122 A. As used in this section:

123 "Artificial audio or artificial visual media" means any video recording, motion picture film, sound
124 recording, electronic image, or photograph (i) that depicts a candidate for public office engaging in speech 125 or conduct in which the candidate did not engage, (ii) that is so realistic that a reasonable person would 126 believe it depicts the actual speech or conduct of such candidate, and (iii) the production of which is 127 substantially dependent on technological means rather than the ability of another individual to physically or 128 verbally impersonate such candidate.

129 "Journalism" means the gathering, preparing, collecting, photographing, recording, writing, editing, 130 reporting, or publishing of news or information that concerns local, national, or international events or other 131 matters of public interest for dissemination to the public.

132 "News organization" means any (i) newspaper or magazine issued at regular intervals and having a 133 general circulation; (ii) recognized press association or wire service; (iii) licensed radio or television station 134 that engages in journalism; or (iv) business that, by means of photographic or electronic media, engages in 135 journalism and employs an editor overseeing the journalism function that follows commonly accepted 136 journalistic practice as evidenced by (a) membership in a state-based journalism organization, including the 137 Virginia Press Association and the Virginia Association of Broadcasters; (b) membership in a national 138 journalism organization, including the National Press Club, the Society of Professional Journalists, and the 139 Online News Association; (c) membership in a statewide or national wire news service, including the Capital
140 News Service, The Associated Press, and Reuters; or (d) its continuous operation since 1994 or earlier.

141 "Newsperson" means any person who, for a substantial portion of his livelihood or for substantial
142 financial gain, engages in journalism for a news organization. "Newsperson" includes any person 143 supervising or assisting another person in engaging in journalism for a news organization.

144 B. No person shall disseminate artificial audio or artificial visual media that is intended to influence an 145 election that such person knows or should have known is deceptive or misleading.

146 C. The prohibition in subsection B shall not apply if such media includes a conspicuous statement that 147 states "THIS MEDIA DOES NOT REPRESENT A TRUE RECORDING OF THE CANDIDATE." Any visual 148 media shall display such conspicuous statement in a text size that is easily readable by the average viewer. If 149 such visual media is a video, such statement shall appear for the duration of the video. Any audio media shall 150 include a verbal reading of such conspicuous statement at the beginning of such audio media that takes at 151 least five seconds to complete and shall be read at a pitch that can be easily heard by the average listener.

152 D. Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed 153 $50. However, if such dissemination (i) takes place within 90 days before an election, (ii) is made without the 154 consent of the depicted candidate, and (iii) is made with the intent to injure a candidate or influence the 155 result of an election, such person is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

156 E. Any (i) depicted individual, (ii) candidate for office who has been injured or is likely to be injured by 157 the dissemination of artificial audio or artificial visual media, or (iii) entity that represents the interests of 158 voters likely to be deceived by the dissemination of artificial audio or artificial visual media may also 159 institute an action for preventative relief to prohibit the publication or dissemination of such media, including 160 an application for a permanent or temporary injunction, against any person who published or disseminated
161 the artificial audio or artificial visual media. Such action shall be given priority over all pending matters 162 before the court. In any such action, the court may allow a private plaintiff to recover reasonable costs and 163 attorney fees and shall award such costs and attorney fees if such plaintiff is the prevailing party against the 164 party creating or disseminating such artificial audio or visual media.

165 F. The provisions of this section shall not apply to (i) any content that constitutes satire or parody; (ii)
166 any radio or television broadcasting station, including a cable or satellite television operator, Internet
167 service provider, programmer, or producer, Internet website, streaming service, mobile application, or 168 online platform, when it is paid to broadcast or publish artificial audio or artificial visual media prohibited 169 by this section; or (iii) any news organization or newsperson engaged in journalism that disseminates any 170 artificial audio or artificial visual media prohibited by this section as part of a bona fide newscast, news 171 interview, news documentary, or on-the-spot coverage of a bona fide news event if the broadcast or 172 publication clearly acknowledges, through content or disclosure, in a manner that can easily be heard and 173 understood by the average listener or viewer, that there are questions about the authenticity of the media.
174 However, nothing in this section shall prohibit a party from seeking injunctive relief against a news
175 organization from publishing an advertisement containing artificial audio or artificial visual media.
