Bill Number: HB912

Patron: Lopez

Bill Title: Public schools; right to free public elementary and secondary education; discrimination based on immigration status prohibited; requirements; civil cause of action.

Bill Summary: Prohibits any child in the Commonwealth from being denied a free public education through secondary school on the basis of the actual or perceived immigration or citizenship status of the child or the child's parents, in accordance with the Constitution of Virginia and consistent with the requirements of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. The bill prohibits any school board or public elementary or secondary school from engaging in certain enumerated actions and practices that involve or result in the denial of a free public education, or denial of the benefits or exclusion from participation in any program or activity thereof, of a child on the basis of the actual or perceived immigration or citizenship status of the child or the child's parents. The bill also requires each public elementary and secondary school to develop and implement procedures for reviewing and authorizing requests from law enforcement agents to enter a public school or public school facility. The bill establishes a civil cause of action for any party aggrieved by conduct that violates the provisions of the bill, in accordance with the provisions of the bill. Finally, the bill directs (i) the Department of Education to develop and make available to each school board by August 1, 2026, guidance for school personnel on the requirements of the bill and training guidelines and materials for the training of all public school principals and administrators on compliance with the provisions of the bill, and (ii) each school board to (a) develop and implement by August 1, 2026, policies and procedures in accordance with the provisions of the bill and (b) require each public school principal and administrator to complete training on compliance with the provisions of the bill by the beginning of the 2026-2027 school year.

Budget Amendment Necessary: Yes

Items Impacted: 123

Explanation: The Department of Education (DOE) would require additional staff in order to meet the requirements of the bill. Any impact to local school divisions is indeterminate.

Fiscal Summary: DOE anticipates the need for one additional position at an estimated cost of $135,356 general fund per year including salary, benefits and technology.

Fiscal Analysis: This bill requires DOE to develop and make available new guidance, training guidelines, and training materials related to the provisions of this bill. DOE anticipates the need for an additional position to help develop these resources and ensure ongoing compliance with the provisions of the bill.

DOE indicates that the agency will not be able to complete the work required by this bill to develop guidance, training guidelines, and materials, by August 1, 2026. DOE anticipates the agency can meet these requirements by January 1, 2027.

Any impact to local school divisions to implement the new training requirements or other provisions of the bill is indeterminate.

Other: This bill is similar to SB491 and HB836.
