54 any indebtedness secured by such property;55 17. Make, assume, and enter into all contracts, leases, and arrangements necessary or incidental to the 56 exercise of its powers, including contracts for the management or operation of all or any part of its facilities;

INTRODUCED

HB1066

59 17. 18. Borrow money, as hereinafter provided, and to borrow money for the purpose of meeting casual 60 deficits in its revenues;

61 18. 19. Adopt, amend, and repeal rules and regulations for the use, maintenance, and operation of its 62 facilities and governing the conduct of persons and organizations using its facilities and to enforce such rules 63 and regulations and all other rules, regulations, ordinances, and statutes relating to its facilities, all as 64 hereinafter provided;

65 19. 20. Purchase and maintain insurance or provide indemnification on behalf of any person who is or was 66 a director, officer, employee or agent of the Authority against any liability asserted against him or incurred by 67 him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such;

68 20. 21. Request and accept legal advice and assistance from the Office of the Attorney General;

69 21. 22. Do all things necessary or convenient to the purposes of this act. To that end, the Authority may 70 acquire, own, or convey property; enter into contracts; seek financial assistance and incur debt; and adopt 71 rules and regulations; and

72 22. 23. Whenever it shall appear to the Authority, or to a simple majority of participating political 73 subdivisions, that the need for the Authority no longer exists, the Authority, or in the proper case, any such 74 subdivision, may petition the circuit court of a participating political subdivision for the dissolution of the 75 Authority. If the court shall determine that the need for the Authority as set forth in this act no longer exists
76 and that all debts and pecuniary obligations of the Authority have been fully paid or provided for, it may 77 enter an order dissolving the Authority.

78 Upon dissolution, the court shall order any real or tangible personal property contributed to the Authority 79 by a participating political subdivision, together with any improvements thereon, returned to such 80 participating political subdivisions. The remaining assets of the Authority shall be distributed to the 81 participating political subdivisions in proportion to their respective contributions theretofore made to the 82 Authority.

83 Each participating political subdivision and all holders of the Authority's bonds shall be made parties to 84 any such proceeding and shall be given notice as provided by law. Any party defendant may reply to such 85 petition at any time within six months after the filing of the petition. From the final judgment of the court, an 86 appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeals.
