

25100193D

HOUSE BILL NO. 1921

House Amendments in [ ] - February 3, 2025

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 40.1-33.3 through 40.1-33.6 of the Code of Virginia and to amend the Code of Virginia by adding in Article 2.1 of Chapter 3 of Title 40.1 sections numbered 40.1-33.5:1, 40.1-33.5:2, and 40.1-33.6:1, relating to employment; paid sick leave; civil penalties.

Patron Prior to Engrossment—Delegate Ward

Referred to Committee on Labor and Commerce

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 40.1-33.3 through 40.1-33.6 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Article 2.1 of Chapter 3 of Title 40.1 sections numbered 40.1-33.5:1, 40.1-33.5:2, and 40.1-33.6:1 as follows:

§ 40.1-33.3. Definitions.

As used in this article, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Domestic violence" has the same meaning as provided in subdivision 7 of § 38.2-508.

"Employee" means a home health worker who works on average at least 20 hours per week or 90 hours per month. "Employee" does not include an individual who (i) is licensed, registered, or certified by a health regulatory board within the Department of Health Professions; (ii) is employed by a hospital licensed by the Department of Health; and (iii) works, on average, no more than 30 hours per month.

"Employer" has the same meaning as provided in § 40.1-2. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 40.1-2.1, "employer" includes the Commonwealth and its agencies, institutions, and political subdivisions. "Employer" does not include any agency of the federal government.

"Family member" means:

1. Regardless of age, a biological child, adopted or foster child, stepchild, legal ward, child to whom the employee stands in loco parentis, or individual to whom an employee stood in loco parentis when the individual was a minor;

2. A biological parent, foster parent, stepparent, adoptive parent, legal guardian of an employee or an employee's spouse, or individual who stood in loco parentis to an employee when the employee or employee's spouse was a minor child;

3. An individual to whom an employee is legally married under the laws of any state;

4. A grandparent, grandchild, or sibling, whether of a biological, foster, adoptive, or step relationship, of an employee or the employee's spouse;

5. An individual for whom an employee is responsible for providing or arranging health or safety-related care, including helping that individual obtain diagnostic, preventive, routine, or therapeutic health treatment or ensuring the person is safe following domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking; or

6. Any other individual related by blood or affinity whose close association with an employee is the equivalent of a family relationship.

"Home health worker" means an individual who provides personal care, respite, or companion services to an individual who receives consumer-directed services under the state plan for medical assistance services.

"Paid sick leave" means leave that is compensated at the same hourly rate and with the same benefits, including health care benefits, as an employee normally earns during hours worked and is provided by an employer to an employee for the purposes described in § 40.1-33.5; however, such hourly rate shall not be less than the minimum wage amount set forth in § 40.1-28.10 without reduction for any tip credit that the employer would otherwise be permitted to claim.

"Retaliatory action" means a denial of any benefit provided pursuant to this article; any threat, discharge, suspension, demotion, or reduction of hours; or the taking of any other adverse action against an employee as a result of the employee's exercise of any paid sick leave benefits. "Retaliatory action" includes interference with or punishment for in any manner participating in or assisting an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this article.

"Sexual assault" means any act prohibited by the provisions of § 18.2-61, 18.2-67.1, 18.2-67.3, or 18.2-67.4.

"Stalking" means conduct prohibited by the provisions of § 18.2-60.3.

"Year" means a regular and consecutive 12-month period as determined by the employer.

§ 40.1-33.4. Accrual of paid sick leave.

A. All employees shall accrue a minimum of one hour of paid sick leave for every 30 hours worked. Paid sick leave shall be carried over to the year following the year in which it was accrued. An employee shall not accrue or use, or carry over more than 40 hours of paid sick leave in a year, unless the employer selects a

ENGROSSED

HB1921E

59 higher limit.

60 B. Employees who are exempt from overtime requirements under 29 U.S.C. § 213(a)(1) of the federal Fair
61 Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq., will be assumed to work 40 hours in each workweek for 62 purposes of paid sick leave accrual unless their normal workweek is less than 40 hours, in which case paid 63 sick leave accrues on the basis of that normal workweek.

