Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 15.2-502, 15.2-705, 15.2-802, 24.2-226, 24.2-228, 24.2-507, and 24.2-510 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 24.2-228.2 as follows:

§ 15.2-502. Powers vested in board of county supervisors; election and terms of members; vacancies.

A. The powers of the county as a body politic and corporate shall be vested in a board of county supervisors (the board), to consist of not less than three nor more than nine members to be elected by the voters of the county at large, or solely by the voters of the respective magisterial or election district of which each member is a qualified voter. There shall be on the board for each magisterial or election district one member, and no more, who shall be a qualified voter of the district.

The supervisors first elected shall hold office until January 1 following the next regular election provided by general law for the election of supervisors. At such election their successors shall be elected for terms of four years each.

B. When any vacancy occurs in the board, the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with § 24.2-228, except that the board shall have the option in its petition to the court to request that the election to fill the vacancy be held prior to the next or second ensuing general election, as the case may be. In that event, such election shall be held within sixty days of the issuance of the writ, or, if such election would fall within the sixty days prior to a general or primary election, on the general election day or within sixty days following the primary election.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection B, the provisions of this subsection shall apply to any county with the county executive form of government that is contiguous to a county with the urban county executive form of government. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 24.2-226 and 24.2-228, when any vacancy occurs in the membership of the board, the judge of the circuit court of the county shall issue a writ for a special election to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term. The judge shall issue the writ within fifteen days of the occurrence of the vacancy. He shall order the election to be held not fewer than forty-five days and not more than sixty days after the issuance of the writ. However, if the election would fall within sixty days before a general election, the judge shall order the election to be held on the general election day; and, if the election would fall within sixty days before a primary election, the judge shall order the election to be held not fewer than thirty days and not more than sixty days after the primary. If the vacancy occurs prior to a general election and there is insufficient time to order the election to be held at the general election, the judge shall order the election to be held not fewer than 45 days and not more than 60 after the general election. The local electoral board shall determine and announce within three business days after the date of the writ the candidate filing deadline for the special election. The remaining members of the board shall not make a temporary appointment to fill the vacancy. However, if the vacancy occurs within the 180 days before the expiration of the term of office, there shall be no special election, and the remaining members of the board shall fill the vacancy by appointment pursuant to § 24.2-228 within thirty days of the occurrence of the vacancy and after holding a public hearing on the appointment. The appointment shall be for the duration of the unexpired term.

A. In any county operating as of December 1, 1993, under the county manager plan provided for in this chapter, the members of the board shall be elected and vacancies on the board shall be filled as provided in this section. The members of the board shall be elected from the county at large.

B. Two board members shall be elected at the November 1995 election to succeed the members whose terms are expiring, and one member each shall be elected at the 1994, 1996, and 1997 November elections to succeed the members whose terms respectively are expiring. Thereafter at each regular November election one or more board members shall be elected to succeed the members whose terms expire on or before January 1 next succeeding such election. The members so elected shall be elected for terms of four years each, shall

59 take office on January 1 next succeeding their election, and shall hold office until their successors are elected
60 and qualify. The board may provide, by ordinance, for the nomination or election of candidates by instant 61 runoff voting pursuant to § 15.2-705.1.

62 C. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 24.2-226, when any vacancy occurs in the membership of the 63 board, the judge of the circuit court of the county shall call a special election for the remainder of the 64 unexpired term to be held not less than 60 days and not more than 90 days thereafter, and the local electoral 65 board shall determine and announce within three business days after such call the candidate filing deadline 66 for that special election. However, if any vacancy occurs within 180 days before the expiration of a term of 67 office, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by a majority vote of the remaining members of the board 68 within 30 days of the occurrence of the vacancy after holding a public hearing on the appointment. The 69 appointment shall be for the duration of the unexpired term. When any vacancy occurs in the board, the 70 vacancy shall be filled in accordance with § 24.2-228.

71 § 15.2-802. Powers of county vested in board of supervisors; membership, election, terms, etc., of 72 board; vacancies; powers of chairman.

73 The powers of the county as a body politic and corporate shall be vested in an urban county board of 74 supervisors, to consist of one member from each district of such county and to be known as the board of 75 supervisors (the board). Each member shall be a qualified voter of his district and shall be elected by the 76 qualified voters thereof. In addition to the above board members, the voters shall elect a county chairman
77 who shall be a qualified voter of the county. No person may be a candidate for county chairman at the same 78 time he is a candidate for membership on the county board from any district of the county. A quorum shall 79 consist of a majority of the board and the chairman shall be included and counted.

