However, such claimant or an authorized representative of such claimant may review such files and records or receive specific information from such records upon the presentation of such claimant's signed authorization.

C. The Department of Human Resource Management shall adopt rules to ensure that its policies relating to family and medical leave for employees of the Commonwealth, including parental leave under § 2.2-1210, provide employees of the Commonwealth with leave benefits equal to or greater than the leave benefits provided to a covered individual under the paid family and medical leave insurance program pursuant to this chapter, including as described in subdivision A 1 of § 60.2-816.

A. Family and medical leave benefits shall be payable under § 60.2-801 for a maximum of 12 weeks in an application year for any covered individual.

B. Family and medical leave benefits shall be payable to a covered individual starting the first calendar day in an application year that such covered individual meets the eligibility requirements of § 60.2-802.

C. The first payment of family and medical leave benefits shall be made to a covered individual no later than two weeks after (i) the Commission has approved an initial claim pursuant to this chapter or (ii) the duration of leave pursuant to an approved claim pursuant to this chapter has commenced, whichever occurs later. Subsequent payments shall be made at least every two weeks thereafter.

§ 60.2-804. Amount of benefits.

A. A covered individual's weekly benefit amount shall be 80 percent of such covered individual's average weekly wages during the 12 months preceding such covered individual's initial claim filing, or 80 percent of such covered individual's average weekly wages during the time such covered individual worked if less than 12 months, subject to the maximum specified in subsection C.

B. A covered individual's minimum weekly benefit amount shall not be less than $100 per week except that if such covered individual's average weekly wage is less than $100 per week, the weekly benefit amount shall be such covered individual's full wage.

C. A covered individual's maximum weekly benefit amount shall be 100 percent of the state average weekly wage, as described in subsection B of § 65.2-500. By September 30 of each year, the Commission shall adjust the maximum weekly benefit to reflect any changes in such state average weekly wage. The adjusted maximum weekly benefit amount shall take effect on the following January 1.

§ 60.2-805. Family and Medical Leave Insurance Trust Fund; appropriation prohibition; reimbursement.

A. There is hereby created in the state treasury a special nonreverting fund to be known as the Family and Medical Leave Insurance Trust Fund. The Fund shall be established on the books of the Comptroller. All payroll contributions remitted pursuant to this chapter, all funds appropriated for the purposes of the Fund, and any gifts, donations, grants, bequests, and other funds shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the Fund. Interest earned on moneys in the Fund shall remain in the Fund and be credited to it. Any moneys remaining in the Fund, including interest thereon, at the end of each fiscal year shall not revert to the general fund but shall remain in the Fund.

B. Moneys in the Fund shall be used solely for the payment of benefits under the paid family and medical leave insurance program established by the Commission pursuant to this chapter, the administration of such program, and any start-up costs associated with such program, including any required payment as provided in subsection D.

C. The General Assembly shall not appropriate or transfer any of the payroll contributions remitted to the Fund for any purpose other than purposes provided for in this section.

D. Any moneys provided in the appropriation act for the purposes of establishing the paid family and medical leave insurance program shall be repaid from the Fund to the general fund by January 1, 2034.

E. Expenditures and disbursements from the Fund shall be made by the State Treasurer on warrants issued by the Comptroller upon written request signed by the Commissioner or his designee.

§ 60.2-806. Contributions.

A. Payroll contributions to the Fund shall be authorized in order to finance the payment of benefits under and the administration of the paid family and medical leave insurance program.

B. Beginning on July 1, 2028, each employer shall remit to the Fund contributions in the form and manner determined by the Commission. No later than October 1, 2027, and annually thereafter, the Commissioner shall fix the contribution rate for the coming calendar year in the manner described in this subsection, taking into account the repayment requirement provided for in subsection D of § 60.2-805. For calendar years 2028 and 2029, the Commissioner shall fix such contribution rate based on sound actuarial principles. For calendar year 2030 and thereafter, the Commissioner shall first certify and publish the following information:

1. The total amounts of the previous fiscal year's expenditures for (i) family and medical leave benefits paid and (ii) the administration of the paid family and medical leave insurance program;

2. The total amount remaining in the Fund at the close of such fiscal year; and

3. The amount by which the contribution rate shall be adjusted to ensure that the projected balance of the Fund as a percentage of total program expenditures does not fall below 40 percent. The contribution rate adjustment, if any, made as the result of the Commissioner's certification and report under this subsection shall supersede the rate previously set forth and shall become effective on January 1 of the following calendar year.

