, ejection, unlawful detainer against a former owner based upon a foreclosure against that owner, or any action involving the recovering of rents, no indigent person shall be required to post an appeal bond. In cases of unlawful detainer against a former owner based upon a foreclosure against that owner, a person who has been determined to be indigent pursuant to the guidelines set forth in § 19.2-159 shall post an appeal bond within 30 days from the date of judgment.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection B, no indigent person shall be required to post a bond to appeal any unlawful detainer action brought by a public housing authority.

D. In cases of unlawful detainer for a residential dwelling unit, notwithstanding the provisions of § 8.01-129, an appeal bond shall be posted by the defendant with payment into the general district court in the amount of outstanding rent, late charges, attorney fees, and any other charges or damages due, as contracted for in the rental agreement, and as amended on the unlawful detainer by the court. If such amount is not so paid, any such appeal shall not be perfected as a matter of law. Upon perfection of an appeal, the defendant shall pay the rental amount as contracted for in the rental agreement to the plaintiff on or before the fifth day of each month. If any such rental payment is not so paid, upon written motion of the plaintiff with a copy of such written motion mailed by regular mail to the tenant, the judge of the circuit court shall, without hearing, enter judgment for the amount of outstanding rent, late charges, attorney fees, and any other charges or damages due as of that date, subtracting any payments made by such tenant as reflected in the court accounts and on a written affidavit submitted by the plaintiff, plaintiff's managing agent, or plaintiff's attorney with a copy of such affidavit mailed by regular mail to the tenant, and an order of possession without further hearings or proceedings in such court. Any funds held in a court account shall be released to the plaintiff without further hearing or proceeding of the court unless the defendant has filed a motion to retain some or all of such funds and the court, after a hearing, enters an order finding that the defendant is likely to succeed on the merits of a counterclaim alleging money damages against the plaintiff, in which case funds shall be held by order of such court.

~~E.~~ E. If such bond is furnished by or on behalf of any party against whom judgment has been rendered for money or property or both, the bond shall be conditioned for the performance and satisfaction of such judgment or order as may be entered against such party on appeal, and for the payment of all costs and damages which may be awarded against him in the appellate court. If the appeal is by a party against whom there is no recovery except for costs, the bond shall be conditioned for the payment of such costs and damages as may be awarded against him on the appeal.

~~F.~~ F. In addition to the foregoing, any party applying for appeal shall, within 30 days from the date of the judgment, pay to the clerk of the court from which the appeal is taken the amount of the writ tax of the court to which the appeal is taken and costs as required by subdivision A 13 of § 17.1-275, including all fees for service of process of the notice of appeal in the circuit court pursuant to § 16.1-112.

G. For purposes of this section, "indigent" means that the defendant has been determined to be indigent

60 pursuant to the guidelines set forth in § 19.2-159.

61 § 55.1-1208. Prohibited provisions in rental agreements.

62 A. A rental agreement shall not contain provisions that the tenant:

63 1. Agrees to waive or forgo rights or remedies under this chapter;

64 2. Agrees to waive or forgo rights or remedies pertaining to the 120-day conversion or rehabilitation
65 notice required in the Virginia Condominium Act (§ 55.1-1900 et seq.) or the Virginia Real Estate
66 Cooperative Act (§ 55.1-2100 et seq.) or under § 55.1-1410;

67 3. Authorizes any person to confess judgment on a claim arising out of the rental agreement;

68 4. Agrees to pay the landlord's attorney fees except as provided in this chapter;

69 5. Agrees to the exculpation or limitation of any liability of the landlord to the tenant arising under law or 70 to indemnify the landlord for that liability or any associated costs;

71 6. Agrees as a condition of tenancy in public housing to a prohibition or restriction of any lawful 72 possession of a firearm within individual dwelling units unless required by federal law or regulation;

73 7. Agrees to the payment of a security deposit, insurance premiums for damage insurance, and insurance 74 premiums for renter's insurance prior to the commencement of the tenancy that exceed the amount of two 75 months' periodic rent; or

76 8. Agrees to waive remedies or rights under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C. § 3901 et 77 seq., prior to the occurrence of a dispute between landlord and tenant. Execution of leases shall not be 78 contingent upon the execution of a waiver of rights under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act; however, 79 upon the occurrence of any dispute, the landlord and tenant may execute a waiver of such rights and remedies 80 as to that dispute in order to facilitate a resolution.

