Patron Prior to Engrossment—Delegate Seibold

Referred to Committee on General Laws

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 54.1-4400, 54.1-4403, 54.1-4409.1, 54.1-4409.2, 54.1-4411, 54.1-4412.1, 54.1-4413.4, 54.1-4414 and 54.1-4425 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 54.1-4400. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Accredited institution" means a degree-granting institution of higher education accredited either by (i) one of the regional accrediting organizations, including the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, New England Commission of Higher Education, Higher Learning Commission, Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges, and WASC Senior College and University Commission, or their successors or (ii) an accrediting organization demonstrating to the Board periodically, as prescribed by the Board, that its accreditation process and standards are substantially equivalent to the accreditation process and standards of the regional accrediting organizations.

"Assurance" means any form of expressed or implied opinion or conclusion about the conformity of a financial statement with any recognition, measurement, presentation, or disclosure principles for financial statements.

"Attest services" means audit, review, or other engagements performed in accordance with the standards that have been established by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, by the Auditing Standards Board or the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, or by any successor standard-setting authorities.

"Board" means the Virginia Board of Accountancy.

"Compilation services" means compiling financial statements in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants or by any successor standard-setting authorities.

"Continuing professional education" means the education that a person obtains after passing the CPA examination and that relates to services provided to or on behalf of an employer in academia, government, or industry or to services provided to the public.

"CPA" means certified public accountant.

"CPA examination" means the national uniform CPA examination approved and administered by the board of accountancy of a state or by the board's designee.

"CPA wall certificate" means the symbolic document suitable for wall display that is issued by the board of accountancy of a state to a person meeting the requirements to use the CPA title in that state.

"Executive Director" means the Executive Director of the Board.

"Experience" means employment in academia, a firm, government, or an industry in any capacity involving the substantial use of accounting, financial, tax, or other skills that are relevant, as determined by the Board, to provide services to or on behalf of an employer or to the public. Such experience must be verified by an active, licensed CPA.

"Facilitated State Board Access" or "FSBA" means the sponsoring organization's process whereby it provides the Board access to peer review results via a secure website.

"Financial statement" means a presentation of historical or prospective financial information about one or more persons or entities.

"Financial statement preparation services" means engaging a licensee in public practice for financial statement preparation services executed in accordance with the standards established by the Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants or by any successor standard-setting authorities.

"Firm" means an entity formed by one or more licensees as a sole proprietorship, a partnership, a corporation, a limited liability company, or any other type of entity permitted by law with the purpose of providing professional services to the public.

"License of another state" means the license that is issued by the board of accountancy of a state other than Virginia that gives a person the privilege of using the CPA title in that state or that gives a firm the

59 privilege of providing attest services, compilation services, and financial statement preparation services to 60 persons and entities located in that state.

61 "Licensed" means holding a Virginia license or the license of another state.

62 "Licensee" means a person or firm holding a Virginia license or the license of another state.

63 "Peer review" means a review of a firm's attest services, compilation services, and financial statements
64 preparation services that is conducted in accordance with the applicable monitoring program of the American
65 Institute of Certified Public Accountants or its successor, or with another monitoring program approved by 66 the Board.

67 "Practice of public accounting" means the performance of professional services for a client by a licensee
68 or licensee's firm.

69 "Professional services" means all services requiring substantial use of accountancy or related skills that 70 are performed by a licensee for a client or for an employer. Such services are subject to the guidance of the 71 standard-setting authorities listed in the standards of conduct and practice in subdivisions 5 and 6 of §
72 54.1-4413.3 or by any equivalent standard-setting authority as approved by the Board.

73 "Providing services to or on behalf of an employer" means the performance of professional services while 74 employed or engaged on a contractual basis by a licensee to or on behalf of an entity. "Providing services to 75 or on behalf of an employer" does not include a person or firm engaged in the practice of public accounting.

