HOUSE BILL NO. 1914
AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE
(Proposed by the Senate Committee on Finance and Appropriations on February 12, 2025)
(Patron Prior to Substitute—Delegate Sullivan)

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 8.01-195.11 and 8.01-195.13 of the Code of Virginia, relating to compensation for wrongful incarceration; compensation for certain intentional acts.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 8.01-195.11 and 8.01-195.13 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 8.01-195.11. Compensation for wrongful incarceration.

A. 1. Any person who is convicted of a felony by a county or city circuit court of the Commonwealth and is wrongfully incarcerated for such felony may be awarded compensation for each year of incarceration, or portion thereof. The amount of compensation per year shall be $55,000, adjusted on July 1 of each fiscal year by the year-over-year percentage increase in the Chained Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (C-CPI-U), as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U.S. Department of Labor, or any predecessor or successor index. Calculations made pursuant to this section shall be made by the State Treasurer and rounded up to the nearest dollar.

2. For compensation awarded pursuant to this section on or after January 1, 2024, a wrongfully incarcerated person who is awarded compensation pursuant to subdivision 1 shall also receive not less than $30,000, adjusted on July 1 of each fiscal year by the year-over-year percentage increase in the Chained Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers (C-CPI-U), as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U.S. Department of Labor, or any predecessor or successor index, for each year or fraction thereof (i) of imprisonment after being sentenced to death or (ii) that such person was required to register with the Sex Offender and Crimes Against Minors Registry pursuant to Chapter 9 (§ 9.1-900 et seq.) of Title 9.1 after release from incarceration.

B. Any compensation computed pursuant to subsection A and approved by the General Assembly shall be paid by the Comptroller by his warrant on the State Treasurer in favor of the person found to have been wrongfully incarcerated. The person wrongfully incarcerated shall be paid a lump sum.

C. In addition to the compensation awarded pursuant to subsection A, the General Assembly shall pay to the person wrongfully incarcerated the amount of any unreimbursed fine, fee, court cost, or restitution 31 imposed and paid and reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred to receive an award pursuant to this section.

32 The wrongfully incarcerated person may also be awarded other nonmonetary relief sought, including 33 counseling, housing assistance, employment assistance, health care and dental care, and personal financial 34 literacy assistance, as appropriate.

35 D. Any person who is convicted of a felony by a county or city circuit court of the Commonwealth and is 36 wrongfully incarcerated for such felony shall receive a transition assistance grant of $15,000 to be paid from 37 the Criminal Fund, which amount shall be deducted from any award received pursuant to subsection B, 38 within 30 days of receipt of the written request for the disbursement of the transition assistance grant to the 39 Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia. Payment of the transition assistance grant from the 40 Criminal Fund shall be made by the State Treasurer on warrants issued by the Comptroller upon written 41 request signed by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia. In addition, such person shall be 42 entitled to receive reimbursement up to $10,000 for tuition for career and technical training within the 43 Virginia Community College System contingent upon successful completion of the training. Reimbursement 44 for tuition shall be provided by the comprehensive community college at which the career or technical 45 training was completed.

46 E. If an individual eligible for compensation and benefits under this section is deceased, the individual's 47 estate has standing to be compensated under this section.

48 § 8.01-195.13. Compensation for certain intentional acts.

49 A. In any matter resulting in compensation for wrongful incarceration pursuant to this article, if a court of 50 competent jurisdiction over the matter determines, or the court record clearly demonstrates, that the 51 Commonwealth or any agency, instrumentality, officer or employee, or political subdivision thereof (i) 52 intentionally and wrongfully fabricated evidence that was used to obtain the wrongful conviction in such 53 manner and (ii) intentionally, willfully, and continuously suppressed or withheld evidence establishing the 54 innocence of the person wrongfully incarcerated, including ~~but not limited to~~ suppression or withholding of 55 evidence to the Governor for the purpose of clemency, the Commonwealth may compensate the person
56 wrongfully incarcerated for such intentional acts. Such amount shall be in addition to any compensation 57 awarded pursuant to § 8.01-195.11 and may be up to or equal to the amount of such compensation. The 58 additional compensation shall be added to any amount awarded pursuant to § 8.01-195.11, and the total 59 compensation shall be paid pursuant to subsection B of § 8.01-195.11. Nothing provided in this section shall

60 be interpreted to supplant, revoke, or supersede any other provision of this article applicable to the award of 61 compensation for wrongful incarceration, and the additional compensation shall be subject to any conditions 62 set forth in this article.

63 B. 1. Any compensation awarded pursuant to this article that includes the additional compensation for 64 intentional acts as set forth in subsection A shall not become effective and payable by the Commonwealth 65 unless and until (†) the person wrongfully incarcerated executes the release and waiver pursuant to subsection
66 B of § 8.01-195.12 and (ii) the instrumentality, or political subdivision thereof, employing any individual 67 committing the intentional acts set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) of subsection A enters into an agreement with 68 the person wrongfully incarcerated requiring such instrumentality or political subdivision to compensate the 69 person with a sum at least equal to the total compensation provided pursuant to § 8.01-195.11 and this section

71 2. a. In the event that (i) any compensation awarded pursuant to this article includes the additional 72 compensation for intentional acts as set forth in subsection A; (ii) such award has become effective and 73 payable by the Commonwealth pursuant to subdivision 1; and (iii) the instrumentality, or political 74 subdivision thereof, employed any individual committing the intentional acts set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) of 75 subsection A, then the person wrongfully incarcerated shall be compensated by such instrumentality, or 76 political subdivision thereof, with a sum at least equal to the total compensation provided pursuant to § 77 8.01-195.11 and this section.

78 b. If it is established to the satisfaction of the Governor that the instrumentality, or political subdivision
79 thereof, fails to compensate the person wrongfully incarcerated pursuant to subdivision a, the Governor shall 80 immediately make an order directing the Comptroller to withhold all further payment to the instrumentality, 81 or political subdivision thereof, of all funds, or of any part of them, appropriated and payable by the 82 Commonwealth to the instrumentality, or political subdivision thereof, for any and all purposes, until such 83 compensation is paid to the person.