81 B. Any provision prohibited by subsection A that is included in a rental agreement is unenforceable. If a 82 landlord brings an action to enforce any such provision, the tenant may recover actual damages sustained by 83 him and reasonable attorney fees.

84 C. If the landlord is a public housing authority, the landlord shall not require a tenant to pay any fee for 85 the maintenance or repair of any dwelling unit unless the repair is necessitated by the tenant's violation of a 86 requirement of this chapter.

87 § 55.1-1245. (Effective until the later of July 1, 2028, or seven years after the COVID-19 pandemic 88 state of emergency expires) Noncompliance with rental agreement; monetary penalty.

89 A. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, if there is a material noncompliance by the tenant with 90 the rental agreement or a violation of § 55.1-1227 materially affecting health and safety, the landlord may 91 serve a written notice on the tenant specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and stating that 92 the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than 30 days after receipt of the notice if the breach is 93 not remedied in 21 days and that the rental agreement shall terminate as provided in the notice.

94 B. If the breach is remediable by repairs or the payment of damages or otherwise and the tenant
95 adequately remedies the breach prior to the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement shall not 96 terminate.

97 C. If the tenant commits a breach that is not remediable, the landlord may serve a written notice on the 98 tenant specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and stating that the rental agreement will 99 terminate upon a date not less than 30 days after receipt of the notice. Notwithstanding anything to the 100 contrary, when a breach of the tenant's obligations under this chapter or the rental agreement involves or 101 constitutes a criminal or a willful act that is not remediable and that poses a threat to health or safety, the 102 landlord may terminate the rental agreement immediately and proceed to obtain possession of the premises.
103 For purposes of this subsection, any illegal drug activity involving a controlled substance, as used or defined
104 by the Drug Control Act (§ 54.1-3400 et seq.), or any activity that involves or constitutes a criminal or willful
105 act that also poses a threat to health and safety, by the tenant, an authorized occupant, or a guest or invitee of 106 the tenant shall constitute an immediate nonremediable violation for which the landlord may proceed to 107 terminate the tenancy without the necessity of waiting for a conviction of any criminal offense that may arise
108 out of the same actions. In order to obtain an order of possession from a court of competent jurisdiction
109 terminating the tenancy for illegal drug activity or for any other activity that involves or constitutes a criminal
110 or willful act that also poses a threat to health and safety, the landlord shall prove any such violations by a
111 preponderance of the evidence. However, where the illegal drug activity or any activity that involves or 112 constitutes a criminal or willful act that also poses a threat to health and safety is engaged in by an authorized
113 occupant or a guest or invitee of the tenant, the tenant shall be presumed to have knowledge of such activities
114 unless the presumption is rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence. The initial hearing on the landlord's 115 action for immediate possession of the premises shall be held within 15 calendar days from the date of 116 service on the tenant; however, the court shall order an earlier hearing when emergency conditions are
117 alleged to exist upon the premises that constitute an immediate threat to the health or safety of the other 118 tenants. After the initial hearing, if the matter is scheduled for a subsequent hearing or for a contested trial,
119 the court, to the extent practicable, shall order that the matter be given priority on the court's docket. Such 120 subsequent hearing or contested trial shall be heard no later than 30 calendar days from the date of service on

121 the tenant. During the interim period between the date of the initial hearing and the date of any subsequent 122 hearing or contested trial, the court may afford any further remedy or relief as is necessary to protect the 123 interests of parties to the proceeding or the interests of any other tenant residing on the premises. Failure by 124 the court to hold either of the hearings within the time limits set out in this section shall not be a basis for 125 dismissal of the case.