76 "Providing services to the public" means providing services that are subject to the guidance of the
77 standard-setting authorities listed in the standards of conduct and practice in subdivisions 5 and 6 of §
78 54.1-4413.3 or by an equivalent standard-setting authority as approved by the Board.

79 "Sponsoring organization" means a Board-approved professional society or other organization responsible
80 for the facilitation and administration of peer reviews through use of its peer review program and applicable
81 peer review standards.

82 "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any territory of the United States
83 that is a recognized jurisdiction by the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy or its successor.

84 "Substantially equivalent" means a Board determination that the education requirements of another 85 jurisdiction are comparable to those prescribed by the Board.

86 "Using the CPA title in Virginia" means the use of "CPA," "Certified Public Accountant," or "public 87 accountant" in any manner of communication by any person, firm, or entity to persons or entities located in 88 Virginia portraying such person, firm, or entity as being licensed or legally permitted to provide professional
89 services in Virginia. Holding a Virginia license or the license of another state constitutes using the CPA title
90 in Virginia.

91 "Virginia license" means a license that is issued by the Board giving a person or firm the privilege of 92 using the CPA title in Virginia or a firm the privilege of providing attest services, compilation services, and 93 financial statement preparation services to persons and entities located in Virginia.

94 § 54.1-4403. General powers and duties of the Board.

95 The Board shall have the power and duty to:

96 1. Establish the qualifications of applicants for licensure, provided that all qualifications shall be
97 necessary to ensure competence and integrity.

98 2. Examine, or cause to be examined, the qualifications of each applicant for licensure, including the 99 preparation, administration, and grading of the CPA examination.

100 3. Promulgate regulations in accordance with the Administrative Process Act (§ 2.2-4000 et seq.)
101 necessary to assure continued competency, to prevent deceptive or misleading practices by licensees, and to 102 effectively administer the regulatory system.

103 4. Levy and collect fees for the issuance, renewal, or reinstatement of Virginia licenses that are sufficient
104 to cover all expenses of the administration and operation of the Board.

105 5. Levy on holders of Virginia licenses special assessments necessary to cover expenses of the Board.

106 6. Initiate or receive complaints concerning the conduct of or violation of the provisions of this chapter or 107 regulations promulgated by the Board by holders of Virginia licenses, individuals, firms, or entities claiming 108 to hold a Virginia license, or unlicensed individuals, firms, or entities using the CPA title in Virginia, and to 109 take appropriate disciplinary action if warranted.

110 7. Initiate or receive complaints concerning the conduct of persons or firms who use the CPA title in 111 Virginia under the ~~substantial equivalency~~ practice privilege provisions of § 54.1-4411 or firms that provide 112 attest services, compilation services, or financial statement preparation services to persons or entities located
113 in Virginia under the provisions of subsection C of § 54.1-4412.1, and to take appropriate disciplinary action
114 if warranted.

115 8. Initiate or receive complaints concerning violations of the provisions of this chapter or regulations
116 promulgated by the Board by persons or firms who use the CPA title in Virginia under the ~~substantial~~
117 ~~equivalency~~ practice privilege provisions of § 54.1-4411 or firms that provide attest services, compilation
118 services, or financial statement preparation services to persons or entities located in Virginia under the 119 provisions of subsection C of § 54.1-4412.1, and to take appropriate disciplinary action if warranted.

120 9. Revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew or reinstate a Virginia license for just causes as prescribed by the 121 Board.

122 10. Revoke or suspend, for just causes as prescribed by the Board, a person's or firm's privilege of using 123 the CPA title in Virginia under the ~~substantial equivalency~~ practice privilege provisions of § 54.1-4411 or a
 124 firm's privilege of providing attest services, compilation services, or financial statement preparation services
 125 to persons or entities located in Virginia under the provisions of subsection C of § 54.1-4412.1.

126 11. Establish requirements for peer reviews.

