Any law-enforcement officer bringing the accused before a judicial officer who has knowledge that the person is currently, or has been in the recent past, the subject of any such order or admission shall provide such information to the judicial officer.

B. A person who is held in custody pending trial or hearing for an offense, civil or criminal contempt, or otherwise shall be admitted to bail by a judicial officer, unless there is probable cause to believe that:

39 terms of bond or recognizance consistent with § 19.2-124.

40 F. If the judicial officer sets a secured bond and the person engages the services of a licensed bail 41 bondsman, the magistrate executing recognizance for the accused shall provide the bondsman, upon request, 42 with a copy of the person's Virginia criminal history record, if readily available, to be used by the bondsman 43 only to determine appropriate reporting requirements to impose upon the accused upon his release. The 44 bondsman shall pay a $15 fee payable to the state treasury to be credited to the Literary Fund, upon 45 requesting the defendant's Virginia criminal history record issued pursuant to § 19.2-389. The bondsman shall