64 C. Employees who are employed and compensated on a fee-for-service basis shall accrue paid sick leave
65 in accordance with regulations adopted by the Commissioner. The Commissioner shall promulgate such 66 regulations, which shall provide for the accrual of paid sick leave for such employees that is consistent with 67 the provisions of this section.

68 D. Paid sick leave as provided in this section shall begin to accrue at the commencement of employment.
69 An employer may provide all paid sick leave that an employee is expected to accrue in a year at the 70 beginning of the year.

71 ~~D.~~ E. Any employer with a paid leave policy, such as a paid time off policy, that provides an employee an 72 amount of paid leave sufficient to meet the requirements of this section and that may be used for the same 73 purposes and under the same conditions as paid sick leave under this article shall not be required to provide 74 additional paid sick leave to any employee that is eligible for paid leave under the policy.

75 ~~E.~~ F. Any employer that has entered into a bona fide collective bargaining agreement that requires the 76 employer to provide an amount of paid leave sufficient to meet the requirements of this section and that may 77 be used for the same purposes and under the same conditions as paid sick leave under this article shall not be
78 required to provide additional paid sick leave to any employee covered by such collective bargaining 79 agreement.

80 G. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring financial or other reimbursement to an 81 employee from an employer upon the employee's termination, resignation, retirement, or other separation
82 from employment for accrued paid sick leave that has not been used.

83 H. If an employee is transferred to a separate division, entity, or location but remains employed by the 84 same employer, the employee is entitled to all paid sick leave accrued at the prior division, entity, or location
85 and is entitled to use all paid sick leave as provided in this section. If an employee is separated from 86 employment with an employer and the employee is rehired within 12 months of separation by the same
87 employer, previously accrued paid sick leave that had not been used shall be reinstated. Further, the 88 employee shall be entitled to use accrued paid sick leave and accrue additional paid sick leave at the 89 recommencement of employment.

90 I. When a different employer succeeds or takes the place of an existing employer, all employees of the 91 original employer who remain employed by the successor employer are entitled to all paid sick leave that 92 they accrued when employed by the original employer and to use paid sick leave previously accrued.

93 J. At its discretion, an employer may loan paid sick leave to an employee in advance of accrual of paid
94 sick leave by such employee.

95 K. Nothing in this article shall be construed (i) to discourage or prohibit an employer from the adoption
96 or retention of a more generous paid sick leave policy than outlined herein; (ii) to preempt, limit, or 97 otherwise affect the applicability of any other law, regulation, requirement, policy, or standard that provides
98 for greater accrual or use by employees of paid sick leave or that extends other protections to employees; or 99 (iii) as diminishing the rights of public employees regarding paid sick leave or the use of paid sick leave as 100 provided under any applicable law.

101 § 40.1-33.5. Use of paid sick leave.

102 A. Paid sick leave shall be provided to an employee by an employer for:

103 1. An employee's mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; an employee's need for medical 104 diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; or an employee's need 105 for preventive medical care; ~~or~~

106 2. Care of a family member with a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; care of a family
107 member who needs medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury, or health 108 condition; or care of a family member who needs preventive medical care; or

109 3. Absence due to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, provided the leave is to allow the 110 employee to seek or obtain medical care, mental health care, counseling, legal services, relocation or 111 securing of an existing home, or other victim services for the employee or the employee's family member.

112 B. Paid sick leave shall be provided upon the request of an employee. Such request may be made orally, in 113 writing, by electronic means, or by any other means acceptable to the employer. When possible, the request 114 shall include the expected duration of the absence.

115 C. When the use of paid sick leave is foreseeable, the employee shall make a good faith effort to provide 116 notice of the need for such leave to the employer in advance of the use of the paid sick leave and shall make a
117 reasonable effort to schedule the use of paid sick leave in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the 118 operations of the employer.

119 D. An employer that requires notice of the need to use paid sick leave shall provide a written policy that

120 contains procedures for its employees to provide notice. An employer that has not provided to an employee a 121 copy of its written policy for providing such notice shall not deny paid sick leave to the employee based on 122 noncompliance with such a policy.

123 E. An employer shall not require, as a condition of an employee's taking paid sick leave, that an employee
 124 search for or find a replacement worker to cover the hours during which the employee is using paid sick
 125 leave. An employer shall not require an employee to work an alternate shift to make up for the use of sick 126 leave.

