119 income in accordance with § 134 of the Internal Revenue Code.

120 21. The death benefit payments from an annuity contract that are received by a beneficiary of such

121 contract, provided that (i) the death benefit payment is made pursuant to an annuity contract with an

 134 investment services partnership interest income (otherwise known as investment partnership carried interest 135 income) for federal income tax purposes. To qualify for a subtraction under this subdivision, such income 136 shall be attributable to an investment in a "qualified business," as defined in § 58.1-339.4, or in any other 137 technology business approved by the Secretary of Administration, provided that the business has its principal 138 office or facility in the Commonwealth and less than $3 million in annual revenues in the fiscal year prior to 139 the investment. To qualify for a subtraction under this subdivision, the investment shall be made between the 140 dates of April 1, 2010, and June 30, 2020. No taxpayer who has claimed a tax credit for an investment in a

 149 under this subdivision shall be subject to recapture in the taxable year or years in which moneys or funds
 150 withdrawn from the first-time home buyer savings account were used for any purpose other than the payment 151 of eligible costs by or on behalf of a qualified beneficiary, as provided under § 36-174. The amount subject to 152 recapture shall be a portion of the amount withdrawn in the taxable year that was used for other than the 153 payment of eligible costs, computed by multiplying the amount withdrawn and used for other than the 154 payment of eligible costs by the ratio of the aggregate earnings in the account at the time of the withdrawal to 155 the total balance in the account at such time.

156 However, recapture shall not apply to the extent of moneys or funds withdrawn that were (i) withdrawn by 157 reason of the qualified beneficiary's death or disability; (ii) a disbursement of assets of the account pursuant 158 to a filing for protection under the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 through 1330; or (iii)

187 to provide documentation of the investor's training, education, or experience as deemed necessary by the 188 Department to determine substantial equivalency. If the Department determines that the investment fund
189 employs at least one investor with the experience set forth herein, the Department shall certify the investment