127 12. Establish continuing professional educational requirements as a condition for issuance, renewal, or 128 reinstatement of a Virginia license.

129 13. Expand or interpret the standards of conduct and practice in § 54.1-4413.3.

130 14. Enter into contracts necessary or convenient for carrying out the provisions of this chapter or the 131 functions of the Board.

132 15. Permit certain biographical references to previous CPA licensure.

133 16. Promulgate additional guidance on using the CPA title in Virginia as necessary.

134 17. Do all things necessary and convenient for carrying into effect this chapter and regulations
 135 promulgated by the Board.

136 § 54.1-4409.1. Licensing requirements for persons.

137 A. A person must be licensed in order to use the CPA title in Virginia.

138 1. The person shall hold a Virginia license if he provides services to the public and the principal place of 139 business in which he provides those services is in Virginia.

140 2. Other persons shall not be required to hold a Virginia license in order to use the CPA title in Virginia
 141 provided that they hold the license of another state and comply with the ~~substantial equivalency~~ practice
 142 privilege provisions of § 54.1-4411.

143 B. The Board shall prescribe the methods, fees, and continuing professional education requirements for a
 144 person to apply for the issuance, renewal, or reinstatement of a Virginia license.

145 C. The Board has the authority to refuse to grant a person the privilege of using the CPA title in Virginia
 146 if, based upon all the information available, the Board finds that the person is unfit or unsuited to use the 147 CPA title in Virginia. The Board shall not refuse to grant a person the privilege of using the CPA title in 148 Virginia solely because of a criminal conviction.

149 § 54.1-4409.2. How a person may obtain a Virginia license.

150 A. A person who has not held the license of any state may obtain a Virginia license under this subsection.

151 1. To be considered for a Virginia license, the person seeking licensure shall:

152 a. Provide documentation that he has obtained from one or more accredited institutions at least 150
 153 semester hours of education, a baccalaureate or higher degree, and an accounting concentration or equivalent,
 154 as defined by the Board. For a person seeking licensure on or after January 1, 2026, provide documentation
 155 that he has obtained from one or more accredited institutions a baccalaureate or higher degree and an 156 accounting concentration or equivalent, as defined by the Board;

157 b. Provide documentation that he has passed the CPA examination;

158 c. Describe his continuing professional education since he passed the CPA examination. The Board shall

 160 requirement prescribed by the Board for that period; and

161 d. (1) For a person seeking licensure prior to January 1, 2026, describe ~~Describe~~ his experience. The 162 Board shall determine whether his experience complies with the experience requirement prescribed by the 163 Board.

164 (2) For a person seeking licensure on or after January 1, 2026, provide documentation of qualifying
 165 experience as determined by the Board, which shall include:

166 (a) Two years of experience for a person who has obtained a baccalaureate degree. The Board shall 167 permit at least 30 additional semester hours of education beyond the minimum hours required for a 168 baccalaureate degree to be substituted for one year of experience; or

169 (b) One year of experience for a person who has obtained a master's degree.

170 2. After evaluating information provided by the person, the Board may request additional information and 171 may impose additional requirements for obtaining a Virginia license.

172 B. A person who does not hold the license of another state but has previously held the license of another
 173 state may obtain a Virginia license under this subsection.

174 1. To be considered for a Virginia license, the person seeking licensure shall:

175 a. Disclose to the Board each state in which he has held a license;

176 b. Disclose, for each of those states, why the license is no longer held and provide documentation from the 177 board of accountancy concerning whether he has been found guilty of any violations of the standards of 178 conduct and practice established by statutes of the state or regulations promulgated by the board;

179 c. Describe the semester hours of education he has obtained from institutions of higher education. The 180 Board shall determine whether the education obtained is substantially equivalent to the education ~~that would~~
 181 ~~have been~~ required by the Board ~~when the person passed the CPA examination;~~

182 d. Provide documentation that the person has passed the CPA examination;

183 e. Describe his continuing professional education since he last held the license of another state. The Board
 184 shall determine whether his continuing professional education complies with requirement prescribed by the 185 Board for reinstatement of a Virginia license; and 186 e- f. Describe his experience. The Board shall determine whether his experience complies with the 187 experience requirement prescribed by the Board.

