A. Out of this appropriation, $5,000,000 the second year from the general fund shall be provided to the Department of Elections for the costs associated with the April 21, 2026, special election. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, the funding may be used for voter education, administrative costs of the Department, grant funding to localities to defray the costs of absentee voting in-person, and other costs associated with the April 21, 2026, special election.

B. Localities shall establish voter satellite offices for the April 21, 2026, special election, that allow for appropriate access to in-person absentee voting.

14. § 1. It shall be the duty of the officers responsible for conducting the election directed by law to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November each year, to conduct an election, at the places appointed for holding the same, on Tuesday, April 21, 2026, for the purpose of taking the sense of the qualified voters upon the ratification or rejection of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of Virginia, contained herein and in the joint resolution proposing such amendments, to wit:

Amend Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia and amend the Constitution of Virginia by adding in the Schedule a section numbered 6 as follows:

ARTICLE II FRANCHISE AND OFFICERS

Section 6. Apportionment.

Members of the House of Representatives of the United States and members of the Senate and of the House of Delegates of the General Assembly shall be elected from electoral districts established pursuant to this section and Section 6-A of this Constitution. Every electoral district shall be composed of contiguous and compact territory and shall be so constituted as to give, as nearly as is practicable, representation in proportion to the population of the district. Every electoral district shall be drawn in accordance with the requirements of federal and state laws that address racial and ethnic fairness, including the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, and judicial decisions interpreting such laws. Districts shall provide, where practicable, opportunities for racial and ethnic communities to elect candidates of their choice.

The Commonwealth shall be reapportioned into electoral districts in accordance with this section and Section 6-A in the year 2021 and every ten years thereafter, except that the General Assembly shall be authorized to modify one or more congressional districts at any point following the adoption of a decennial reapportionment law, but prior to the next decennial census, in the event that any State of the United States of America conducts a redistricting of such state's congressional districts at any point following that state's adoption of a decennial reapportionment law for any purpose other than (i) the completion of the state's decennial redistricting in response to a federal census and reapportionment mandated by the Constitution of the United States and established in federal law or (ii) as ordered by any state or federal court to remedy an unlawful or unconstitutional district map.

Any such decennial reapportionment law, or reapportionment law modifying one or more congressional districts, shall take effect immediately and not be subject to the limitations contained in Article IV, Section 13, of this Constitution.

The districts delineated in ~~the decennial~~ any reapportionment law shall be implemented for the November general election for the United States House of Representatives, Senate, or House of Delegates, respectively, that is held immediately prior to the expiration of the term being served in the year that the reapportionment law is ~~required to be enacted~~. A member in office at the time that a ~~decennial~~ redistricting law is enacted shall complete his term of office and shall continue to represent the district from which he was elected for the duration of such term of office so long as he does not move his residence from the district from which he was elected. Any vacancy occurring during such term shall be filled from the same district that elected the member whose vacancy is being filled.

SCHEDULE

Section 6. Application and duration of certain redistricting amendments.

The authorization in Article II, Section 6 authorizing the General Assembly to modify one or more congressional districts at any point following adoption of a decennial reapportionment law in the event that any State of the United States of America conducts a redistricting of such state's congressional districts at any point following that state's adoption of a decennial reapportionment law shall be limited to making such modifications between January 1, 2025, and October 31, 2030, in response to actions taken by another state between January 1, 2025, and October 31, 2030.

§ 2. The ballot shall contain the following question:

"Question: Should the Constitution of Virginia be amended to allow the General Assembly to temporarily adopt new congressional districts to restore fairness in the upcoming elections, while ensuring Virginia's standard redistricting process resumes for all future redistricting after the 2030 census?"

The ballots shall be prepared, distributed and voted, and the results of the election shall be ascertained and certified, in the manner prescribed by § 24.2-684 of the Code of Virginia. The State Board of Elections shall cause to be sent to the electoral boards of each county and city sufficient copies of the full text of the amendments and question contained herein for the officers of election to post in each polling place on April 21, 2026. The State Board of Elections shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of § 30-19.9 of the Code if the information required by that section is sent to the electoral boards on or before Monday, March 2, 2026.

The electoral board of each county and city shall, as soon as possible but no later than six days after the day of the election, make out, certify, and forward an abstract of the votes cast for and against such proposed amendments in the manner now prescribed by law in relation to votes cast in general elections.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection B of § 24.2-679, the State Board of Elections shall meet as soon as possible after receipt of the certified abstracts but no later than fourteen days after the day of the election to open and canvass such abstracts and examine and report the whole number of votes cast at the election for and against such amendments in the manner now prescribed by law in relation to votes cast in general elections. The State Board of Elections shall record a certified copy of such report in its office and without delay make out and transmit to the Governor an official copy of such report, certified by it. The Governor shall without delay make proclamation of the result, stating therein the aggregate vote for and against the amendments.

If a majority of those voting vote in favor of the amendments, they shall become effective upon certification by the State Board of Elections.

The expenses incurred in conducting this election shall be defrayed as in the case of election of members of the General Assembly.

15. That § 30-13 of the Code of Virginia is repealed.

16. That the provisions of the fifteenth enactment of this act shall be retroactive effective beginning

July 1, 1971.

17. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, in any action or suit related to any resolution concerning a constitutional amendment, any election related to a constitutional amendment, any enacted constitutional amendment, or any related statute, including any claim related to the process, efficacy, implementation, or interpretation thereof, venue shall only be proper in the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond. The provisions of this enactment shall be effective September 1, 2025, and shall be broadly construed. Upon passage, any pending suit affected by this legislation shall be immediately transferred to the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond.

~~414.~~ 18. That the provisions of the first and second ~~enactment~~ enactments of this act shall expire at midnight on June 30, 2026.

~~515.~~ 19. That the provisions of the ~~second~~ third, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, ~~and~~ thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, and seventeenth ~~enactment~~ enactments of this act shall have no expiration date.

~~616.~~ 20. That the provisions of the ~~third~~ fourth enactment of this act are declarative of existing law and shall have no expiration date.

2. That this act is effective on its passage as provided in § 1-214 of the Code of Virginia.
