92 § 60.2-801. Paid family and medical leave insurance program.

93 A. By January 1, 2027, the Commission shall establish and administer a paid family and medical leave
94 insurance program and shall begin collecting contributions as provided in this chapter. By January 1, 2028,
95 the Commission shall begin receiving claims and paying family and medical leave benefits to covered 96 individuals.

97 B. Upon the filing of a claim pursuant to this chapter, the Commission shall notify the employer of such 98 claim within five business days.

99 C. Information contained in the files and records relating to a claimant under this chapter are 100 confidential and not open to public inspection other than to public employees in the performance of their 101 official duties. However, such claimant or an authorized representative of such claimant may review such 102 files and records or receive specific information from such records upon the presentation of such claimant's
103 signed authorization.

104 D. The Department of Human Resource Management shall adopt rules to ensure that its policies relating 105 to family and medical leave for employees of the Commonwealth, including parental leave under § 2.2-1210,
106 provide employees of the Commonwealth with leave benefits equal to or greater than the leave benefits
107 provided to a covered individual under the paid family and medical leave insurance program pursuant to this 108 chapter, including as described in subdivision A 1 of § 60.2-816.

109 E. The Commissioner shall adopt regulations as necessary to implement this chapter.

110 § 60.2-802. Eligibility for benefits; certification.

111 A. Beginning January 1, 2028, family and medical leave benefits shall be payable to any covered 112 individual who:

113 1. Because of birth, adoption, or placement through foster care, is caring for a new child during the first 114 year after the birth, adoption, or placement of that child;

115 2. Is caring for a family member with a serious health condition;

116 3. Has a serious health condition that makes the covered individual unable to perform the functions of the 117 position of such individual's employment;

118 4. Is caring for a covered service member who is the covered individual's next of kin or other family

119 member;

120 5. Is eligible for qualifying exigency leave arising out of the fact that a family member of the covered
121 individual is on active duty, or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty, in the Armed 122 Forces; or

123 6. Is seeking safety services for the covered individual or a family member.

124 B. A claim for family and medical leave benefits shall include one of the following supporting 125 certifications:

126 1. For a claimant seeking family and medical leave benefits due to a serious health condition, certification
127 from a physician or health care provider (i) describing such condition, (ii) stating the date on which such 128 condition commenced and the probable duration of such condition, (iii) including a statement that such 129 claimant is unable to perform job functions due to such condition, and (iv) including other appropriate 130 medical facts as required by the Commission.

131 2. For a claimant seeking family and medical leave benefits due to the serious health condition of a family 132 member, certification from a physician or health care provider (i) describing such condition, (ii) stating the 133 date on which such condition commenced and the probable duration of such condition, (iii) including a 134 statement that such condition requires such claimant to care for such family member and an estimated 135 duration of such care, and (iv) including other appropriate medical facts as required by the Commission.

136 3. For a claimant seeking family and medical leave benefits due to the birth of a child, certification in the 137 form of either (i) such child's birth certificate or (ii) another document issued by a health care provider or 138 physician stating such child's birth date.

139 4. For a claimant seeking family and medical leave benefits due to the placement of a child with such 140 claimant for adoption or foster care, certification in the form of a document issued by such child's health care
141 provider or physician, by an adoption or foster care agency involved in such placement, or by other 142 individuals as determined by the Commission that verifies the occurrence and date of such placement.

143 5. For a claimant seeking family and medical leave benefits for qualifying exigency leave, certification
144 including (i) a copy of the family member's active-duty orders, (ii) other documentation issued by the Armed 145 Forces, or (iii) other documentation as permitted by the Commission.

146 6. For a claimant seeking family and medical leave benefits in order to care for a family member who is a 147 covered service member, certification including (i) the date on which the serious health condition 148 commenced, (ii) the probable duration of the condition, (iii) the appropriate medical facts within the 149 knowledge of the health care provider as required by the Commission, (iv) a statement that the claimant is 150 needed to care for the family member, (v) an estimate of the amount of time that the claimant is needed to 151 care for the family member, and (vi) an attestation by the claimant that the health condition is connected to 152 the covered service member's military service as required by this chapter.

153 7. For a claimant seeking family and medical leave benefits to seek safety services, a signed statement by 154 the covered individual certifying that such benefits are required.

