 36 which the qualifying offense occurred, the date of final disposition on which the conviction or adjudication of 57 The petition shall be filed on a form provided by the Supreme Court. If the petitioner fails to submit a 58 completed form, the circuit court may allow the petitioner to amend the petition to correct any deficiency. If 59 the petitioner fails to submit a completed form containing the allegations set forth in subsection A, or if the 60 circuit court has previously dismissed a petition for vacatur from the same petitioner for the same qualifying

61 offense following a hearing conducted pursuant to § 19.2-327.18, the court may dismiss the petition. Any 62 false statement in the petition, if such statement is knowingly or willfully made, shall be a ground for 63 prosecution of perjury as provided for in § 18.2-434.

64 C. The petitioner shall obtain from a law-enforcement agency one complete set of the petitioner's 65 fingerprints and shall file those fingerprints with the circuit court with the petition.

66 D. The Commonwealth shall be made party defendant to the proceeding. The petitioner shall provide a
67 copy of the petition by delivery or by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the attorney for the Commonwealth
68 of the city or county in which the petition is filed. The attorney for the Commonwealth may file an objection 69 or answer to the petition or may give written notice to the court that he does not object to the petition within 70 30 days after receipt of the petition. Upon the motion of the attorney for the Commonwealth and for good
71 cause shown, the court may allow the attorney for the Commonwealth up to an additional 30 days to respond 72 to the petition.

73 E. A person convicted or adjudicated delinquent of multiple qualifying offenses shall include all 74 qualifying offenses in one petition, if such convictions or adjudications were all entered in the same city or 75 county. A person convicted or adjudicated delinquent of qualifying offenses in different cities or counties 76 shall file petitions in the circuit courts of the cities or counties in which the convictions or adjudications of 77 delinquency were entered.

78 § 19.2-327.18. Hearing on petition for vacatur.

79 A. If the attorney for the Commonwealth of the county or city in which the petition is filed (i) gives 80 written notice to the court that he does not object to the petition and (ii) stipulates in such written notice that 81 the petitioner was convicted or adjudicated delinquent of a qualifying offense and that the petitioner was a
82 victim of human trafficking at the time he committed the qualifying offense as a direct result of being and his 83 status as a victim of sex human trafficking was the proximate cause of the commission of the qualifying
84 offense, the circuit court may grant the writ and vacate the qualifying offense without conducting a hearing.

85 B. If the attorney for the Commonwealth of the county or city in which the petition is filed objects to the 86 petition or does not file an answer, the court shall conduct a hearing on the petition after reasonable notice
87 has been provided to both the petitioner and the attorney for the Commonwealth. The attorney for the 88 Commonwealth shall make reasonable efforts to notify any victim, as defined in § 19.2-11.01, of any 89 qualifying offense of such hearing. In any such hearing, the attorney for the Commonwealth may proffer any 90 evidence pertaining to the guilt or innocence of the petitioner, including evidence that was suppressed at 91 trial. The circuit court shall not be required to conduct a hearing if it has previously dismissed a petition for 92 vacatur from the same petitioner for the same qualifying offense.

93 C. Upon finding that the petitioner has by a preponderance of the evidence proven the elements contained 94 in subsection A of § 19.2-327.17, the circuit court shall grant the writ and vacate the qualifying offense. If the 95 petitioner fails to prove any of these elements, the court shall dismiss the petition.

96 D. Prior to any decision to grant the writ, the court shall determine whether any restitution is unpaid
97 under the terms of the sentencing order for the qualifying offense. If the court grants the writ, the petitioner
98 shall be forever discharged from any such restitution obligation, and the victim, as defined in § 19.2-11.01, of 99 the qualifying offense shall be deemed a victim of crime as defined in § 19.2-368.2. Such victim shall be 100 eligible to petition for awards pursuant to Chapter 21.1 (§ 19.2-368.1 et seq.), and his claim for restitution
101 reimbursement shall be deemed to accrue on the date the court grants the writ.

102 E. The court may grant the writ and vacate the qualifying offense regardless of whether any person other 103 than the petitioner has been charged or convicted of an offense related to the petitioner being a victim of sex
104 human trafficking.

105 § 19.2-327.19. Relief under writ of vacatur.

106 A. Upon granting a writ of vacatur pursuant to subsection C of § 19.2-327.18, the circuit court shall 107 provide the petitioner with a copy of the writ, and such copy shall be sufficient proof that the person named in 108 the writ is no longer under any disability, disqualification, or other adverse consequence resulting from the 109 vacated conviction or adjudication of delinquency.

110 B. If a writ of vacatur is granted, and no appeal is made to the Supreme Court, or the Supreme Court
111 refuses or denies the Commonwealth's petition for appeal or upholds the decision of the circuit court, an order
112 of expungement for the qualifying offense shall be entered by the circuit court. Upon entry of the order of 113 expungement, the clerk of court shall cause a copy of the writ of vacatur, the order of expungement, and the 114 complete set of petitioner's fingerprints to be forwarded to the Department of State Police, which shall 115 expunge the qualifying offense.

116 C. The writ to vacate the qualifying offense and the record of the proceedings shall not be expunged 117 pursuant to subsection B and shall be maintained by the circuit court. Access to the writ or the record of the 118 proceedings may be provided only upon court order. Any person seeking access to the writ or the record of

119 the proceedings may file a written motion setting forth why such access is needed. The court shall issue an 120 order to disclose the writ or the record of the proceedings upon the written motion of the petitioner named in 121 the writ or the attorney for the Commonwealth of the city or county in which the petition is filed. The court
122 may issue an order to disclose the writ or the record of the proceedings if it finds that such disclosure best 123 serves the interests of justice. Court-ordered disclosure of the record of the proceedings pursuant to this 124 subsection shall not subject the recipient of the disclosure to the provisions of § 19.2-392.3.

125 D. Costs shall be as provided in § 17.1-275 but shall not be recoverable against the Commonwealth. A 126 petitioner shall not be required to pay any fees or costs for filing a petition pursuant to this chapter if the 127 petitioner is found to be unable to pay fees or costs pursuant to § 17.1-606. If the circuit court enters a writ of 128 vacatur, the clerk of the court shall refund to the petitioner such costs paid by the petitioner.

129 E. If the court enters a writ of vacatur, the petitioner shall be entitled to a refund of all fines, ~~costs,~~
130 ~~forfeitures,~~ and penalties paid in relation to the qualifying offense that was vacated. If the clerk of the court 131 where the conviction was entered is in possession of any records detailing any fines, ~~costs,~~ ~~forfeitures,~~ and 132 penalties paid by the petitioner for a qualifying offense that was vacated, the petitioner shall be entitled to a 133 refund of such amount. If the clerk of the court where the conviction was entered is no longer in possession of 134 any records detailing any fines, ~~costs,~~ ~~forfeitures,~~ and penalties paid by the petitioner for a qualifying offense
135 that was vacated, a refund shall be provided only upon a showing by the petitioner of the amount of fines, 136 ~~costs,~~ ~~forfeitures,~~ and penalties paid.
