73 F. Upon receipt, the court shall conduct a preliminary review of the petition. The court may summarily
74 dismiss the petition, without prejudice, if the petitioner fails to state good cause to modify his sentence. The 75 court shall provide a written explanation of the reason for the dismissal as prescribed in subsection K.

76 If the court believes good cause exists to grant the petition, the court shall notify the attorney for the

94 Corrections is unable to contact the victim or his designee, he shall file a written pleading outlining the 95 efforts made to notify the victim or his designee. Prior to the hearing on the petition, the court shall

106 a victim, immediate survivor, or his designee may pursue any elements of restorative justice practices as they 107 choose, including seeking answers, providing perspective or feedback, and requesting specific actions or

113 designee shall not be considered by the court.

114 I. The hearing on the petition shall be conducted by the judge who entered the original judgment or order
115 unless such judge is no longer available, in which case the chief judge of the circuit court shall assign the 116 petition to another judge of that circuit court. The petitioner or the victim or his designee may appear by use
117 of two-way electronic video and audio communication that meets the standards set forth in subsection B of 118 § 19.2-3.1.

119 J. At such hearing, the petitioner and the attorney for the Commonwealth may submit additional evidence,
120 including witness testimony and documentary evidence. Subject to the provisions of § 19.2-295.3, the court

121 shall permit any victim or his designee to testify at the hearing, and subject to the provisions of § 19.2-299.1, 122 any victim may submit a Victim Impact Statement to be considered by the court at the hearing. Such 123 testimony may also be submitted in writing or in pre-recorded audio format.

124 K. At such hearing, the court may dismiss the petition or, upon good cause shown by the petitioner at any 125 time before the petitioner's sentence has been completely served, (i) suspend any unserved portion of any 126 such sentence or run the unserved portion of any sentence concurrently with another sentence; (ii) place the 127 petitioner on probation for such time as the court shall determine; or (iii) otherwise modify the sentence 128 imposed, except that no modification of any term of confinement shall exceed the original term of 129 confinement imposed by the court. The court may modify a sentence pursuant to this section regardless of 130 whether any mandatory minimum term of confinement or other minimum term of incarceration is otherwise 131 required by law.

132 When determining whether there is good cause to modify the petitioner's sentence, the court shall 133 consider the following factors:

134 1. The age of the petitioner at the time of the offense and any relevant research presented at the hearing
 135 regarding development of the youth brain, the amount of time that has passed since the date of the offense,
 136 and evidence of the maturity of the petitioner since the date of the offense;

137 2. The age of the petitioner at the time the petition was filed and any relevant research presented at the 138 hearing regarding the decline in criminal behavior as individuals grow older;

139 3. The history and characteristics of the petitioner at the time of the hearing, including rehabilitation
 140 demonstrated by the petitioner, the petitioner's disciplinary record while incarcerated, and the petitioner's 141 efforts to participate in any educational or therapeutic programs;

142 4. Whether the petitioner was the victim of domestic violence, sexual abuse, or human trafficking at the 143 time of the offense and whether such circumstances influenced the commission of the offense as an act of 144 survival or self-preservation, and any treatment or counseling the petitioner has received since the time of his 145 sentencing;

146 5. Any report from a physical, mental, or psychiatric examination of the petitioner conducted by a 147 licensed health care professional that has occurred after the initial sentencing hearing and any treatment or 148 programming the petitioner has received while incarcerated;

149 6. Any testimony or Victim Impact Statement presented by any victim or his designee of the offense or by a 150 family member of the victim if such victim is deceased;

151 7. Any evidence that the petitioner was sentenced above the recommendation of the original discretionary 152 sentencing guidelines;

153 8. Compliance with the petitioner's case plan, as described by the Department of Corrections operating 154 procedures, during the five years preceding the filing of the petition;

155 9. Any evidence of the petitioner's acts of service, leadership, or mentorship he engaged in or developed 156 independently while incarcerated;

157 10. Any information regarding the petitioner's reentry plan, including his prospective residence and any 158 employment plans;

159 11. Any information related to the petitioner's support from community leaders, faith leaders, or other 160 stakeholders as deemed appropriate by the court; and

161 12. Any other information the court determines to be relevant to whether the petitioner has changed since 162 the time of his original sentencing or relevant to whether there is good cause to modify his sentence.

163 L. Within 30 days of the hearing or dismissal, or as soon as practicable, the court shall file with the 164 record of the case a written explanation for the grant or denial of the petition and shall provide a copy of 165 such written explanation to the petitioner and to the attorney for the Commonwealth. The written explanation
 166 shall address each of the factors in subsection K and indicate the weight given to each factor.

167 M. Following the entry of an order to modify a sentence pursuant to this section, within five days the clerk
 168 of the circuit court shall cause a copy of such order to be forwarded to the Virginia Criminal Sentencing
 169 Commission, the Department of State Police, and the state or local correctional facility or secure facility, as 170 defined in § 16.1-228, where the petitioner is incarcerated. When calculating a sentence modified pursuant to 171 this section, the petitioner shall receive credit for any time served in any local or state correctional facility or 172 secure facility.

173 N. The decision of a circuit court to dismiss a petition or to modify a sentence pursuant to this section 174 shall not form the basis for relief in any habeas corpus or appellate proceeding, unless such decision was 175 contrary to law. Filing a petition under this section shall not be construed to abridge, toll, or modify any 176 existing remedy, including filing a writ of habeas corpus, a writ of actual innocence, or any other form of 177 relief.

178 O. The attorney for the Commonwealth shall not require that a person waive his right to petition for 179 modification of a sentence pursuant to this section as a condition of a plea agreement. Notwithstanding the 180 terms of any plea agreement that attempts to limit the filing of a petition for modification of a sentence
 181 pursuant to this section, a court may modify such sentence, provided that the other requirements of this 182 section are met.

183 P. Whenever a person becomes eligible to petition for modification of a sentence pursuant to this section,
184 the Department of Corrections shall notify, within 30 days of such person becoming eligible, such person of 185 his eligibility and send, along with a copy of this section, the form for the fillable petition provided by the 186 Supreme Court of Virginia, and all information necessary to complete such form. The notification shall be 187 provided to each eligible individual in his primary language. Within 60 days of the final hearing, the 188 Department of Corrections shall provide any records, electronic and paper, associated with the petitioner,
189 without cost, including sentencing orders, program enrollment and completion, security status, case plan
190 documentation, risk assessment data and evaluation, and any other relevant records. A copy of any such 191 records requested and provided shall also be provided to the court and the attorney for the Commonwealth.

192 Q. No fee shall be charged for filing a petition under subsection D.

193 2. The Department of Corrections shall convene a work group to advise on the implementation of the 194 provisions of this act and related victim notifications requirements. The work group shall be composed