155 C. Any medical or health information required under this section shall be confidential and shall not be 156 disclosed except with permission from the claimant providing such information unless disclosure is otherwise
157 required by law. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a claimant to provide as certification 158 any information from a health care provider that would be in violation of § 32.1-127.1:03, § 1177 of the 159 Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1320d-6, or the regulations promulgated under § 264(c) of the Health
160 Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, P.L. 104-191.

161 § 60.2-803. Duration of benefits.

162 A. Family and medical leave benefits shall be payable under § 60.2-801 for a maximum of 12 weeks in an 163 application year for any covered individual.

164 B. Family and medical leave benefits shall be payable to a covered individual starting the first calendar
165 day in an application year that such covered individual meets the eligibility requirements of § 60.2-802.

166 C. The first payment of family and medical leave benefits shall be made to a covered individual within two 167 weeks of when such covered individual files an initial claim pursuant to this chapter, and subsequent 168 payments shall be made every two weeks thereafter.

169 § 60.2-804. Amount of benefits.

170 A. A covered individual's weekly benefit amount shall be 80 percent of such covered individual's average 171 weekly wages during the 12 months preceding such covered individual's initial claim filing, or 80 percent of 172 such covered individual's average weekly wages during the time such covered individual worked if less than 173 12 months, subject to the maximum specified in subsection C.

174 B. A covered individual's minimum weekly benefit amount shall not be less than $100 per week except that 175 if such covered individual's average weekly wage is less than $100 per week, the weekly benefit amount shall 176 be such covered individual's full wage.

177 C. A covered individual's maximum weekly benefit amount shall be 120 percent of the state average 178 weekly wage, as defined in subsection B of § 65.2-500. By September 30 of each year, the Commission shall 179 adjust the maximum weekly benefit to reflect any changes in such state average weekly wage. The adjusted 180 maximum weekly benefit amount shall take effect on the following January 1.

181 D. No family and medical leave benefits shall be payable for less than eight hours of family and medical 182 leave taken in one workweek.

183 § 60.2-805. Family and Medical Leave Insurance Trust Fund; appropriation prohibition; 184 reimbursement.

185 A. There is hereby created in the state treasury a special nonreverting fund to be known as the Family and 186 Medical Leave Insurance Trust Fund. The Fund shall be established on the books of the Comptroller. All 187 payroll contributions remitted pursuant to this chapter, all funds appropriated for the purposes of the Fund,
 188 and any gifts, donations, grants, bequests, and other funds shall be paid into the state treasury and credited
 189 to the Fund. Interest earned on moneys in the Fund shall remain in the Fund and be credited to it. Any 190 moneys remaining in the Fund, including interest thereon, at the end of each fiscal year shall not revert to the 191 general fund but shall remain in the Fund.

192 B. Moneys in the Fund shall be used solely for the payment of benefits under the paid family and medical 193 leave insurance program established by the Commission pursuant to this chapter, the administration of such 194 program, and any start-up costs associated with such program, including any required payment as provided
 195 in subsection D.

196 C. The General Assembly shall not appropriate or transfer any of the payroll contributions remitted to the 197 Fund for any purpose other than purposes provided for in this section.

198 D. Any moneys provided in the appropriation act for the purposes of establishing the paid family and 199 medical leave insurance program shall be repaid from the Fund to the general fund by January 1, 2033.

200 E. Expenditures and disbursements from the Fund shall be made by the State Treasurer on warrants
 201 issued by the Comptroller upon written request signed by the Commissioner or his designee.

202 § 60.2-806. Contributions.

203 A. Payroll contributions to the Fund shall be authorized in order to finance the payment of benefits under 204 and the administration of the paid family and medical leave insurance program.

205 B. Beginning on January 1, 2027, each employer shall remit to the Fund contributions in the form and 206 manner determined by the Commission. No later than October 1, 2026, and annually thereafter, the 207 Commissioner shall fix the contribution rate for the coming calendar year in the manner described in this 208 subsection, taking into account the repayment requirement provided for in subsection D of § 60.2-805. For 209 calendar years 2027 and 2028, the Commissioner shall fix such contribution rate based on sound actuarial
 210 principles. For calendar year 2029 and thereafter, the Commissioner shall first certify and publish the 211 following information:

212 1. The total amount of family and medical leave benefits paid by the Commission during the previous 213 fiscal year;

214 2. The total amount remaining in the Fund at the close of such fiscal year;

215 3. The total amount equal to 140 percent of the previous fiscal year's expenditure for family and medical 216 leave benefits paid and for the administration of the paid family and medical leave insurance program;