126 D. If the tenant is a victim of family abuse as defined in § 16.1-228 that occurred in the dwelling unit or 127 on the premises and the perpetrator is barred from the dwelling unit pursuant to § 55.1-1246 on the basis of 128 information provided by the tenant to the landlord, or by a protective order from a court of competent
129 jurisdiction pursuant to § 16.1-253.1 or 16.1-279.1 or subsection B of § 20-103, the lease shall not terminate
130 solely due to an act of family abuse against the tenant. However, these provisions shall not be applicable if (i)
131 the tenant fails to provide written documentation corroborating the tenant's status as a victim of family abuse
132 and the exclusion from the dwelling unit of the perpetrator no later than 21 days from the alleged offense or 133 (ii) the perpetrator returns to the dwelling unit or the premises, in violation of a bar notice, and the tenant fails
134 to promptly notify the landlord within 24 hours that the perpetrator has returned to the dwelling unit or the 135 premises, unless the tenant proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the tenant had no actual 136 knowledge that the perpetrator violated the bar notice, or it was not possible for the tenant to notify the 137 landlord within 24 hours, in which case the tenant shall promptly notify the landlord, but in no event later
138 than seven days. If the provisions of this subsection are not applicable, the tenant shall remain responsible for 139 the acts of the other co-tenants, authorized occupants, or guests or invitees pursuant to § 55.1-1227 and is 140 subject to termination of the tenancy pursuant to the lease and this chapter.

141 E. If the tenant has been served with a prior written notice that required the tenant to remedy a breach, and 142 the tenant remedied such breach, where the tenant intentionally commits a subsequent breach of a like nature
143 as the prior breach, the landlord may serve a written notice on the tenant specifying the acts and omissions
144 constituting the subsequent breach, make reference to the prior breach of a like nature, and state that the 145 rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than 30 days after receipt of the notice.

146 F. If rent is unpaid when due, and the tenant fails to pay rent within five days after written notice is served
147 on him notifying the tenant of his nonpayment, and of the landlord's intention to terminate the rental
148 agreement if the rent is not paid within the five-day period, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement
149 and proceed to obtain possession of the premises as provided in § 55.1-1251. If a check for rent is delivered
150 to the landlord drawn on an account with insufficient funds, or if an electronic funds transfer has been 151 rejected because of insufficient funds or a stop-payment order has been placed in bad faith by the authorizing 152 party, and the tenant fails to pay rent within five days after written notice is served on him notifying the 153 tenant of his nonpayment and of the landlord's intention to terminate the rental agreement if the rent is not
154 paid by cash, cashier's check, certified check, or a completed electronic funds transfer within the five-day
155 period, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement and proceed to obtain possession of the premises as 156 provided in § 55.1-1251. Nothing shall be construed to prevent a landlord from seeking an award of costs or 157 attorney fees under § 8.01-27.1 or civil recovery under § 8.01-27.2, as a part of other damages requested on 158 the unlawful detainer filed pursuant to § 8.01-126, provided that the landlord has given notice in accordance 159 with § 55.1-1202, which notice may be included in the five-day termination notice provided in accordance 160 with this section.

161 G. If a public housing authority issues a notice of nonpayment of rent to a tenant, such public housing
162 authority shall also provide to the tenant along with the notice of nonpayment written information printed on
163 pink or orange paper explaining how the tenant may recertify the tenant's income, including how the tenant
164 can, in accordance with federal law and policy, report changes in income, request a minimum rent hardship
165 exemption, and file grievances. Such information shall be posted by the public housing authority in at least
166 five conspicuous locations in each public housing community under its authority.

167 H. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the landlord may recover damages and obtain injunctive
168 relief for any noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or § 55.1-1227. In the event of a breach 169 of the rental agreement or noncompliance by the tenant, the landlord shall be entitled to recover from the 170 tenant the following, regardless of whether a lawsuit is filed or an order is obtained from a court: (i) rent due
171 and owing as contracted for in the rental agreement, (ii) other charges and fees as contracted for in the rental
172 agreement, (iii) late charges contracted for in the rental agreement, (iv) reasonable attorney fees as contracted
173 for in the rental agreement or as provided by law, (v) costs of the proceeding as contracted for in the rental
174 agreement or as provided by law only if court action has been filed, and (vi) damages to the dwelling unit or 175 premises as contracted for in the rental agreement.

