6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 20-124.6 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 20-124.6. Access to minor's records.

9 A. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, neither parent, regardless of whether such parent has 10 custody, shall be denied access to the academic or health records or records of a child day center or family
11 day home of that parent's minor child, including any such records that are stored or accessible from a secure
12 website, unless otherwise ordered by the court for good cause shown or pursuant to subsection B.

13 B. In the case of health records, access may also be denied if the minor's treating physician, clinical 14 psychologist, clinical social worker, or licensed professional counselor has made a part of the minor's record
15 a written statement that, in the exercise of his professional judgment, the furnishing to or review by the 16 requesting parent of such health records would be reasonably likely to cause substantial harm to the minor or 17 another person. If a health care entity denies a parental request for access to, or copies of, a minor's health
18 record, the health care entity denying the request shall comply with the provisions of subsection F of § 19 32.1-127.1:03. The minor or his parent, either or both, shall have the right to have the denial reviewed as 20 specified in subsection F of § 32.1-127.1:03 to determine whether to make the minor's health record available
21 to the requesting parent.

22 C. For the purposes of this section, the terms "health record" or the plural thereof and "health care entity"
23 mean the same as those terms are defined in subsection B of § 32.1-127.1:03. ~~The~~ and the terms "child day 24 center" and "family day home" mean the same as those terms are defined in § 63.2-100.
