88 B. No additional circuit court judge shall be authorized or provided for any judicial circuit until the 89 Judicial Council has made a study of the need for such additional circuit court judge and has reported its 90 findings and recommendations to the House and Senate Committees for Courts of Justice. The boundary of 91 any judicial circuit shall not be changed until a study has been made by the Judicial Council and a report of 92 its findings and recommendations made to said Committees.

93 C. If the Judicial Council finds the need for an additional circuit court judge after a study is made pursuant 94 to subsection B, the study shall be made available to the Compensation Board and the House and Senate
95 Committees for Courts of Justice and the Judicial Council shall publish notice of such finding in a publication
96 of general circulation among attorneys licensed to practice in the Commonwealth. The Compensation Board
97 shall make a study of the need to provide additional courtroom security and deputy court clerk staffing. This 98 study shall be reported to the House Committee for Courts of Justice and the Senate Committee for Courts of 99 Justice, and to the Department of Planning and Budget.