C. A self-employed individual electing coverage under § 60.2-815 shall be responsible for the employer's share of contributions set forth in subsection B on that individual's income from self-employment.

D. Each employer of more than 10 employees shall (i) deduct from each employee's wages an amount equal to 50 percent, or such lesser percentage as may be agreed upon by such employer and employee, of the contribution required per employee pursuant to subsection B and (ii) remit the full contribution required per employee pursuant to subsection B to the Commission for deposit into the Fund.

E. Each employer of 10 or fewer employees shall deduct from each employee's wages an amount equal to 50 percent of the contribution per employee required of an employer of more than 10 employees pursuant to subsection B. Such employer of 10 or fewer employees shall remit such deducted amount to the Commission for deposit into the Fund and shall not be required to make additional contributions.

F. Contributions under this section shall not be required for an employee's wages or an individual's income from self-employment above the contribution and benefit base limit established annually by the Social Security Administration for purposes of the federal Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance Benefits program limits pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 430.

§ 60.2-807. Reduced leave schedule.

556 A. A covered individual shall have the option to receive paid family and medical leave benefits on an 557 intermittent or reduced leave schedule in which all of the leave authorized under this chapter is not taken
558 sequentially. Family and medical leave benefits for an intermittent or reduced leave schedule shall be 559 prorated.

560 B. Such covered individual shall make a reasonable effort to schedule paid family and medical leave
561 taken pursuant to this section so as not to unduly disrupt the operations of such covered individual's 562 employer. Such covered individual shall provide such employer with prior notice of the schedule on which 563 such covered individual will be taking the leave, to the extent practicable. Paid family and medical leave
564 taken pursuant to this section shall not result in a reduction of the total amount of leave to which a covered
565 individual is entitled beyond the amount of leave actually taken.

566 § 60.2-808. Leave and employment protection; remedies.

567 A. Any covered individual who receives family and medical leave benefits shall, upon the expiration of 568 such leave, be entitled to restoration by the employer to the position held by such covered individual when 569 such leave commenced, or to a position with equivalent seniority, status, employment benefits, pay, and other 570 terms and conditions of employment, including fringe benefits and service credits, to which the covered 571 individual had been entitled at the commencement of such leave.

572 B. During any leave taken pursuant to this chapter, an employer shall maintain any health care benefits to 573 which a covered individual was entitled prior to taking such leave as if the covered individual had continued
574 working continuously from the date such covered individual commenced the leave until the date such covered 575 individual returns from leave, and such covered individual shall continue to pay his share of the cost of 576 health care benefits as required prior to the commencement of the leave.

577 C. Any employer that violates this section or § 60.2-809 shall be liable to any affected covered individual 578 for:

579 1. Damages equal to:

580 a. The amount of:

581 (1) Any wages, salary, employment benefits, or other compensation denied or lost to such covered
582 individual due to the violation; or

583 (2) In a case in which wages, salary, employment benefits, or other compensation has not been denied or 584 lost to the covered individual, any actual monetary losses sustained by the covered individual due to the 585 violation, such as the cost of providing care, up to a sum equal to 12 weeks of wages or salary for the 586 covered individual;

587 b. Interest on the amount described in subdivision a, calculated at the legal rate; and

588 c. An additional amount as liquidated damages equal to the sum of the amount described in subdivision a
589 and the interest described in subdivision b, except that if an employer who has violated this section or 590 § 60.2-809 proves to the satisfaction of the court that the act or omission that violated this section or 591 § 60.2-809 was in good faith and that the employer had reasonable grounds for believing that the act or 592 omission was not a violation of this section or § 60.2-809, such court may reduce the amount of the liability 593 to the amount and interest determined under subdivisions a and b, respectively; and 594 2. Such equitable relief as may be appropriate, including employment, reinstatement, and promotion.

595 D. The court in an action to recover such damages or equitable relief prescribed in subsection C shall, in 596 addition to any judgment awarded to the plaintiff, allow reasonable attorney fees, reasonable expert witness
597 fees, and other costs of the action to be paid by the defendant.

598 E. Except as provided in subsection F, an action may be brought for a violation of this section or 599 § 60.2-809 not later than two years after the date of the last event constituting the alleged violation for which 600 the action is brought.

601 F. In the case of such action brought for a willful violation of this section or § 60.2-809, such action may 602 be brought within three years of the date of the last event constituting the alleged violation for which such 603 action is brought.

604 § 60.2-809. Retaliatory personnel actions prohibited.

