8 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:9 1. That § 40.1-57.2 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:10 § 40.1-57.2. Collective bargaining.11 A. No state, county, city, town, or like governmental officer, agent, or governing body is vested with or 12 possesses any authority to recognize any labor union or other employee association as a bargaining agent of 13 any public officers or employees, or to collectively bargain or enter into any collective bargaining contract 14 with any such union or association or its agents with respect to any matter relating to them or their 15 employment or service (i) except as provided in subsection D or (ii) unless, in the case of a county, city, or 16 town, such authority is provided for or permitted by a local ordinance or by a resolution. Any such ordinance
17 or resolution shall provide for procedures for the certification and decertification of exclusive bargaining 18 representatives, including reasonable public notice and opportunity for labor organizations to intervene in the 19 process for designating an exclusive representative of a bargaining unit. As used in this section, "county, city, 20 or town" includes any local school board, and "public officers or employees" includes employees of a local 21 *school board.*22 B. No ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to subsection A shall include provisions that restrict the 23 governing body's authority to establish the budget or appropriate funds.24 C. For any governing body of a county, city, or town that has not adopted an ordinance or resolution 25 providing for collective bargaining, such governing body shall, within 120 days of receiving certification 26 from a majority of public employees in a unit considered by such employees to be appropriate for the 27 purposes of collective bargaining, take a vote to adopt or not adopt an ordinance or resolution to provide for 28 collective bargaining by such public employees and any other public employees deemed appropriate by the 29 governing body. Nothing in this subsection shall require any governing body to adopt an ordinance or 30 resolution authorizing collective bargaining.31 D. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection A regarding a local ordinance or resolution granting or 32 permitting collective bargaining:33 1. The employees of any sheriff elected pursuant to Article VII, Section 4 of the Constitution of Virginia in 34 (i) any county that has adopted the urban county executive form of government, (ii) any county within 35 Planning District 8 with a population of less than 300,000, or (iii) any city within Planning District 8 with a
36 population of more than 100,000 may organize, form, join, or assist a labor union or employee organization 37 and collectively bargain and enter into a collective bargaining contract with their locality for the purposes of 38 collective bargaining with respect to matters relating to the supplementation of salary and benefit 39 compensation insofar as any such activity is not prohibited by this chapter or any other law of the 40 *Commonwealth.*41 2. Except as provided in subdivision 1, no officer elected pursuant to Article VII, Section 4 of the 42 Constitution of Virginia or any employee of such officer is vested with or possesses any authority to 43 recognize any labor union or other employee association as a bargaining agent of any public officers or 44 employees, or to collectively bargain or enter into any collective bargaining contract with any such union or 45 association or its agents, with respect to any matter relating to them or their employment or service.
