8 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:9 1. That § 40.1-27.3 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:10 § 40.1-27.3. Retaliatory action against employee prohibited.11 A. As used in this section:

12 "Employee" includes a current or former employee.

13 "Federal or state law or regulation" means any federal law, any law of the Commonwealth, and any 14 regulation published as a final rule in the Federal Register or the Virginia Administrative Code.

15 "In good faith" means having a reasonable belief that a violation of law is occurring or has occurred.

16 B. An employer shall not discharge, discipline, threaten, discriminate against, or penalize an employee, or 17 take other retaliatory action regarding an employee's compensation, terms, conditions, location, or privileges
18 of employment or blacklist or otherwise retaliate against an employee, because the employee:19 1. Or a person acting on behalf of the employee reports any information or allegation in good faith
20 reports that, if true, amounts to a violation of any federal or state law or regulation to a supervisor, manager,
21 officer, or other employee, or to any governmental body or law-enforcement official, including a report made
22 in the ordinary course of the employee's employment. Such a report is protected pursuant to this subdivision
23 *regardless of whether such report refers to a particular law or regulation;*24 2. Is requested by a governmental body or law-enforcement official to participate in an investigation, 25 hearing, or inquiry;

26 3. Refuses to engage in a criminal act that would subject the employee to criminal liability;

27 4. Refuses an employer's order to perform an action that violates any federal or state law or regulation and 28 the employee informs the employer that the order is being refused for that reason; or29 5. Provides information to or testifies before any governmental body or law-enforcement official 30 conducting an investigation, hearing, or inquiry into any alleged violation by the employer of federal or state
31 law or regulation.32 B. C. This section does not:33 1. Authorize an employee to make a disclosure to a party other than the employer of data otherwise 34 protected by law or any legal privilege;35 2. Permit an employee to make statements or disclosures knowing that they are false or that they are in 36 reckless disregard of the truth; or37 3. Permit disclosures that would violate federal or state law or diminish or impair the rights of any person
38 to the continued protection of confidentiality of communications provided by common law.39 C. D. No employer shall (i) take any action or include any policy in an employee handbook, employment
40 contract, or separation agreement that impedes an employee from disclosing possible or actual illegal 41 activity to the public, a governmental body, or his employer, including disclosures regarding violations of 42 civil rights or antidiscrimination laws, or (ii) take any disciplinary action in retaliation against an employee
43 for reporting to the public, a governmental body, or his employer any possible or actual violation of any 44 federal or state law or regulation.45 E. A person who alleges a violation of this section may bring a civil action in a court of competent 46 jurisdiction, with a right to a jury trial, within one year after such person learns of the employer's prohibited
47 retaliatory action such violation. The person alleging such violation shall prevail upon a showing that 48 protected activity under this section was a contributing factor in the employer's decision to take a retaliatory 49 action. An employer shall only avoid liability upon such showing if the employer proves by clear and 50 convincing evidence that the employer would have taken the same action in the absence of such protected
51 activity. The court may shall order as a remedy to the employee (i) an injunction to restrain continued
52 violation of this section, (ii) the reinstatement of the employee to the same position held before the retaliatory 53 action or to an equivalent position, and (iii) compensation for lost wages, benefits, and other remuneration,
54 together with interest thereon, as well as and punitive damages. The court shall award reasonable attorney 55 fees, litigation expenses, and costs to a prevailing plaintiff.