217 4. The amount by which the total amount remaining in the Fund at the close of the previous fiscal year is 218 less than or greater than 140 percent of the previous fiscal year's expenditure for family and medical leave
 219 benefits paid and for the administration of the paid family and medical leave insurance program; and

220 5. The amount by which the contribution rate shall be adjusted to ensure that the Fund shall maintain or 221 achieve an annualized amount of not less than 140 percent of the previous fiscal year's expenditure for family
 222 and medical leave benefits paid and for the administration of the paid family and medical leave insurance
 223 program. The contribution rate adjustment, if any, made as the result of the Commissioner's certification and 224 report under this subsection shall supersede the rate previously set forth and shall become effective on 225 January 1 of the following calendar year.

226 C. A self-employed individual electing coverage under § 60.2-815 shall be responsible for the employer's
 227 share of contributions set forth in subsection B on that individual's income from self-employment.

228 D. Each employer of more than 10 employees shall (i) deduct from each employee's wages an amount 229 equal to 50 percent, or such lesser percentage as may be agreed upon by such employer and employee, of the 230 contribution required per employee pursuant to subsection B and (ii) remit the full contribution required per 231 employee pursuant to subsection B to the Commission for deposit into the Fund.

232 E. Each employer of 10 or fewer employees shall deduct from each employee's wages an amount equal to 233 50 percent of the contribution per employee required of an employer of more than 10 employees pursuant to 234 subsection B. Such employer of 10 or fewer employees shall remit such deducted amount to the Commission
 235 for deposit into the Fund and shall not be required to make additional contributions.

236 F. Contributions under this section shall not be required for an employee's wages or an individual's 237 income from self-employment above the contribution and benefit base limit established annually by the 238 federal Social Security Administration for purposes of the federal Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability
 239 Insurance Benefits program limits pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 430.

240 § 60.2-807. Reduced leave schedule.

241 A. A covered individual shall have the option to receive paid family and medical leave benefits on an 242 intermittent or reduced leave schedule in which all of the leave authorized under this chapter is not taken

243 sequentially. Family and medical leave benefits for an intermittent or reduced leave schedule shall be 244 prorated.

245 B. Such covered individual shall make a reasonable effort to schedule paid family and medical leave
246 taken pursuant to this section so as not to unduly disrupt the operations of such covered individual's 247 employer. Such covered individual shall provide such employer with prior notice of the schedule on which 248 such covered individual will be taking the leave, to the extent practicable. Paid family and medical leave 249 taken pursuant to this section shall not result in a reduction of the total amount of leave to which a covered 250 individual is entitled beyond the amount of leave actually taken.

251 § 60.2-808. Leave and employment protection; remedies.

252 A. Any covered individual who receives family and medical leave benefits shall, upon the expiration of 253 such leave, be entitled to restoration by the employer to the position held by such covered individual when 254 such leave commenced, or to a position with equivalent seniority, status, employment benefits, pay, and other 255 terms and conditions of employment, including fringe benefits and service credits, to which the covered 256 individual had been entitled at the commencement of such leave.

257 B. During any leave taken pursuant to this chapter, an employer shall maintain any health care benefits to 258 which a covered individual was entitled prior to taking such leave as if the covered individual had continued
259 working continuously from the date such covered individual commenced the leave until the date such covered 260 individual returns from leave, and such covered individual shall continue to pay his share of the cost of 261 health care benefits as required prior to the commencement of the leave.

262 C. Any employer that violates this section or § 60.2-809 shall be liable to any affected covered individual 263 for:

264 1. Damages equal to:

265 a. The amount of:

266 (1) Any wages, salary, employment benefits, or other compensation denied or lost to such covered 267 individual due to the violation; or

268 (2) In a case in which wages, salary, employment benefits, or other compensation has not been denied or 269 lost to the covered individual, any actual monetary losses sustained by the covered individual due to the 270 violation, such as the cost of providing care, up to a sum equal to 12 weeks of wages or salary for the 271 covered individual;

272 b. Interest on the amount described in subdivision a, calculated at the legal rate; and

273 c. An additional amount as liquidated damages equal to the sum of the amount described in subdivision a 274 and the interest described in subdivision b, except that if an employer who has violated this section or § 275 60.2-809 proves to the satisfaction of the court that the act or omission that violated this section or § 276 60.2-809 was in good faith and that the employer had reasonable grounds for believing that the act or 277 omission was not a violation of this section or § 60.2-809, such court may reduce the amount of the liability 278 to the amount and interest determined under subdivisions a and b, respectively; and 279 2. Such equitable relief as may be appropriate, including employment, reinstatement, and promotion.