176 I. In a case where a lawsuit is pending before the court upon a breach of the rental agreement or 177 noncompliance by the tenant and the landlord prevails, the court shall award a money judgment to the 178 landlord and against the tenant for the relief requested, which may include the following: (i) rent due and 179 owing as of the court date as contracted for in the rental agreement; (ii) other charges and fees as contracted
180 for in the rental agreement; (iii) late charges contracted for in the rental agreement; (iv) reasonable attorney
181 fees as contracted for in the rental agreement or as provided by law, unless in any such action the tenant

182 proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the tenant's failure to pay rent or vacate was reasonable; (v)
183 costs of the proceeding as contracted for in the rental agreement or as provided by law; and (vi) damages to 184 the dwelling unit or premises.

185 F. J. 1. A landlord who owns more than four rental dwelling units or more than a 10 percent interest in 186 more than four rental dwelling units, whether individually or through a business entity, in the 187 Commonwealth, shall not take any adverse action, as defined in 15 U.S.C. § 1681a(k), against an applicant 188 for tenancy based solely on payment history or an eviction for nonpayment of rent that occurred during the 189 period beginning on March 12, 2020, and ending 30 days after the expiration or revocation of any state of 190 emergency declared by the Governor related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

191 2. If such a landlord denies an applicant for tenancy, then the landlord shall provide to the applicant 192 written notice of the denial and of the applicant's right to assert that his failure to qualify was based upon 193 payment history or an eviction based on nonpayment of rent that occurred during the period beginning on 194 March 12, 2020, and ending 30 days after the expiration or revocation of any state of emergency related to 195 the COVID-19 pandemic. The written notice of denial shall include the statewide legal aid telephone number 196 and website address and shall inform the applicant that he must assert his right to challenge the denial within 197 seven days of the postmark date. If the landlord does not receive a response from the applicant within seven 198 days of the postmark date, the landlord may proceed. If, in addition to the written notice, the landlord 199 provides notice to the applicant by electronic or telephonic means using an email address, telephone number, 200 or other contact information provided by the applicant informing the applicant of his denial and right to assert 201 that his failure to qualify was based upon payment history or an eviction based on nonpayment of rent that 202 occurred during the period beginning on March 12, 2020, and ending 30 days after the expiration or 203 revocation of any state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic and the tenant does not make such 204 assertion that the failure to qualify was the result of such payment history or eviction prior to the close of 205 business on the next business day, the landlord may proceed. The landlord must be able to validate the date 206 and time that any communication sent by electronic or telephonic means was sent to the applicant. If a 207 landlord does receive a response from the applicant asserting such a right, and the landlord relied upon a 208 consumer or tenant screening report, the landlord shall make a good faith effort to contact the generator of the 209 report to ascertain whether such determination was due solely to the applicant for tenancy's payment history 210 or an eviction for nonpayment that occurred during the period beginning on March 12, 2020, and ending 30 211 days after the expiration or revocation of any state of emergency declared by the Governor related to the 212 COVID-19 pandemic. If the landlord does not receive a response from the generator of the report within three 213 business days of requesting the information, the landlord may proceed with using the information from the 214 report without additional action.

215 3. If such a landlord does not comply with the provisions of this subsection, the applicant for tenancy may 216 recover statutory damages of $1,000, along with attorney fees.

217 § 55.1-1245. (Effective the later of July 1, 2028, or 7 years after the COVID-19 pandemic state of 218 emergency expires) Noncompliance with rental agreement; monetary penalty.

