2 Offered January 16, 2026

3 Celebrating the life of Anthony L. Bennett, Sr.

4 Patrons—Cole, N.T. and Cole, J.G.

5 WHEREAS, Anthony L. Bennett, Sr., a respected educator, community leader, and entrepreneur who 6 founded A.L. Bennett and Son Funeral Home, Inc., in Fredericksburg, died on January 7, 2026; and7 WHEREAS, as a child, Anthony Bennett was inspired by the care and ceremony demonstrated by local 8 morticians as they supported families during times of loss and set a personal goal to one day own a funeral
9 home of his own; and10 WHEREAS, Anthony Bennett was a proud graduate of what is now Virginia State University, from which 11 he earned a bachelor's degree in industrial arts; he continued his education at John Tyler Community College, 12 obtaining an associate degree in mortuary science, and subsequently earned a master's degree in 13 administration and supervision from George Mason University; and14 WHEREAS, Anthony Bennett's longtime dream became a reality in 1977, when he opened Bennett's 15 Funeral Home, which later became A.L. Bennett and Son Funeral Home, Inc.; he was highly respected in his 16 profession and provided his leadership and insights to the Virginia Morticians' Association, Inc., and the 17 Richmond Funeral Directors Association, Inc.; and18 WHEREAS, Anthony Bennett was a pivotal and inspirational figure in local Black history in 19 Fredericksburg; A.L. Bennett and Son Funeral Home was originally located at 515 Princess Anne Street,
20 where it operated from 1977 until 2007, and was the last Black-owned business on that block; and21 WHEREAS, A.L. Bennett and Son Funeral Home continues to uphold Anthony Bennett's legacy of 22 excellence and dedication to serving the community from its current location at 200 Butternut Drive in 23 Fredericksburg; and24 WHEREAS, in addition to his work as a funeral director, Anthony Bennett served as a teacher at Stafford
25 Middle School and A.G. Wright Middle School in Stafford; he further supported students and his fellow
26 educators as chair of the Fredericksburg City School Board; and27 WHEREAS, Anthony Bennett took great pride in serving members of the community during their times
28 of need; he was a member of the Tau Rho Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., Epsilon Rho Boule'
29 Foundation, and Prince Hall Freemasonry; and30 WHEREAS, Anthony Bennett will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by numerous family
31 members and friends; now, therefore, be it32 RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note 33 with great sadness the loss of Anthony L. Bennett, Sr., a business owner who served the residents of 34 Fredericksburg with dignity and compassion; and, be it35 RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for 36 presentation to the family of Anthony L. Bennett, Sr., as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for 37 his memory.