280 D. The court in an action to recover such damages or equitable relief prescribed in subsection C shall, in 281 addition to any judgment awarded to the plaintiff, allow reasonable attorney fees, reasonable expert witness 282 fees, and other costs of the action to be paid by the defendant.

283 E. Except as provided in subsection F, an action may be brought for a violation of this section or § 284 60.2-809 not later than two years after the date of the last event constituting the alleged violation for which 285 the action is brought.

286 F. In the case of such action brought for a willful violation of this section or § 60.2-809, such action may 287 be brought within three years of the date of the last event constituting the alleged violation for which such 288 action is brought.

289 § 60.2-809. Retaliatory personnel actions prohibited.

290 A. No employer or other person shall interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to 291 exercise, any right protected under this chapter.

292 B. No employer, employment agency, employee organization, or other person shall take retaliatory 293 personnel action or otherwise discriminate against an individual due to such individual's lawful exercise of 294 rights protected under this chapter. Such rights include the right to request, file for, apply for, or use benefits 295 provided for under this chapter; the right to communicate to the employer or any other person or entity that 296 such individual (i) intends to file a claim, a complaint with the Commission or a court, or an appeal or (ii)
297 has testified in, intends to testify in, or has otherwise assisted in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding 298 under this chapter; the right to inform any person about any employer's alleged violation of this chapter; and 299 the right to inform any individual of the individual's rights under this chapter.

300 C. It is unlawful for an employer's absence control policy to count paid family and medical leave taken 301 under this chapter as an absence that may lead to or result in discipline, discharge, demotion, suspension, or 302 any other adverse action.

303 D. Protections of this section shall apply to any person who mistakenly but in good faith alleges a 304 violation of this chapter.

305 E. This section shall be enforced as provided in subsections C through F of § 60.2-808.

306 § 60.2-810. Coordination of benefits.

307 A. Leave taken with wage replacement under this chapter that also qualifies as leave under the FMLA
308 shall run concurrently with leave taken under the FMLA.

309 B. An employer may require that payments made pursuant to this chapter be made concurrently or 310 otherwise coordinated with payments made or leave allowed under the terms of disability or family care
311 leave under a collective bargaining agreement or employer policy. Such employer shall give employees 312 written notice of this requirement.

313 C. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit or reduce an employer's obligation to comply with a 314 collective bargaining agreement, an employer policy, or any other provision of law requiring more generous 315 leave.

316 D. An individual's right to leave under this chapter shall not be diminished by a collective bargaining
317 agreement entered into or renewed, or an employer policy adopted or retained, after January 1, 2026. Any 318 agreement by an individual to waive the individual's rights under this chapter is void as against public
319 policy.

320 § 60.2-811. Notice requirements.

321 A. An employer shall provide written notice as prescribed in this subsection to each employee upon hiring
322 and annually thereafter. An employer shall also provide such written notice to an employee when such 323 employee requests leave pursuant to this chapter or when the employer acquires knowledge of an employee's
324 intent to take leave that may meet the eligibility requirements of § 60.2-802. Such notice shall include (i) a
325 statement of an employee's right to family and medical leave benefits pursuant to this chapter and the terms
326 under which such benefits may be used; (ii) the amount of family and medical leave benefits available; (iii)
327 the procedure for filing a claim for family and medical leave benefits; (iv) a statement of the right to job
328 protection and benefits continuation under § 60.2-808; (v) a statement that discrimination and retaliatory
329 personnel actions against a person for requesting, applying for, or using family and medical leave benefits
330 are prohibited under § 60.2-809; and (vi) a statement that the employee has a right to file a complaint for a
331 violation of this chapter. An employer shall also display and maintain a poster provided by the Commission 332 in a conspicuous place accessible to employees at the employer's place of business that contains the 333 information required by this section in English, Spanish, and any language that is the first language spoken
334 by at least five percent of the employer's workforce. The Commissioner may adopt regulations to establish 335 additional requirements concerning the means by which employers shall provide such notice.

336 B. An employee seeking to take leave under the provisions of this chapter shall notify his employer as 337 soon as practicable.

338 § 60.2-812. Appeals.