219 A. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, if there is a material noncompliance by the tenant with 220 the rental agreement or a violation of § 55.1-1227 materially affecting health and safety, the landlord may
221 serve a written notice on the tenant specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and stating that 222 the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than 30 days after receipt of the notice if the breach is 223 not remedied in 21 days and that the rental agreement shall terminate as provided in the notice.

224 B. If the breach is remediable by repairs or the payment of damages or otherwise and the tenant
225 adequately remedies the breach prior to the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement shall not 226 terminate.

227 C. If the tenant commits a breach that is not remediable, the landlord may serve a written notice on the 228 tenant specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and stating that the rental agreement will 229 terminate upon a date not less than 30 days after receipt of the notice. Notwithstanding anything to the 230 contrary, when a breach of the tenant's obligations under this chapter or the rental agreement involves or 231 constitutes a criminal or a willful act that is not remediable and that poses a threat to health or safety, the 232 landlord may terminate the rental agreement immediately and proceed to obtain possession of the premises.
233 For purposes of this subsection, any illegal drug activity involving a controlled substance, as used or defined
234 by the Drug Control Act (§ 54.1-3400 et seq.), or any activity that involves or constitutes a criminal or willful
235 act that also poses a threat to health and safety, by the tenant, an authorized occupant, or a guest or invitee of 236 the tenant shall constitute an immediate nonremediable violation for which the landlord may proceed to 237 terminate the tenancy without the necessity of waiting for a conviction of any criminal offense that may arise
238 out of the same actions. In order to obtain an order of possession from a court of competent jurisdiction
239 terminating the tenancy for illegal drug activity or for any other activity that involves or constitutes a criminal
240 or willful act that also poses a threat to health and safety, the landlord shall prove any such violations by a
241 preponderance of the evidence. However, where the illegal drug activity or any activity that involves or 242 constitutes a criminal or willful act that also poses a threat to health and safety is engaged in by an authorized

243 occupant or a guest or invitee of the tenant, the tenant shall be presumed to have knowledge of such activities
 244 unless the presumption is rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence. The initial hearing on the landlord's 245 action for immediate possession of the premises shall be held within 15 calendar days from the date of 246 service on the tenant; however, the court shall order an earlier hearing when emergency conditions are 247 alleged to exist upon the premises that constitute an immediate threat to the health or safety of the other
 248 tenants. After the initial hearing, if the matter is scheduled for a subsequent hearing or for a contested trial,
 249 the court, to the extent practicable, shall order that the matter be given priority on the court's docket. Such 250 subsequent hearing or contested trial shall be heard no later than 30 calendar days from the date of service on 251 the tenant. During the interim period between the date of the initial hearing and the date of any subsequent 252 hearing or contested trial, the court may afford any further remedy or relief as is necessary to protect the 253 interests of parties to the proceeding or the interests of any other tenant residing on the premises. Failure by 254 the court to hold either of the hearings within the time limits set out in this section shall not be a basis for 255 dismissal of the case.

256 D. If the tenant is a victim of family abuse as defined in § 16.1-228 that occurred in the dwelling unit or 257 on the premises and the perpetrator is barred from the dwelling unit pursuant to § 55.1-1246 on the basis of 258 information provided by the tenant to the landlord, or by a protective order from a court of competent
 259 jurisdiction pursuant to § 16.1-253.1 or 16.1-279.1 or subsection B of § 20-103, the lease shall not terminate
 260 solely due to an act of family abuse against the tenant. However, these provisions shall not be applicable if (i)
 261 the tenant fails to provide written documentation corroborating the tenant's status as a victim of family abuse
 262 and the exclusion from the dwelling unit of the perpetrator no later than 21 days from the alleged offense or 263 (ii) the perpetrator returns to the dwelling unit or the premises, in violation of a bar notice, and the tenant fails
 264 to promptly notify the landlord within 24 hours that the perpetrator has returned to the dwelling unit or the 265 premises, unless the tenant proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the tenant had no actual 266 knowledge that the perpetrator violated the bar notice, or it was not possible for the tenant to notify the 267 landlord within 24 hours, in which case the tenant shall promptly notify the landlord, but in no event later
 268 than seven days. If the provisions of this subsection are not applicable, the tenant shall remain responsible for 269 the acts of the other co-tenants, authorized occupants, or guests or invitees pursuant to § 55.1-1227 and is 270 subject to termination of the tenancy pursuant to the lease and this chapter.