127 F. Paid sick leave shall be used in hourly increments unless the employer allows paid sick leave to be 128 taken in smaller increments.

129 G. An employer shall not require disclosure of details of health information about an employee or an 130 employee's family member or details of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking as a condition of 131 providing paid sick leave under this article. Unless otherwise required by law, an employer who possesses
 132 health, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking information about an employee or an employee's family 133 member shall treat such information as confidential and shall not disclose such information except to the 134 employee or with the consent of the employee.

135 H. For paid sick leave of three or more consecutive work days, an employer may require reasonable 136 documentation that the paid sick leave has been used for a purpose for which such leave is required to be 137 provided as set forth in subsection A. For the use of paid sick leave related to subdivision A 1 or 2, d 138 ocumentation signed by a health care professional indicating that paid sick leave is necessary shall be
 139 considered reasonable documentation for purposes of this subsection. For the use of paid sick leave related 140 to subdivision A 3, (i) a police report indicating domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking; (ii) a court
 141 document indicating the employee is involved in legal action related to domestic violence, sexual assault, or 142 stalking; (iii) documentation from a victim services advocate, the employee's attorney, a member of the 143 clergy, or a health care professional that the employee is or was receiving services related to domestic 144 violence, sexual assault, or stalking; or (iv) the employee's written statement that the use of paid sick leave is 145 for one of the purposes described in subdivision A 3 shall be considered reasonable documentation for 146 purposes of this subsection.

147 § 40.1-33.5:1. Certain health care workers; waiver; exception.

148 A. An employee who (i) is licensed, registered, or certified by a health regulatory board within the 149 Department of Health Professions; (ii) is employed by a hospital licensed by the Department of Health; and 150 (iii) works, on average, no more than 30 hours per month may waive the right to accrue and use paid sick
 151 leave under the provisions of this article. Such waiver shall be in writing and signed by the employee and the 152 employer. If an employee waives his rights in accordance with this subsection, the employer shall be deemed 153 to have satisfied the provisions of this article with respect to such employee.

154 B. Notwithstanding the provisions of this article, an employer shall not be required to provide paid sick
 155 leave under the provisions of this article to any employee who is employed on a pro re nata, or as-needed,
 156 basis, regardless of the number of hours worked in the month and who is (i) licensed, registered, or certified
 157 by a health regulatory board within the Department of Health Professions; (ii) employed by a facility
 158 licensed by the Department of Health; or (iii) employed by the University of Virginia Medical Center or 159 Virginia Commonwealth University Health System Authority.

160 § 40.1-33.5:2. Notice and recordkeeping; regulations.

161 The Commissioner shall promulgate regulations for employee notice and employer recordkeeping,
 162 including requirements for employers:

163 1. To notify employees of their rights under this article, both in writing and through required posting,
 164 including their right to file a complaint or bring a civil action for violations of this article;

165 2. To establish and maintain recordkeeping systems regarding the use and accrual of paid sick leave, 166 including the requirement to retain records for three years; and

167 3. To ensure the confidentiality of any protected health information or information regarding domestic 168 violence, sexual assault, or stalking that the employer possesses about an employee or an employee's family 169 member.

170 § 40.1-33.6. Retaliatory action prohibited.

171 A. No employer shall discharge, discipline, threaten, discriminate against, or penalize an employee, or 172 take other retaliatory action regarding an employee's compensation, terms, conditions, location, or privileges
 173 of employment, because the employee (i) has requested or exercised the benefits provided for in this article or 174 ; (ii) has alleged a violation of this article; (iii) has participated in an investigation, hearing, or proceeding or 175 cooperated with or assisted the Commissioner in investigations of any alleged violation of this article; or (iv)
 176 has informed any individual of such individual's potential benefits under this article.

177 B. Neither an employer nor any other person shall interfere with, restrain, deny the exercise of, or deny
 178 the attempt to exercise any benefit provided pursuant to this article. An employer's absence control policy
 179 shall not count paid sick leave taken under this article as an absence that may lead to or result in discipline,
 180 discharge, demotion, suspension, or any other adverse action. Protections of this section shall apply to any 181 person who mistakenly but in good faith alleges a violation of the provisions of this article.

