8 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:9 1. That § 55.1-1836 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:10 § 55.1-1836. Condemnation of common area; procedure.11 When any portion of the common area is taken or damaged under the power of eminent domain, any 12 award or payment for such portion shall be paid to the association, which shall be a party in interest in the 13 condemnation proceeding. The common area that is affected shall be valued on the basis of the common 14 area's highest and best use as though it were free from restriction to sole use as a common area. The physical 15 characteristics of the common area land at the time of the acquisition shall be taken into consideration when 16 *valuing the property.*17 Except to the extent that the declaration or any rules and regulations duly adopted pursuant to such 18 declaration otherwise provide, the board of directors shall have the authority to negotiate with the 19 condemning authority, agree to an award or payment amount with the condemning authority without 20 instituting condemnation proceedings, and, upon such agreement, convey the subject common area to the 21 condemning authority. Thereafter, the president of the association may unilaterally execute and record the 22 deed of conveyance to the condemning authority.23 A member of the association, by virtue of his membership, shall be estopped from contesting the action of 24 the association in any proceeding held pursuant to this section.