271 E. If the tenant has been served with a prior written notice that required the tenant to remedy a breach, and 272 the tenant remedied such breach, where the tenant intentionally commits a subsequent breach of a like nature
 273 as the prior breach, the landlord may serve a written notice on the tenant specifying the acts and omissions
 274 constituting the subsequent breach, make reference to the prior breach of a like nature, and state that the 275 rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than 30 days after receipt of the notice.

276 F. If rent is unpaid when due, and the tenant fails to pay rent within five days after written notice is served
 277 on him notifying the tenant of his nonpayment, and of the landlord's intention to terminate the rental
 278 agreement if the rent is not paid within the five-day period, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement
 279 and proceed to obtain possession of the premises as provided in § 55.1-1251. If a check for rent is delivered
 280 to the landlord drawn on an account with insufficient funds, or if an electronic funds transfer has been 281 rejected because of insufficient funds or a stop-payment order has been placed in bad faith by the authorizing 282 party, and the tenant fails to pay rent within five days after written notice is served on him notifying the 283 tenant of his nonpayment and of the landlord's intention to terminate the rental agreement if the rent is not
 284 paid by cash, cashier's check, certified check, or a completed electronic funds transfer within the five-day
 285 period, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement and proceed to obtain possession of the premises as 286 provided in § 55.1-1251. Nothing shall be construed to prevent a landlord from seeking an award of costs or 287 attorney fees under § 8.01-27.1 or civil recovery under § 8.01-27.2, as a part of other damages requested on 288 the unlawful detainer filed pursuant to § 8.01-126, provided that the landlord has given notice in accordance 289 with § 55.1-1202, which notice may be included in the five-day termination notice provided in accordance 290 with this section.

291 G. If a public housing authority issues a notice of nonpayment of rent to a tenant, such public housing
 292 authority shall also provide to the tenant along with the notice of nonpayment written information printed on
 293 pink or orange paper explaining how the tenant may recertify the tenant's income, including how the tenant
 294 can, in accordance with federal law and policy, report changes in income, request a minimum rent hardship
 295 exemption, and file grievances. Such information shall be posted by the public housing authority in at least
 296 five conspicuous locations in each public housing community under its authority.

297 H. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the landlord may recover damages and obtain injunctive
 298 relief for any noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or § 55.1-1227. In the event of a breach
 299 of the rental agreement or noncompliance by the tenant, the landlord shall be entitled to recover from the
 300 tenant the following, regardless of whether a lawsuit is filed or an order is obtained from a court: (i) rent due
 301 and owing as contracted for in the rental agreement, (ii) other charges and fees as contracted for in the rental
 302 agreement, (iii) late charges contracted for in the rental agreement, (iv) reasonable attorney fees as contracted
 303 for in the rental agreement or as provided by law, (v) costs of the proceeding as contracted for in the rental

304 agreement or as provided by law only if court action has been filed, and (vi) damages to the dwelling unit or 305 premises as contracted for in the rental agreement.

306 ~~H. I.~~ In a case where a lawsuit is pending before the court upon a breach of the rental agreement or 307 noncompliance by the tenant and the landlord prevails, the court shall award a money judgment to the 308 landlord and against the tenant for the relief requested, which may include the following: (i) rent due and 309 owing as of the court date as contracted for in the rental agreement; (ii) other charges and fees as contracted
310 for in the rental agreement; (iii) late charges contracted for in the rental agreement; (iv) reasonable attorney
311 fees as contracted for in the rental agreement or as provided by law, unless in any such action the tenant
312 proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the tenant's failure to pay rent or vacate was reasonable; (v)
313 costs of the proceeding as contracted for in the rental agreement or as provided by law; and (vi) damages to 314 the dwelling unit or premises.