90       B. No additional circuit court judge shall be authorized or provided for any judicial circuit until the 91       Judicial Council has made a study of the need for such additional circuit court judge and has reported its 92       findings and recommendations to the House and Senate Committees for Courts of Justice. The boundary of 93       any judicial circuit shall not be changed until a study has been made by the Judicial Council and a report of 94       its findings and recommendations made to said Committees.

95       C. If the Judicial Council finds the need for an additional circuit court judge after a study is made pursuant 96       to subsection B, the study shall be made available to the Compensation Board and the House and Senate
97       Committees for Courts of Justice and the Judicial Council shall publish notice of such finding in a publication
98       of general circulation among attorneys licensed to practice in the Commonwealth. The Compensation Board
99       shall make a study of the need to provide additional courtroom security and deputy court clerk staffing. This 100      study shall be reported to the House and Senate Committees for Courts of Justice, and to the Department of 101      Planning and Budget.