339 A. The Commissioner shall establish a system for appeals in the case of a denial of a claim for family and 340 medical leave benefits. In establishing such system, the Commissioner may utilize any and all procedures and 341 appeals mechanisms established under this title.

342 B. Judicial review of any decision with respect to family and medical leave benefits shall be permitted in a
343 court of competent jurisdiction after a party aggrieved thereby has exhausted all administrative remedies
344 established by the Commissioner.

345 C. The Commissioner shall implement procedures to ensure confidentiality of all information related to 346 any claims filed or appeals taken to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws.

347 § 60.2-813. Enforcement.

348 A. Contributions required by the provisions of § 60.2-806 that are unpaid on the date on which they are 349 due and payable, as prescribed by the Commissioner under this chapter, shall bear interest at the rate of one
350 and one-half percent per month from and after such date until payment plus accrued interest is received by 351 the Commission. Interest collected pursuant to this chapter shall be paid into the Fund. An employer who 352 fails to timely remit a contribution or any portion thereof under § 60.2-806 shall be solely responsible for the 353 interest due under this section.

354 B. If, after notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest, the amount due shall 355 be collected by civil action in the name of the Commissioner. The employer adjudged in default shall pay the 356 fees and costs of such action. Civil actions brought under this chapter to collect contributions or interest or 357 any penalty from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date. Such civil actions may 358 be brought against any officer, employee, or agent of a corporation or partnership in his individual, personal 359 capacity when that person willfully fails to cause the employer to pay the appropriate contributions or 360 interest and he had the authority to do so. No person shall be subject to this section unless it is proved that 361 such person (i) knew of the failure or attempt to make such payment and (ii) had authority to prevent such 362 failure or attempt. In addition to the foregoing remedies, the Commissioner shall have such other remedies as 363 are available to the State Tax Commissioner and county and city treasurers for the collection of taxes
364 generally. The Commissioner is authorized to compromise, settle, and adjust any contributions, including 365 interest, or any penalty assessed against any employer where in the judgment of the Commissioner the best
366 interests of the Commonwealth will be promoted or served. The Commissioner may in such cases accept in 367 full settlement of the contributions assessed an amount less than that assessed.

368 C. When an unsatisfied execution has been returned by an officer, and the employer against whom the 369 judgment has been obtained on which the execution was issued continues in default of payment of 370 contributions, or any portion thereof, such employer may be enjoined from operating and doing business in 371 the Commonwealth until such contributions have been paid. The Circuit Court of the City of Richmond shall 372 have exclusive original jurisdiction to grant such injunction upon the complaint of the Commissioner. Notice
373 of the time and place when the application for the injunction will be made shall be served on the employer
374 and a copy of the bill of complaint shall be served with the notice.

375 § 60.2-814. Erroneous payments and disqualification for benefits.

376 A. An individual shall be disqualified from family and medical leave benefits for one year if the individual
377 is determined by the Commissioner to have willfully made a false statement or misrepresentation regarding a 378 material fact, or willfully failed to report a material fact, to obtain benefits under this chapter.

379 B. If family and medical leave benefits are paid erroneously or as a result of willful misrepresentation, or 380 if a claim for family and medical leave benefits is rejected after benefits are paid, the Commission may seek 381 repayment of benefits from the recipient. The Commissioner shall exercise his discretion to waive, in whole 382 or in part, the amount of any such payments where the recovery would be against equity and good 383 conscience.

384 § 60.2-815. Elective coverage.

385 A. A self-employed person, including a sole proprietor, partner, or joint venturer, may elect coverage
386 under this chapter for an initial period of not less than three years. The self-employed person shall file a 387 notice of election in writing with the Commissioner, as required by the Commission. Such election shall 388 become effective on the date such notice is filed, provided that such self-employed person agrees to supply
389 any information concerning income that the Commission deems necessary.

390 B. A self-employed person who has elected coverage may withdraw from coverage within 30 days after 391 the end of the three-year period of coverage, or at such other times as the Commissioner may prescribe by 392 rule, by filing written notice with the Commissioner, such withdrawal to take effect not sooner than 30 days 393 after filing such notice.

394 § 60.2-816. Private employer plans; exemption from contributions.

