7 Committee Referral Pending

8 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:9 1. That § 55.1-1250 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:10 § 55.1-1250. Landlord's acceptance of rent with reservation; tenant's right of redemption.11 A. No landlord may accept full payment of rent, as well as any damages, money judgment, award of 12 attorney fees, and court costs, and receive an order of possession from a court of competent jurisdiction
13 pursuant to an unlawful detainer action filed under Article 13 (§ 8.01-124 et seq.) of Chapter 3 of Title 8.01
14 and proceed with eviction under § 55.1-1245, unless there are bases for the entry of an order of possession 15 other than nonpayment of rent stated in the unlawful detainer action filed by the landlord.16 However, a landlord may accept partial payment of rent and other amounts owed by the tenant to the 17 landlord and receive an order of possession from a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to an unlawful 18 detainer action filed under Article 13 (§ 8.01-124 et seq.) of Chapter 3 of Title 8.01 and proceed with eviction
19 for nonpayment of rent under § 55.1-1245, provided that the landlord has stated in a written notice to the 20 tenant that any and all amounts owed to the landlord by the tenant, including payment of any rent, damages,
21 money judgment, award of attorney fees, and court costs, would be accepted with reservation and would not 22 constitute a waiver of the landlord's right to evict the tenant from the dwelling unit. Such notice may be 23 included in a written termination notice given by the landlord to the tenant in accordance with § 55.1-1245,
24 and if so included, nothing herein shall be construed by a court of law or otherwise as requiring such landlord
25 to give the tenant subsequent written notice. Such notice shall include the following language: "Any partial 26 payment of rent made before or after a judgment of possession is ordered will not prevent your landlord from 27 taking action to evict you. However, full payment of all amounts you owe the landlord, including all rent as 28 contracted for in the rental agreement that is owed to the landlord as of the date payment is made, as well as 29 any damages, money judgment, award of attorney fees, and court costs made at least 48 hours before the 30 scheduled eviction will cause the eviction to be canceled, unless there are bases for the entry of an order of 31 possession other than nonpayment of rent stated in the unlawful detainer action filed by the landlord."32 If the landlord elects to seek possession of the dwelling unit pursuant to § 8.01-126, the landlord shall 33 provide a copy of this notice to the court for service to the tenant, along with the summons for unlawful 34 detainer. If the dwelling unit is a public housing unit or other housing unit subject to regulation by the U.S.
35 Department of Housing and Urban Development, nothing in this section shall be construed to require that 36 written notice be given to any public agency paying a portion of the rent under the rental agreement. If a 37 landlord enters into a new written rental agreement with the tenant prior to eviction, an order of possession
38 obtained prior to the entry of such new rental agreement is not enforceable.39 Notwithstanding the requirements of this section, a landlord with four or fewer rental dwelling units, or up 40 to a 10 percent interest in four or fewer rental dwelling units, may limit a tenant's use of the right of 41 redemption to once per lease rental agreement period, provided that the landlord provides written notice of 42 such limitation to the tenant.43 B. If the tenant makes full payment of all money due for rent as of the date of payment, late fees
44 authorized by law and agreed to in the rental agreement, any damages, and court costs prior to the initial 45 court date on the action for unlawful detainer, the landlord shall not require the tenant to pay more than $50
46 toward the landlord's attorney fees. The unlawful detainer action shall be dismissed once payment of the 47 *amounts listed in this subsection is made by the tenant.*48 C. The tenant may pay or present to the court a redemption tender for payment of all rent due and owing 49 as of the return date, including late charges, attorney fees, and court costs, at or before the first return date on 50 an action for unlawful detainer.51 If the tenant presents a redemption tender to the court at the return date, the court shall continue the action
52 for unlawful detainer for 10 days following the return date for payment to the landlord of all rent due and 53 owing as of the return date, including late charges, attorney fees, and court costs, and dismiss the action upon 54 such payment. Should the landlord not receive full payment of all rent due and owing as of the return date, 55 including late charges, attorney fees, and court costs, within 10 days of the return date, the court shall,
56 without further evidence, grant to the landlord judgment for all amounts due and immediate possession of the

59 premises. For purposes of this section, "redemption tender" means a written commitment to pay all rent due 60 and owing as of the return date, including late charges, attorney fees, and court costs, by a local government 61 or nonprofit entity within 10 days of such return date.

62 C. D. In cases of unlawful detainer, a tenant, or any third party on behalf of a tenant, may pay the landlord 63 or the landlord's attorney or pay into court all (i) rent due and owing as of the court date as contracted for in 64 the rental agreement, (ii) other charges and fees as contracted for in the rental agreement, (iii) late charges 65 contracted for in the rental agreement and as provided by law, (iv) reasonable attorney fees as contracted for 66 in the rental agreement and as provided by law, and (v) costs of the proceeding as provided by law, at which 67 time the unlawful detainer proceeding shall be dismissed, unless there are bases for the entry of an order of 68 possession other than nonpayment of rent stated in the unlawful detainer action filed by the landlord.

69 D. E. If such payment has not been made as of the return date for the unlawful detainer, the tenant, or any 70 third party on behalf of the tenant, may pay to the landlord, the landlord's attorney, or the court all amounts 71 claimed on the summons in unlawful detainer, including current rent, damages, late charges, costs of court,
72 any civil recovery, attorney fees, and sheriff fees, including the sheriff fees for service of the writ of eviction
73 if payment is made after issuance of the writ, no less than 48 hours before the date and time scheduled by the 74 officer to whom the writ of eviction has been delivered to be executed. Upon receipt of such payment, the 75 landlord, or the landlord's attorney or managing agent, shall promptly notify the officer to whom the writ of 76 eviction has been delivered to be executed that the execution of the writ of eviction shall be canceled. If the 77 landlord has actual knowledge that the tenant has made such payment and willfully fails to provide such 78 notification, such act may be deemed to be a violation of § 55.1-1243.1. In addition, the landlord shall 79 transmit to the court a notice of satisfaction of any money judgment in accordance with § 8.01-454.

80 E. F. Upon receiving a written request from the tenant, the landlord, or the landlord's attorney or 81 managing agent, shall provide to the tenant a written statement of all amounts owed by the tenant to the 82 landlord so that the tenant may pay the exact amount necessary for the tenant to exercise his right of 83 redemption pursuant to this section. Any payments made by the tenant shall be by cashier's check, certified 84 check, or money order. A court shall not issue a writ of eviction on any judgment for possession that has 85 expired or has been marked as satisfied.

86 *G. If a tenant exercises his right of redemption pursuant to this section, attorney fees shall be limited to 87 $50. If the landlord, or the landlord's attorney or managing agent, provides to the tenant a written statement
88 of all amounts owed by the tenant to the landlord pursuant to subsection F, such written notice shall provide 89 for a maximum of $50 in attorney fees. Any redemption tender shall provide for a maximum of $50 in 90 attorney fees. This provision shall not apply if the tenant presents to the court a redemption tender and the 91 tenant or any third party on behalf of such tenant fails to pay all rent due and owing as of the return date,
92 including late charges, attorney fees, and court costs, within 10 days of such return date.*
