Patron—Hayes

Committee Referral Pending

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 35.1-14.01 as follows:

§ 35.1-14.01. Restaurants; sodium warning label required; civil penalty.

13 A. All restaurants licensed pursuant to this title that operate three or more locations within the 14 Commonwealth and provide a menu to its customers shall include in a conspicuous manner a sodium
15 warning label next to or directly under each high sodium menu item.

16 For the purpose of this section, a high sodium menu item is any menu item containing 2,300 milligrams
17 (mg) or more of sodium. Each menu item that provides for variations containing fewer than 2,300 mg of 18 sodium is a high sodium menu item if any variation contains 2,300 mg or more of sodium. Electronic menus
19 that allow for customization of items may display the sodium warning label dynamically when the consumer
20 makes a choice that increases the sodium content of the menu item to 2,300 mg or more of sodium. Menu
21 items intended for sharing that consist of more than one discrete serving require a sodium warning label only 22 if each discrete serving contains 2,300 mg or more of sodium.

B. The sodium warning label required under subsection A shall display the following language in a clear, legible, and conspicuous format: "Sodium content higher than daily recommended limit (2,300 mg). High sodium intake can increase blood pressure and risk of heart disease and stroke."

25 sodium intake can increase blood pressure and risk of heart disease and stroke.
26 C. Notwithstanding § 35.1-107, restaurants that fail to comply with the requirements of this section shall 27 be subject to a civil penalty of not more than $500 per violation. Civil penalties under this section shall be 28 assessed by the Department and paid to the Literary Fund.
