6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That § 8.01-223.2 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 8.01-223.2. Immunity of persons for statements made at public hearing or communicated to third 9 party.

10 A. A person shall be immune from tort liability if the tort claim is based solely on statements (i) regarding 11 matters of public concern that would be protected under the First Amendment to the Constitution of the 12 United States made by that person that are communicated to a third party, (ii) made at a public hearing
13 before, or otherwise communicated to, the governing body of any locality or other political subdivision, or 14 the boards, commissions, agencies and authorities thereof, and other governing bodies of any local 15 governmental entity concerning matters properly before such body, (iii) made at a Title IX hearing before the 16 applicable tribunal of an institution of higher education, or ~~(iii)~~ (iv) made by an employee against an 17 employer where retaliatory action arising from such statements is prohibited by § 40.1-27.3.

18 B. The immunity provided by this section shall not apply to any statements that the declarant knew or 19 should have known were false or were made with reckless disregard for whether they were false.

20 C. Any person who has a suit against him dismissed or a witness subpoena or subpoena duces tecum
21 quashed, or otherwise prevails in a legal action, pursuant to the immunity provided by this section may be 22 awarded reasonable attorney fees and costs.
