15 believe that a person poses a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or others in the near future by such 16 person's possession or acquisition of a firearm, shall issue an ex parte emergency substantial risk order. Such 17 order shall prohibit the person who is subject to the order from purchasing, possessing, or transporting a 18 firearm for the duration of the order. In determining whether probable cause for the issuance of an order 19 exists, the judge or magistrate shall consider any relevant evidence, including any recent act of violence,

33 order shall prepare a written receipt containing the name of the person who is subject to the order and the 34 manufacturer, model, condition, and serial number of the firearm and shall provide a copy thereof to such 35 person. Nothing in this subsection precludes a law-enforcement officer from later obtaining a search warrant

41 next day that the circuit court is in session. The person who is subject to the order may at any time file with 42 the circuit court a motion to dissolve the order.43 E. An emergency substantial risk order issued pursuant to this section is effective upon personal service
44 on the person who is subject to the order. The order shall be served forthwith after issuance. A copy of the 45 order, petition, and supporting affidavit shall be given to the person who is subject to the order together with