80 The county chairman shall be the chairman of the board and preside at the meetings thereof. The chairman 81 shall represent the county at official functions and ceremonial events. The chairman shall have all rights, 82 privileges, and duties of other members of the board and such others, not in conflict with this article, as the 83 board may prescribe. In addition, the chairman shall have the power to (i) call special meetings of the board 84 in accordance with the procedures and restrictions of § 15.2-1418, mutatis mutandis; (ii) set the agenda for 85 board meetings; however, any such agenda may be modified by an affirmative vote of the board; (iii) appoint 86 county representatives to regional boards, authorities and commissions which are authorized in advance by 87 the board; however, any such appointment shall be subject to revocation by an affirmative vote of a majority 88 of all members elected to the board acting within the 30-day period following that appointment; and (iv)
89 create and appoint committees of the board and name presiding members of such committees as authorized 90 by the board; however, any such committee or appointment shall be subject to revocation by an affirmative 91 vote of a majority of all members elected to the board.

92 At the first meeting at the beginning of its term and any time thereafter when necessary, the board shall 93 elect a vice-chairman from its membership who shall perform the duties of the chairman in his absence.

94 The supervisors and chairman first elected under the provisions of this chapter shall hold office until 95 January 1 following the next regular election provided by general law for the election of supervisors. At such 96 election their successors shall be elected for terms of four years each.

97 If the number of districts in any such county is increased by redistricting or otherwise subsequent to a 98 general election for supervisors, and such supervisors have taken office, then the board shall adopt a 99 resolution requesting a judge of the circuit court for such county to call a special election for an additional 100 supervisor or supervisors in accordance with the increase in the number of districts, such additional 101 supervisor or supervisors to be elected from the county at large, and such election shall be held within 45
102 days from the date of such request. The qualifications of candidates and the election shall be as at general law 103 applying to special elections. Any supervisors thereby elected shall hold office until January 1 following the 104 next regular election provided by general law for the election of members of the board, and at the next regular 105 election all supervisors of any such county shall be elected from districts as provided by law.

106 If a vacancy occurs on the board, the chief judge of the circuit court for such county shall call a special 107 election, in the district if the vacancy is of a district supervisor, or in the county at large if the vacancy is of 108 the chairman, to be held not fewer than 45 nor more than 90 days after the occurrence of the vacancy;
109 however, if the vacancy occurs within 150 days prior to a general election, such special election may be held 110 on the general election day; and if the vacancy occurs within 120 days prior to the date of a regular election 111 for the board of supervisors, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the remaining members of the 112 board within seven days of the occurrence of the vacancy, which appointment shall be for the duration of the 113 term of office of the person whose absence from the board occasioned such vacancy. The qualification of 114 candidates and the election shall be otherwise as at general law applying to special elections the vacancy shall 115 be filled in accordance with § 24.2-228.

116 § 24.2-226. Election to fill vacancy.

117 A. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or charter, a vacancy in any governing body of a county or 118 city, whether occurring when for any reason an officer-elect does not take office or occurring after an officer 119 begins his term, shall be filled as provided by § 24.2-228.2.

120 B. Unless provided otherwise by statute or charter requiring special elections within the time limits

121 provided in this title, a vacancy in any constitutional office, whether occurring when for any reason an 122 officer-elect does not take office or occurring after an officer begins his term, shall be filled as provided by 123 § 24.2-228.1.

124 C. A vacancy in any elected local office, except for the governing body of a county or city or a 125 constitutional office, whether occurring when for any reason an officer-elect does not take office or occurring 126 after an officer begins his term, shall be filled as provided by § 24.2-228 or for constitutional officers as 127 provided in § 24.2-228.1, or unless provided otherwise by statute or charter requiring special elections within 128 the time limits provided in this title. The governing body or, in the case of an elected school board, the school 129 board of the county, city, or town in which the such vacancy occurs shall, within 15 days of the occurrence of 130 the such vacancy, petition the circuit court to issue a writ of election to fill the vacancy as set forth in Article 131 5 (§ 24.2-681 et seq.) of Chapter 6. Either upon receipt of the petition or on its own motion, the court shall 132 issue the writ ordering the election promptly and shall order the special election to be held on the date of the 133 next general election in November or in May if the vacant office is regularly scheduled by law to be filled in 134 May. However, if the governing body or the school board requests in its petition a different date for the 135 election, the court shall order the special election be held on that date, so long as the date requested precedes 136 the date of such next general election and complies with the provisions of § 24.2-682. If the such vacancy 137 occurs within 90 days of the next such general election and the governing body or the school board has not 138 requested in its petition a different date for the election, the special election shall be held on the date of the 139 second such general election. Upon receipt of written notification by an officer or officer-elect of his 140 resignation as of a stated date, the governing body or school board, as the case may be, may immediately 141 petition the circuit court to issue a writ of election, and the court may immediately issue the writ to call the 142 election. The officer's or officer-elect's resignation shall not be revocable after the date stated by him for his 143 resignation or after the forty-fifth day before the date set for the special election. The person so elected shall 144 hold the office for the remaining portion of the regular term of the office for which the vacancy is being 145 filled.