188 2. After evaluating the information provided by the person, the Board may request additional information
 189 and may impose additional requirements for obtaining a Virginia license.

190 C. A person who holds the license of another state may obtain a Virginia license under this subsection.

191 1. To be considered for a Virginia license, the person seeking licensure shall:

192 a. Disclose to the Board each state in which he holds or has held a license;

193 b. Provide, for each state in which the person holds a license, documentation from the board of 194 accountancy concerning whether he is in good standing with the board, whether there are any pending actions
 195 alleging violations of the standards of conduct and practice established by statutes of the state or regulations
 196 promulgated by the board, and whether he has been found guilty of any violations of the standards of conduct
 197 and practice established by statutes of the state or regulations promulgated by the board;

198 c. Disclose, for each state in which the person has held a license, why the license is no longer held and 199 provide documentation from the board of accountancy concerning whether he has been found guilty of any 200 violations of the standards of conduct and practice established by statutes of the state or regulations
 201 promulgated by the board;

202 d. Describe the semester hours of education he has obtained from institutions of higher education. The
 203 Board shall determine whether the education obtained is substantially equivalent to the education ~~that would~~
 204 ~~have been required by the Board when the person passed the CPA examination;~~

205 e. Provide documentation that the person has passed the CPA examination;

206 f. Describe his continuing professional education during the most recent reporting period that would be 207 required for the holder of a Virginia license. The Board shall determine whether his continuing professional 208 education complies with the continuing professional education requirement prescribed by the Board for that 209 period; and

210 f- g. Describe his experience. The Board shall determine whether his experience complies with the 211 experience requirement prescribed by the Board.

212 2. After evaluating the information provided by the person, the Board may request additional information
 213 and may impose additional requirements for obtaining a Virginia license.

214 § 54.1-4411. Practice privilege provisions for persons who hold the license of another state.

215 A. A person who (i) holds the license of another state shall be considered to have met requirements that 216 are substantially equivalent to those prescribed by the Board if:

217 1. ~~The Board has determined that the education, CPA examination, and experience requirements of the~~ 218 ~~state are substantially equivalent to those prescribed by the Board, or~~

219 2. ~~The person has demonstrated meeting education, CPA examination, and experience requirements that~~
 220 ~~are substantially equivalent to those prescribed by the Board.~~ a license in good standing issued by another
 221 state, territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia and (ii) has passed the CPA examination
 222 shall be granted practice privilege to provide services to the public in the Commonwealth without notice to 223 the Board or payment of any fees.

224 B. A person who holds the license of another state and meets the substantial equivalency provisions of 225 exercises practice privilege pursuant to subsection A shall not be required to hold a Virginia license to use
 226 the CPA title in Virginia provided that either (i) he provides services to the public and the principal place of 227 business in which he provides those services is in other states or (ii) he does not provide services to the public 228 .

229 However, to use the CPA title in Virginia, the person shall:

230 1. Consent to be subject to:

231 a. The provisions of this chapter and regulations promulgated by the Board that apply to the holder of a
 232 Virginia license,

233 b. The jurisdiction of the Board in all disciplinary proceedings arising out of matters related to his use of 234 the CPA title or providing services to the public in Virginia, and

235 c. The Board's authority to revoke or suspend his privilege to use the CPA title in Virginia and to impose 236 penalties for the person's violations of the provisions of this chapter and regulations promulgated by the 237 Board.

238 2. Consent to the appointment of the executive director of the board of accountancy of the state that issued
 239 the license as his agent, upon whom process may be served (i) in any action or proceeding by the Board
 240 against him, or (ii) in any civil action in Virginia courts arising out of his using the CPA title in Virginia. In 241 the event he holds a license from more than one state, the Board shall establish which executive director shall 242 serve as his agent.

