Budget Amendment Necessary: No

Items Impacted: 123

Explanation: If the Interstate Compact for School Psychologists implements membership fees, then the Department of Education may require additional funding to maintain membership.

Fiscal Summary: According to the Interstate Compact for School Psychologists, membership fees of up to $7,000 annually may be implemented in future years.

General Fund Expenditure Impact:

| Agency | FY2026 | FY2027 | FY2028 | FY2029 | FY2030 | FY2031 |
|---------------|---------------|---------------|----------------------|----------------------|----------------------|----------------------|
| 201 (DOE) | $0 | $0 | Up to $7,000 | Up to $7,000 | Up to $7,000 | Up to $7,000 |
| TOTAL | $0 | $0 | Up to $7,000 | Up to $7,000 | Up to $7,000 | Up to $7,000 |

Fiscal Analysis: The Department of Education (DOE) does not anticipate any costs internally related to joining the Interstate Compact for School Psychologists (ICSP). According to the ICSP website, there are currently no anticipated fees for the ICSP, however additional support may be required in future years and annual fees not expected to exceed $7,000 per state annually could be implemented in future years. DOE also may experience additional costs related to travel to attend annual meetings. If funding is not provided for annual fees, DOE would have to reallocate resources internally from other priorities. At this time any impact is indeterminate and would depend on the actual fees agreed to by member states and implemented by the ICSP.