182 § 40.1-33.6:1. Enforcement; civil penalties; civil actions.

183 A. The Commissioner shall promulgate regulations for implementation and enforcement of this article.

184 B. The Commissioner shall enforce the provisions of this article. In effectuating such enforcement, the 185 Commissioner shall establish a system utilizing multiple means of communication to receive complaints
186 regarding noncompliance with this article and to investigate complaints received by the Commissioner in a 187 timely manner.

188 C. Any person alleging a violation of this article shall have the right to file a complaint with the 189 Commissioner within one year of the date the person knew or should have known of the alleged violation. The 190 Commissioner shall encourage reporting pursuant to this section by keeping confidential, to the maximum 191 extent permitted by applicable laws, the name and other identifying information of the employee or other 192 person reporting the violation, provided, however, that with the authorization of such person, the 193 Commissioner may disclose the person's name and identifying information as necessary to enforce this article 194 or for other appropriate purposes.

195 D. Upon receiving a complaint alleging a violation of this article, the Commissioner shall investigate 196 such complaint and attempt to resolve it through mediation between the complainant and the subject of the 197 complaint or other means. The Commissioner shall keep the complainant notified regarding the status of his 198 complaint and any resultant investigation. If the Commissioner believes that a violation has occurred, he 199 shall issue to the offending person or employer a notice of violation and the relief required of the offending
200 person or entity. The Commissioner shall prescribe the form and wording of such notices of violation, 201 including any method of appealing a decision of the Commissioner.

202 E. The Commissioner shall notify any employer who he alleges has violated any provision of this article
203 by certified mail. Such notice shall contain a description of the alleged violation. Within 15 days of receipt of 204 notice of the alleged violation, the employer may request an informal conference with the Commissioner 205 regarding such violation.

206 F. Any such employer who knowingly violates this article shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed 207 $150 for the first violation and, for subsequent violations that occur within two years of any previous 208 violation, not to exceed $300 for the second violation and not to exceed $500 for each successive violation. In 209 determining the amount of any civil penalty to be imposed, the Commissioner shall consider the size of the 210 business of the employer charged and the gravity of the violation. The decision of the Commissioner shall be 211 final.

212 G. The Commissioner, with the written and signed consent of an employee, may institute proceedings on 213 behalf of an employee to enforce compliance with this article, to grant equitable relief as appropriate and 214 permitted by law, and to collect the amount of any uncompensated sick leave that shall be paid to the 215 employee entitled thereto. Upon entry of a final order of the Commissioner, or upon entry of a judgment
216 against the employer, the Commissioner or the court shall assess attorney fees of one-third the amount set 217 forth in the final order or judgment.

218 H. In addition to any civil penalties provided by this section, and without regard to any exhaustion of 219 alternative administrative remedies provided for in this section, an employee who alleges a violation of this 220 article may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction against an employer violating this article.
221 Such action may be brought by a person aggrieved by a violation of this article without first filing an 222 administrative complaint. Upon prevailing in an action brought pursuant to this section, the court shall order
223 as a remedy to the employee (i) twice the amount of any uncompensated sick leave; (ii) twice the amount of 224 any actual damages suffered as the result of an employer's violation of this article; (iii) injunctive relief as 225 appropriate to restrain continued violation of this article; (iv) such legal or equitable relief as may be 226 appropriate to remedy the violation, including the reinstatement of the employee to the same position held 227 before the retaliatory action or to an equivalent position; and (v) compensation for any lost wages, benefits,
228 and other remuneration, together with interest thereon and reasonable attorney fees and costs. The statute of 229 limitations for a civil action brought pursuant to this section shall be for a period of two years from the date
230 the alleged violation occurred or the date the aggrieved employee knew or should have known of the 231 violation.

232 I. Civil penalties owed under this article shall be paid to the Commissioner for deposit into the general
233 fund. The Commissioner shall prescribe procedures for the payment of proposed assessments of civil 234 penalties that are not contested by employers. Such procedures shall include provisions for an employer to 235 consent to abatement of the alleged violation and to pay a proposed civil penalty or a negotiated sum in lieu 236 of such civil penalty without admission of any civil liability arising from such alleged violation.

237 2. That the provisions of this act shall become effective on [ ~~January~~ July ] 1, 2026.