243 3. Consent to the personal and subject matter jurisdiction of the courts of Virginia in any civil action

244 arising out of his use of the CPA title or providing services to the public in Virginia and agree that the proper
245 venue for such actions is in Virginia.

246 4. Agree to cease using the CPA title in Virginia if he is no longer licensed.

247 C. A holder of a Virginia license who is using the CPA title in another state under substantial equivalency
248 or practice privilege provisions of statutes of the state or regulations promulgated by the board of 249 accountancy of the state shall be subject to disciplinary action by the Board for an act or omission committed
250 in that state. The Board may investigate any complaint made to or by the board of accountancy of any state
251 related to the person's use of the CPA title in that state.

252 D. The Board may cooperate and share information with appropriate authorities in other states in 253 investigations or enforcement matters concerning violations of the provisions of this chapter or regulations
254 promulgated by the Board and comparable statutes or regulations of other states or boards of accountancy.

255 E. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, if the Board determines after evaluation that
256 another state has granted CPA licenses without requiring candidates to meet minimum qualifications
257 acceptable to the Board, the Board may revoke practice privileges in the Commonwealth for CPAs licensed
258 by that state. Individual CPAs from states for which practice privileges have been revoked can still qualify
259 for practice privileges in the Commonwealth if the person would qualify for licensure in Virginia.

260 § 54.1-4412.1. Licensing requirements for firms.

261 A. Only a licensed firm can provide attest services, compilation services, or financial statement
262 preparation services to persons or entities located in Virginia. However, this shall not affect the privilege of a 263 person who is not licensed to include a statement on financial statements indicating that no assurance is 264 provided on the financial statements, to say that financial statements have been compiled, or to use the 265 compilation language, as prescribed by subsections B and C of § 54.1-4401.

266 B. A firm that provides attest services, compilation services, or financial statement preparation services to
267 persons or entities located in Virginia shall obtain a Virginia license if such firm's principal place of business
268 is in Virginia.

269 C. A firm whose principal place of business is not in Virginia is not required to obtain a Virginia license
270 but may provide attest services, compilation services, or financial statement preparation services to persons or 271 entities located in Virginia if the following provisions are met:

272 1. The firm holds the license of another state and can lawfully provide attest services, compilation
273 services, or financial statement preparation services to persons or entities in the state where its principal place
274 of business is located; and

275 2. The firm complies with subsection D; and 276 3. The firm's personnel working on the engagement either (i) hold a Virginia license or (ii) hold the 277 license of another state and comply with the ~~substantial equivalency~~ practice privilege provisions of § 278 54.1-4411; or

279 4. The firm's personnel working on the engagement are under the supervision of a person who either (i)
280 holds a Virginia license or (ii) holds the license of another state and complies with the ~~substantial equivalency~~
281 practice privilege provisions of § 54.1-4411.

282 D. For a firm to obtain and hold a Virginia license:

283 1. As determined on a firm-wide basis:

284 a. At least 51 percent of the owners of the firm shall be licensees, trustees of an eligible employee stock
285 ownership plan as defined in § 13.1-543, or a firm that meets this requirement; and

286 b. At least 51 percent of the voting equity interest in the firm shall be owned by persons who are licensees,
287 by trustees of an eligible employee stock ownership plan as defined in § 13.1-543, or by a firm that meets this 288 requirement.

289 If the death, retirement, or departure of an owner causes either of these requirements not to be met, the 290 requirement shall be met within one year after the death, retirement, or departure of the owner.

291 2. The Board shall prescribe requirements concerning the hours that owners who are not licensees work in 292 the firm and may prescribe other requirements for those persons.

