HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 991

Offered October 28, 2025

Celebrating the life of James Woodrow McGlothlin.

Patron—Scott, D.

WHEREAS, James Woodrow McGlothlin, a preeminent business leader and a passionate philanthropist who touched countless lives through his generosity to The College of William & Mary and other communities and organizations throughout the Commonwealth, died on August 6, 2025; and

WHEREAS, James “Jim” Woodrow McGlothlin grew up in Buchanan County and laid down strong roots in Southwest Virginia that endured throughout his life; after receiving a bachelor's degree from The College of William & Mary in 1962 and a law degree from what is now the William & Mary Law School in 1964, he returned to Grundy, where he co-founded a legal practice; and

WHEREAS, in 1970, Jim McGlothlin changed careers and helped establish United Coal Company, which grew to become The United Company, a global enterprise spanning coal, oil, gas, real estate, hospitality, and finance; and

WHEREAS, under Jim McGlothlin's visionary leadership as chair and chief executive officer, The United Company became one of the leading private businesses in the Commonwealth; among many achievements, he oversaw the establishment of the first casino in the Commonwealth, the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino in Bristol; and

WHEREAS, Jim McGlothlin was a passionate philanthropist who worked diligently to enhance the quality of life in Southwest Virginia and support the arts, health care, and education at the state level; and

WHEREAS, Jim McGlothlin was a board member of the Mountain Mission School in Grundy, which provides education to at-risk youths and orphaned children from around the world; he established The Olde Farm Golf Club in Washington County, which has raised millions of dollars to support Mountain Mission School through its American Legends golf tournament; and

WHEREAS, Jim McGlothlin and his wife, Frances, also gave transformative gifts to the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, leading to the establishment of The James W. and Frances Gibson McGlothlin Collection of American Art and the McGlothlin Wing; and

WHEREAS, Jim McGlothlin served on The College of William & Mary Board of Visitors from 1984 to 1993 and was a prolific supporter of his alma mater for decades; his generosity is evident across campus, from McGlothlin Street Hall to the Smith-McGlothlin Grandstand at Zable Stadium and the McGlothlin Courtroom, which was the most technologically advanced educational trial and appellate courtroom in the world at the time of its construction; and

WHEREAS, Jim McGlothlin also supported the restoration of the Brafferton Building, one of the institution's most historic and iconic structures, which dates back to 1723; and

WHEREAS, Jim McGlothlin established the McGlothlin Leadership Forum, a signature initiative that brings global leaders to The College of William & Mary to engage with business and law school students on public policy issues, and created the McGlothlin Scholars endowment program to enhance the institution's ability to recruit students of compelling ability; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his incredible legacy of service to The College of William & Mary, Jim McGlothlin has received the Alumni Medallion and the Citizen-Lawyer Award, both prestigious honors; and

WHEREAS, Jim McGlothlin will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his wife, Frances; his children, Martha, Tara, and Gibson, and their families; and numerous other family members, friends, and colleagues; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Delegates hereby note with great sadness the loss of James Woodrow McGlothlin, a champion for Southwest Virginia and a distinguished alumnus of The College of William & Mary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of James Woodrow McGlothlin as an expression of the House of Delegates' respect for his memory.