146 B. D. Notwithstanding any provision of law or charter to the contrary, no election to fill a vacancy shall be 147 ordered or held if the general election at which it is to be called is scheduled within 60 days of the end of the 148 term of the office to be filled; however, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a special election 149 held pursuant to § 24.2-228.2.

150 C. E. Notwithstanding any provision of law or charter to the contrary, when an interim appointment to a 151 vacancy in any governing body town council or elected school board has been made by the remaining 152 members thereof, no election to fill the vacancy shall be ordered or held if the general election at which it is 153 to be called is scheduled in the year in which the term expires.

154 § 24.2-228. Interim appointment to fill a vacancy; town council or elected school board; elected 155 mayor.

156 A. When a vacancy occurs in a local governing body town council or an elected school board, the 157 remaining members of the body or board, respectively, within 45 days of the office becoming vacant, may 158 appoint a qualified voter of the election district in which the vacancy occurred to fill the vacancy. At least 159 seven days prior to making such interim appointment, the body or board shall hold a public meeting in 160 accordance with § 2.2-3707 at which the body or board shall announce the names of all persons being 161 proposed for the interim appointment and shall make available for inspection each person's resume and any 162 other materials required by the body or board. If a majority of the remaining members of the body or board 163 cannot agree, or do not act, the judges of the circuit court of the county or city may make the appointment.

164 Notwithstanding any charter provisions to the contrary, the person so appointed shall hold office only
 165 until the qualified voters fill the vacancy by special election pursuant to § 24.2-682 and the person so elected
 166 has qualified. Any person so appointed shall hold office the same as an elected person and shall exercise all 167 powers of the elected office.

168 If a majority of the seats on any governing body town council or elected school board are vacant, the 169 remaining members shall not make interim appointments and the vacancies shall be filled as provided in 170 § 24.2-227.

171 B. When a vacancy occurs in the office of a mayor who is elected by the voters, the council shall make an 172 interim appointment to fill the vacancy as provided in subsection A the city or town council, within 45 days of 173 the office becoming vacant, may appoint a qualified voter of the election district in which the vacancy
 174 occurred to fill the vacancy. At least seven days prior to making such interim appointment, the council shall 175 hold a public meeting in accordance with § 2.2-3707 at which the body or board shall announce the names of 176 all persons being proposed for the interim appointment and shall make available for inspection each person's 177 resume and any other materials required by the body or board. If a majority of the remaining members of the 178 council cannot agree, or do not act, the judges of the circuit court of the county or city may make the 179 appointment.

180 Notwithstanding any charter provisions to the contrary, the person so appointed shall hold office only
 181 until the qualified voters fill the vacancy by special election pursuant to § 24.2-682 and the person so elected
 182 has qualified. Any person so appointed shall hold office the same as an elected person and shall exercise all

183 powers of the elected office.

184 C. For the purposes of this article and subsection D of § 22.1-57.3, local school boards comprised of 185 elected and appointed members shall be deemed elected school boards.

186 D. The failure of a member of a ~~local governing body or town council~~, elected school board, or a mayor to 187 take the oath of office required by § 49-1 before attending the first meeting of the governing body or school 188 board held after his election shall not be deemed to create a vacancy in his office provided that he takes the 189 oath within 30 days after that first meeting.

190 § 24.2-228.2. Election to fill vacancy in county or city governing body.

191 A. *Notwithstanding any provision of a charter to the contrary, a vacancy in any county or city governing 192 body, whether occurring when for any reason an officer-elect does not take office or occurring after an 193 officer begins his term, shall be filled by special election. Within one day of the occurrence of the vacancy, 194 the governing body of the locality in which the vacancy occurs shall petition the circuit court to issue a writ 195 of election to fill the vacancy as set forth in Article 5 (§ 24.2-681 et seq.) of Chapter 6. Either upon receipt of 196 the petition or on its own motion, the court shall promptly issue the writ ordering the election for a date
197 determined in accordance § 24.2-682. The court shall order the election to be held not more than 45 days
198 after the issuance of the writ. However, if the election would fall within 55 days before a general election and 199 cannot be held at an earlier date, the court shall order the election to be held on the general election day;
200 and, if the election would fall within 55 days before a primary election and cannot be held at an earlier date, 201 the court shall order the election to be held not fewer than 30 days and not more than 45 days after the 202 primary. If the vacancy occurs prior to a general election and there is insufficient time to order the election 203 to be held at the general election, the court shall order the election to be held not fewer than 30 days and not 204 more than 45 days after the general election.*

205 B. Upon receipt of written notification by an officer or officer-elect of his resignation as of a stated date, 206 the governing body shall immediately petition the circuit court to issue a writ of election, and the court shall 207 promptly issue the writ to call the election. The officer's or officer-elect's resignation shall not be revocable 208 after the date stated by him for his resignation or after the thirtieth day before the date set for the special 209 election.