293 3. All attest services, compilation services, and financial statement preparation services provided for 294 persons and entities located in Virginia shall be under the supervision of a person who either (i) holds a
295 Virginia license or (ii) holds the license of another state and complies with the ~~substantial equivalency~~
296 practice privilege provisions of § 54.1-4411.

297 4. Any person who releases or authorizes the release of reports on attest services, compilation services, or 298 financial statement preparation services provided for persons or entities located in Virginia shall:

299 a. Either (i) hold a Virginia license or (ii) hold the license of another state and comply with the ~~substantial~~ 300 ~~equivalency~~ practice privilege provisions of § 54.1-4411; and

301 b. Meet any additional requirements the Board prescribes.

302 5. The firm shall conduct its attest services, compilation services, and financial statement preparation
303 services in conformity with the standards of conduct and practice in § 54.1-4413.3 and regulations
304 promulgated by the Board.

305 6. If the services provided by the firm are within the scope of the practice-monitoring program of the

306 American Institute of Certified Public Accountants or its successor, the firm shall enroll in the program or in 307 another practice-monitoring program for attest services, compilation services, and financial statement
308 preparation services that is approved by the Board. In addition, if enrolled the firm shall:

309 a. Comply with any requirements prescribed by the Board in response to the results of peer reviews; and 310 b. Participate in the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants', or sponsoring organizations', 311 Facilitated State Board Access process, or its successor process, or another process approved by the Board for 312 peer reviews.

313 7. The name of the firm shall not be false, misleading, or deceptive.

314 E. The Board shall prescribe the methods and fees for a firm to apply for the issuance, renewal, or
315 reinstatement of a Virginia license.

316 F. A firm may not use the CPA title in Virginia unless it holds a Virginia license or the license of another
317 state as permitted in subsection C.

318 § 54.1-4413.4. Penalties.

319 A. Penalties the Board may impose consist of:

320 1. Revoking a Virginia license or the privilege of using the CPA title in Virginia or providing attest
321 services, compilation services, or financial statement preparation services to persons or entities located in 322 Virginia;

323 2. Suspending or refusing to renew or reinstate a Virginia license or the privilege of using the CPA title in 324 Virginia or providing attest services, compilation services, or financial statement preparation services to 325 persons or entities located in Virginia;

326 3. Reprimanding, censuring, or limiting the scope of practice of any person, firm, or entity using a
327 Virginia license or the CPA title in Virginia or any firm providing attest services, compilation services, or 328 financial statement preparation services to persons or entities located in Virginia;

329 4. Placing any person, firm, or entity using a Virginia license or the CPA title in Virginia or any firm

331 entities located in Virginia on probation, with or without terms, conditions, and limitations;

332 5. Requiring a firm holding a Virginia license to have an accelerated peer review conducted as the Board
333 may specify or to take other remedial actions;

334 6. Requiring a person holding a Virginia license to satisfactorily complete additional or specific 335 continuing professional education as the Board may specify;

336 7. Imposing a monetary penalty up to $100,000 for each violation of the provisions of this chapter or 337 regulations promulgated by the Board; any monetary penalty may be sued for and recovered in the name of 338 the Commonwealth; and

339 8. Requiring any person, firm, or entity that violates § 54.1-4414 to discontinue any acts in violation of 340 that provision.

341 B. The Board may impose penalties on persons, firms, or entities using a Virginia license or the CPA title
342 in Virginia or firms or entities providing attest services, compilation services, or financial statement
343 preparation services to persons or entities located in Virginia for:

344 1. Violation of the provisions of this chapter or violation of any regulation, subpoena, or order of the 345 Board;

346 2. Fraud or deceit in obtaining, renewing, or applying for reinstatement or lifting the suspension of a
347 Virginia license;

348 3. Revocation, suspension, or refusal to reinstate the license of another state for disciplinary reasons;

349 4. Revocation or suspension of the privilege of practicing before any state or federal agency or federal 350 court of law;

