5 reciprocity with other states.

6 Patron—Pekarsky

7 Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

8 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

9 1. That § 18.2-308.014 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

10 12. § 18.2-308.014. Concealed handgun permits; reciprocity.

11 A. A valid concealed handgun or concealed weapon permit or license issued by another state shall 12 authorize the holder of such permit or license who is at least 21 years of age to carry a concealed handgun in 13 the Commonwealth, provided that (i) the issuing authority provides the means for instantaneous verification
14 of the validity of all such permits or licenses issued within that state; accessible 24 hours a day if available;
15 and (ii) the permit or license holder carries a photo identification issued by a government agency of any state
16 or by the U.S. Department of Defense or U.S. Department of State and displays the permit or license and such 17 identification upon demand by a law-enforcement officer; and (iii) the permit or license holder has not 18 previously had a Virginia concealed handgun permit revoked except for the age of the permit or license 19 holder and the type of weapon authorized to be carried, the requirements and qualifications of that state's 20 law are adequate to prevent possession of a permit or license by persons who would be denied a permit in the 21 Commonwealth under this article. The Superintendent of State Police shall enter into agreements for 22 reciprocal recognition with such other states that require an agreement to be in place before such state will 23 recognize a Virginia concealed handgun permit as valid in such state. The Attorney General shall provide the 24 Superintendent with any legal assistance or advice necessary for the Superintendent to perform his duties set 25 forth in this subsection. If the Superintendent determines that another state requires that an agreement for 26 reciprocal recognition be executed by the Attorney General or otherwise formally approved by the Attorney
27 General as a condition of such other state's entering into an agreement for reciprocal recognition, the Attorney 28 General shall (a) execute such agreement or otherwise formally approve such agreement and (b) return to the 29 Superintendent the executed agreement or, in a form deemed acceptable by such other state, documentation
30 of his formal approval of such agreement within 30 days after the Superintendent notifies the Attorney 31 General, in writing, that he is required to execute or otherwise formally approve such agreement (a) in 32 consultation with the Office of the Attorney General determine whether states meet the requirements and 33 qualifications of this subsection, (b) maintain a registry of such states on the Virginia Criminal Information 34 Network, and (c) make the registry available to law-enforcement officers for investigative purposes. The 35 Superintendent of State Police, in consultation with the Attorney General, may also enter into agreements for 36 reciprocal recognition with any state qualifying for recognition under this subsection.37 B. For the purposes of participation in concealed handgun reciprocity agreements with other jurisdictions,
38 the official government-issued law-enforcement identification card issued to an active-duty law-enforcement
39 officer in the Commonwealth who is exempt from obtaining a concealed handgun permit under this article 40 shall be deemed a concealed handgun permit.41 C. A Virginia resident who has not been issued a valid concealed handgun permit pursuant to 42 § 18.2-308.02 may not use a concealed handgun or concealed weapon permit or license issued by another 43 state to carry a concealed handgun in the Commonwealth. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to 44 an active duty service member of the United States Armed Forces or the spouse of such active duty service
45 member.46 2. That the Superintendent of State Police, in consultation with the Office of the Attorney General, 47 shall review any agreements for reciprocal recognition that are in place with any other states pursuant 48 to § 18.2-308.014 of the Code of Virginia as of July 1, 2026, to determine whether the requirements and 49 qualifications of those states' laws are adequate to prevent possession of a permit or license by persons 50 who would be denied a permit in the Commonwealth as required by § 18.2-308.014 of the Code of 51 Virginia, as amended by this act, and revoke any reciprocity agreement or recognition of any states 52 that do not meet such requirements or qualifications by December 1, 2026. The Attorney General shall 53 provide a written explanation for any determination that a state's laws are adequate to prevent 54 possession of such permit or license by persons who would be denied such permit in the 55 Commonwealth.

56 3. That the provisions of the first enactment of this act shall become effective on July 1, 2027.