395 A. Employers may apply to the Commission for approval to meet their obligations under this chapter
396 through a private plan. The Commission may approve such private plan if the Commission determines that 397 such private plan:

398 1. Confers all of the same rights, protections, and benefits provided to covered individuals under this 399 chapter, including:

400 a. The provision of family and medical leave benefits for all purposes specified in subsection A of § 401 60.2-802;

402 b. The provision of family and medical leave benefits for the maximum number of weeks required in § 403 60.2-803 per application year;

404 c. The provision of family and medical leave benefits as specified in subdivision A 3 § 60.2-802 for a 405 covered individual with a serious health condition;

406 d. A wage replacement rate for all family and medical leave benefits that equals or exceeds the rate
407 required by subsection A of § 60.2-804;

408 e. A maximum weekly family and medical leave benefit amount that equals or exceeds the amount
409 specified in subsection C of § 60.2-804 and a minimum weekly family and medical leave benefit amount that 410 equals or exceeds the amount specified in subsection B of § 60.2-804;

411 f. The provision of family and medical leave benefits on an intermittent basis as specified in § 60.2-807;

412 g. No additional conditions or restrictions on family and medical leave benefits, or leave taken in 413 accordance with such benefits, beyond those explicitly authorized by this chapter or regulations issued 414 pursuant to this chapter;

415 h. The provision of family and medical leave benefits to any employee covered under such private plan 416 who would otherwise be eligible for such benefits pursuant to this chapter; and

417 i. An employee contribution amount that does not exceed the amount such employee would otherwise 418 contribute for family and medical leave benefits pursuant to § 60.2-806.

419 2. Complies with the following provisions:

420 a. Such private plan shall provide family and medical leave benefits for all eligible employees throughout 421 the course of their employment;

422 b. If such private plan is in the form of self-insurance, the employer shall furnish a bond to the 423 Commonwealth in a form, amount, and manner determined by the Commission; and

424 c. If such plan is in the form of a third-party provider of insurance, the forms of the policy must be issued 425 by an insurer approved by the Commission.

426 B. The Commission shall withdraw approval for an employer's private plan pursuant to subsection A if 427 such employer violates the terms or conditions of such private plan, including by:

428 a. Failing to pay benefits;

- 429 b. Failing to pay benefits timely and in a manner consistent with the provisions of this chapter;
 430 c. Failing to maintain an adequate surety bond;
 431 d. Misusing private plan money;
 432 e. Failing to submit reports or comply with other requirements or terms set by the Commission; or 433 f. Failing to comply with this chapter or regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

434 C. An employee covered by a private plan approved under this section shall retain all applicable rights 435 provided in §§ 60.2-808 and 60.2-809.

436 D. A contested determination or denial of family and medical leave insurance benefits by a private plan is 437 subject to appeal before the Commission and any court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to § 60.2-812.

438 E. The Commission shall establish a fine structure for employers and entities offering private plans that 439 violate this section. The Commission shall transfer any fines collected pursuant to this subsection to the state
 440 treasurer for deposit into the Fund. The Commission shall establish a process for the determination, 441 assessment, and appeal of fines under this subsection.

442 F. The Commission shall annually determine the total amount expended by the Commission for costs
 443 arising from the administration of private plans. Each employer offering a private plan pursuant to this 444 section shall reimburse the Commission for the costs arising out of the private plans in the amount, form, and 445 manner determined by the Commission.

446 § 60.2-817. Federal income tax treatment.

447 If the Internal Revenue Service determines that family and medical leave benefits under this chapter are 448 subject to federal income tax, the Commission shall advise any covered individual filing a new claim for 449 family and medical leave benefits, at the time of filing such claim, that:

- 450 1. The Internal Revenue Service has determined that benefits are subject to federal income tax;
 451 2. Requirements exist pertaining to estimated tax payments;
 452 3. The individual may elect to have federal income tax deducted and withheld from the individual's 453 payment of benefits in the amount specified in the federal Internal Revenue Code; and 454 4. The individual is permitted to change a previously elected withholding status.

455 § 60.2-818. Reports; public dashboard.

456 By April 1, 2029, and annually thereafter, the Commission shall report to the General Assembly on 457 projected and actual program participation by purpose listed in § 60.2-802, gender of beneficiaries, race and 458 ethnicity of beneficiaries, age of beneficiaries, amount of benefits paid to beneficiaries per week, premium
 459 rates, fund balances, outreach efforts, and, for leaves taken under subdivision A 2 of § 60.2-802, family
 460 members for whom leave was taken to provide care.

461 By July 1, 2026, the Commission shall develop and continually update a publicly accessible online 462 dashboard with information including the number of claims filed and approved and the average times for 463 claim approval, in the aggregate and divided by the purpose for which leave is requested, and additional 464 information as the Commission deems appropriate.