351 5. Dishonesty, fraud, or gross negligence in providing services to or on behalf of an employer, in 352 providing services to the public, or in providing attest services, compilation services, or financial statement
353 preparation services;

354 6. Dishonesty, fraud, or gross negligence in preparing the person's or firm's own state or federal income
355 tax return or financial statement;

356 7. Conviction of a felony, or of any crime involving moral turpitude, under the laws of the United States,
357 of Virginia, or of any other state if the acts involved would have constituted a crime under the laws of 358 Virginia; or

359 8. Lack of the competence required to provide services to the public for persons and entities located in 360 Virginia or to provide attest services, compilation services, and financial statement preparation services to 361 persons and entities located in Virginia, as determined by the Board.

362 C. The Board may also impose penalties on:

363 1. A person, firm, or entity that does not hold a Virginia license, or that does not meet the requirements to 364 use the CPA title in Virginia under the ~~substantial equivalency~~ practice privilege provisions of § 54.1-4411,
365 and commits any of the acts prohibited by § 54.1-4414; or

366 2. A firm or entity that does not meet the criteria prescribed by subdivision D 1 of § 54.1-4412.1 and 367 commits any of the acts prohibited by § 54.1-4414.

368 § 54.1-4414. Prohibited acts.

369 Neither (i) a person who does not hold a Virginia license or who does not meet the requirements to use the 370 CPA title in Virginia under the ~~substantial equivalency~~ practice privilege provisions of § 54.1-4411 nor (ii)
371 an entity that does not meet the criteria prescribed by subdivision D 1 of § 54.1-4412.1 shall:

379 authorities for reporting on financial statements, in any form or manner of communication about services
380 provided to persons or entities located in Virginia.

381 § 54.1-4425. Time for filing complaints against CPAs or CPA firms.

382 A. Except as otherwise provided in subsections B and C, any complaint against the holder of a Virginia
383 license for any violation of statutes or regulations pertaining to the Board or any of the programs that may be 384 in another title of the Code for which the Board has enforcement responsibility, in order to be investigated by 385 the Board, shall be made in writing, or otherwise made in accordance with Board procedures, and received by 386 the Board within [~~three~~ five] years of the act, omission, or occurrence giving rise to the violation.

387 B. However, where a holder of a Virginia license has materially and willfully misrepresented, concealed,
388 or omitted any information and the information so misrepresented, concealed, or omitted is material to the 389 establishment of the violation, the complaint may be made at any time within two years after discovery of the 390 misrepresentation, concealment, or omission.

391 C. In cases where criminal charges have been filed involving matters that, if found to be true, would also 392 constitute a violation of the regulations or laws of the regulant's profession enforced by the Board, an 393 investigation may be initiated by the Board at any time within ~~three~~ five years following the date of 394 conviction.

395 D. In order to be investigated by the Board, any complaint against an individual or firm using the CPA
396 title in Virginia under the ~~substantial equivalency~~ practice privilege provisions of § 54.1-4411 or against a
397 firm or entity providing attest services, compilation services, or financial statement preparation services under 398 subsection C of § 54.1-4412.1 for any violation of statutes or regulations pertaining to the Board or any of the 399 programs that may be in another title of this Code for which the Board has enforcement responsibility shall 400 be made in writing, or otherwise made in accordance with Board procedures, and received by the Board
401 within five years of the act, omission, or occurrence giving rise to the violation.

402 E. Public information obtained from any source may serve as the basis for a written complaint. Nothing in 403 this section shall be construed to require the filing of a complaint if the alleged violation of the statute or 404 regulation is discovered during an investigation authorized by law, and the acts, omissions, or conditions
405 constituting the alleged violations are witnessed by a sworn investigator appointed by the Executive Director.

406 F. Nothing herein shall deny the right of any party to bring a civil cause of action in a court of law.

407 2. That the Board of Accountancy shall promulgate regulations to implement the provisions of this act
408 to be effective within 280 days of its enactment.
