7 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:8 1. That § 15.2-926 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:9 § 15.2-926. Prohibiting loitering; frequenting amusements and curfew for minors; penalty.10 A. Any locality may by ordinance prohibit loitering in, upon, or around any public place, whether on 11 public or private property. Any locality may by ordinance also prohibit minors who are not attended by their 12 parents from frequenting or being in public places, whether on public or private property, at such times, 13 between 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., as the governing body deems proper.14 A violation of such ordinances by a minor shall be disposed of as provided in §§ 16.1-278.4 and 15 16.1-278.5.16 B. A locality may by ordinance regulate the frequenting, playing in, or loitering in public places of 17 amusement by minors, and may prescribe punishment for violations of such ordinances not to exceed that 18 prescribed for a Class 3 misdemeanor.19 C. Without limiting or restricting the general powers created by this section, the term "public place" shall 20 also include public libraries.21 D. *Notwithstanding any other provision of law, general or special, a locality shall not discriminate
22 against any person on the basis of actual or perceived unhoused status by imposing a civil or criminal 23 penalty against any unhoused person of any age for engaging in life-sustaining activities, including sleeping,
24 resting, sitting, standing, lying down, or protecting oneself from the elements, in or upon any public place,
25 including in a legally parked car in a public place, provided that such activities do not obstruct the movement
26 of pedestrian or vehicular traffic in a manner that creates a hazard to others.*27 For the purposes of this subsection, "unhoused person" means an individual lacking a fixed, regular, or 28 adequate nighttime residence. "Unhoused person" includes any person meeting the definition of "homeless"
29 as that term is defined in 42 U.S.C. § 11302(a).
