ENROLLED

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 725

Commending Halley Elementary School.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 18, 2025
Agreed to by the Senate, February 20, 2025

WHEREAS, for 30 years, Halley Elementary School of Fairfax County Public Schools has made an impact on every student that has passed through its halls by preparing them for lifelong learning, empowering them to build and maintain positive relationships, and encouraging them to reach their full potential both in and out of the classroom; and

WHEREAS, Halley Elementary School was opened on September 5, 1995, and was named in honor of William Francis Halley, a lifelong resident of Fairfax County who greatly supported Fairfax County schools and students in the early 20th century; and

WHEREAS, Halley Elementary School's first principal was Janet Funk, who was named Fairfax County Public Schools Principal of the Year in 1998 and was presented the Agnes Meyer Distinguished Educational Leadership Award by The Washington Post that same year; and

WHEREAS, with a commitment to educational excellence, Halley Elementary School implements a variety of programs to meet its students' needs, such as Young Scholars and the Advanced Academics Program, a fine and performing arts program, and its award-winning Early Childhood Inclusion Program; and

WHEREAS, Halley Elementary School organizes a number of unique educational events and activities to create a dynamic learning experience for its students, including the Halley Morning News Show and its Global Classroom Project; and

WHEREAS, Halley Elementary School champions its faculty and staff by providing assistance and guidance to help them optimize their lessons in the classroom; and

WHEREAS, Halley Elementary School rigorously applies the Multi-Tiered Systems of Support instructional model to ensure the academic, social, and emotional well-being of all of its students; and

WHEREAS, as a testament to the welcoming and inclusive nature of its community, Halley Elementary School won a contest in 2001 organized by Michigan author Patricia Polacco that recognized the school and its students for their suggestions on how to prevent bullying; and

WHEREAS, the accomplishments of Halley Elementary School over the past 30 years are the result of the efforts of its students, the dedication of its teachers and staff, and the unwavering support of its families, parent-teacher organization, and the entire Halley Elementary School community; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Halley Elementary School on the occasion of its 30th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Halley Elementary School as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for the school's history and its contributions to the Commonwealth.