465 § 60.2-819. Public education.

466 The Commission shall develop and conduct a public education campaign to inform workers and 467 employers regarding the availability of family and medical leave benefits. Such campaign shall include 468 multiple ways to communicate to employers and employees about the new benefit system and leave rights, 469 contributions, timeline, and eligibility requirements. Such campaign shall be an ongoing function of the 470 Commission for the duration of the paid family and medical leave insurance program. In conducting and 471 planning such campaign, the Commission shall consult with the Paid Family and Medical Leave Advisory 472 Board established in § 60.2-821 and work with other stakeholders, including chambers of commerce, trade
 473 associations, nonprofit organizations, and labor unions, to develop and implement a statewide
 474 communication outreach strategy. Such campaign shall also include targeted outreach and education for 475 small businesses. Outreach information shall be available in English, Spanish, Korean, Tagalog, Vietnamese,
 476 Urdu, Arabic, and other languages spoken by more than five percent of the Commonwealth's population. The 477 Commission shall deliver to the Board quarterly updates on applications, approvals, and any additional 478 information as requested by the Board.

479 § 60.2-820. Sharing technology.

480 The Commission is encouraged to use state data collection and technology to the extent possible and to 481 integrate the provisions of this chapter with existing state policies.

482 § 60.2-821. Paid Family and Medical Leave Advisory Board.

483 A. The Paid Family and Medical Leave Advisory Board is established as an advisory board, within the 484 meaning of § 2.2-2100, in the executive branch of state government. The purpose of the Board is to report to 485 and advise the Commissioner on the implementation and administration of this chapter.

486 B. The Board shall have a total membership of 15 members that shall consist of four legislative members
 487 and 11 nonlegislative citizen members. Members shall be appointed as follows: two members of the Senate,
 488 to be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules; two members of the House of Delegates, to be appointed
 489 by the Speaker of the House of Delegates; three nonlegislative citizen members to be appointed by the Senate
 490 Committee on Rules; two nonlegislative citizen members to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of

491 Delegates; and six nonlegislative citizen members to be appointed by the Governor, one of whom shall be a 492 representative of the business community, one of whom shall be a representative of a small business, one of 493 whom shall be a representative of a labor union, one of whom shall be a representative of an advocacy
494 organization focused on economic issues impacting children and families, one of whom shall be a 495 representative of an organization that advocates on behalf of people with serious health conditions or 496 disabilities, and one of whom shall have skill, knowledge, and experience in family and medical leave 497 programs.

498 Nonlegislative citizen members of the Board shall be citizens of the Commonwealth. Legislative members
499 of the Board shall serve terms coincident with their terms of office.

500 C. Nonlegislative citizen members shall be appointed for a term of four years. Appointments to fill 501 vacancies, other than by expiration of a term, shall be for the unexpired terms. Vacancies shall be filled in 502 the same manner as the original appointments. No nonlegislative citizen member shall serve more than two 503 consecutive four-year terms. The remainder of any term to which a member is appointed to fill a vacancy
504 shall not constitute a term in determining the member's eligibility for reappointment.

505 D. The Board shall elect a chairman and vice-chairman from among its membership. A majority of the 506 members shall constitute a quorum. The meetings of the Board shall be held at the call of the chairman, but 507 no less than four times a year.

508 E. Legislative members of the Board shall receive such compensation as provided in § 30-19.12.
509 Nonlegislative citizen members of the Board shall not receive compensation but shall be reimbursed for all
510 reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as provided in §§ 2.2-2813
511 and 2.2-2825.

512 2. That the Virginia Employment Commission shall promulgate all rules and regulations necessary for 513 implementation of this act by July 1, 2026.

514 3. That by January 1, 2026, the Department of Human Resource Management (the Department) shall 515 modify the Commonwealth's policies relating to family and medical leave pursuant to subsection D of § 516 60.2-801 of the Code of Virginia, as created by this act. In modifying such policies, the Department
517 shall not reduce any existing leave or benefits available to an employee of the Commonwealth that are 518 more generous than the leave and benefits provided under the paid family and medical leave insurance
519 program, as created by this act. The Governor shall include any necessary funding to support such 520 modifications in "The Budget Bill" submitted for the 2026-2028 biennium pursuant to § 2.2-1509 of the 521 Code of Virginia.
