6 Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

7 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

8 1. That § 53.1-120 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

9 § 53.1-120. Sheriff to provide for courthouse and courtroom security; designation of deputies for 10 such purpose; assessment.11 A. Each sheriff shall ensure that the courthouses and courtrooms within his jurisdiction are secure from 12 violence and disruption and shall designate deputies for this purpose. A list of such designations shall be 13 forwarded to the Director of the Department of Criminal Justice Services. The provisions of this section shall 14 apply to any courthouse or courtroom within any sheriff's jurisdiction that is physically located in a city or 15 county outside of such sheriff's jurisdiction, provided that such courthouse or courtroom is authorized by law
16 *to sit in such location.*17 B. The chief circuit court judge, the chief general district court judge and the chief juvenile and domestic 18 relations district court judge shall be responsible by agreement with the sheriff of the jurisdiction for the 19 designation of courtroom security deputies for their respective courts. If the respective chief judges and 20 sheriff are unable to agree on the number, type and working schedules of courtroom security deputies for the 21 court, the matter shall be referred to the Compensation Board for resolution in accordance with existing 22 budgeted funds and personnel.23 C. The sheriff shall have the sole responsibility for the identity of the deputies designated for courtroom
24 security.25 D. Any county or city, through its governing body, may assess a sum not in excess of $20 as part of the 26 costs in each criminal or traffic case in its district or circuit court in which the defendant is convicted of a 27 violation of any statute or ordinance. If a town provides court facilities for a county, the governing body of 28 the county shall return to the town a portion of the assessments collected based on the number of criminal and 29 traffic cases originating and heard in the town. The imposition of such assessment shall be by ordinance of 30 the governing body that may provide for different sums in the circuit courts and district courts. The 31 assessment shall be collected by the clerk of the court in which the case is heard, remitted to the treasurer of 32 the appropriate county or city and held by such treasurer to be appropriated by the governing body to the 33 sheriff's office. The assessment shall be used solely for the funding of courthouse security personnel, and, if 34 requested by the sheriff, equipment and other personal property used in connection with courthouse security.