605 A. No employer or other person shall interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to 606 exercise, any right protected under this chapter.

607 B. No employer, employment agency, employee organization, or other person shall take retaliatory
608 personnel action or otherwise discriminate against an individual due to such individual's lawful exercise of 609 rights protected under this chapter. Such rights include the right to request, file for, apply for, or use benefits
610 provided for under this chapter; the right to communicate to the employer or any other person or entity that
611 such individual (i) intends to file a claim, a complaint with the Commission or a court, or an appeal or (ii)
612 has testified in, intends to testify in, or has otherwise assisted in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding
613 under this chapter; the right to inform any person about any employer's alleged violation of this chapter; and 614 the right to inform any individual of the individual's rights under this chapter.

615 C. It is unlawful for an employer's absence control policy to count paid family and medical leave taken 616 under this chapter as an absence that may lead to or result in discipline, discharge, demotion, suspension, or 617 any other adverse action.

D. Protections of this section shall apply to any person who mistakenly but in good faith alleges a violation of this chapter.

E. This section shall be enforced as provided in subsections C through F of § 60.2-808.

§ 60.2-810. Coordination of benefits; applicability of chapter.

A. Leave taken with wage replacement under this chapter that also qualifies as leave under the FMLA shall run concurrently with leave taken under the FMLA.

B. An employer may require that payments made pursuant to this chapter be made concurrently or otherwise coordinated with payments made or leave allowed under the terms of disability or family care leave under a collective bargaining agreement or employer policy. Such employer shall give employees written notice of this requirement.

C. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit or reduce an employer's obligation to comply with a collective bargaining agreement, an employer policy, or any other provision of law requiring more generous leave.

D. No provision of this chapter shall apply to an employer or employee as such terms are defined in 45 U.S.C. § 351.

E. An individual's right to leave under this chapter shall not be diminished by a collective bargaining agreement entered into or renewed, or an employer policy adopted or retained, after January 1, 2027. Any agreement by an individual to waive the individual's rights under this chapter is void as against public policy.

§ 60.2-811. Notice requirements.

A. An employer shall provide written notice as prescribed in this subsection to each employee upon hiring and annually thereafter. An employer shall also provide such written notice to an employee when such employee requests leave pursuant to this chapter or when the employer acquires knowledge of an employee's intent to take leave that may meet the eligibility requirements of § 60.2-802. Such notice shall include (i) a statement of an employee's right to family and medical leave benefits pursuant to this chapter and the terms under which such benefits may be used; (ii) the amount of family and medical leave benefits available; (iii) the procedure for filing a claim for family and medical leave benefits; (iv) a statement of the right to job protection and benefits continuation under § 60.2-808; (v) a statement that discrimination and retaliatory personnel actions against a person for requesting, applying for, or using family and medical leave benefits are prohibited under § 60.2-809; and (vi) a statement that the employee has a right to file a complaint for a violation of this chapter. An employer shall also display and maintain a poster provided by the Commission in a conspicuous place accessible to employees at the employer's place of business that contains the information required by this section in English, Spanish, and any language that is the first language spoken by at least five percent of the employer's workforce. The Commissioner may adopt regulations to establish additional requirements concerning the means by which employers shall provide such notice.

B. An employee seeking to take leave under the provisions of this chapter shall notify his employer as soon as practicable.

§ 60.2-812. Appeals.

A. The Commissioner shall establish a system for appeals within 90 days of a denial of a claim for family and medical leave benefits. In establishing such system, the Commissioner may utilize any and all procedures and appeals mechanisms established under this title.

B. Judicial review of any decision with respect to family and medical leave benefits shall be permitted in a court of competent jurisdiction after a party aggrieved thereby has exhausted all administrative remedies established by the Commissioner.

C. The Commissioner shall implement procedures to ensure confidentiality of all information related to any claims filed or appeals taken to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws.

§ 60.2-813. Enforcement.

A. Contributions required by the provisions of § 60.2-806 that are unpaid on the date on which they are due and payable, as prescribed by the Commissioner under this chapter, shall bear interest at the rate of one and one-half percent per month from and after such date until payment plus accrued interest is received by the Commission. Interest collected pursuant to this chapter shall be paid into the Fund. An employer who fails to timely remit a contribution or any portion thereof under § 60.2-806 shall be solely responsible for the interest due under this section.

B. If, after notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest, the amount due shall be collected by civil action in the name of the Commissioner. The employer adjudged in default shall pay the fees and costs of such action. Civil actions brought under this chapter to collect contributions or interest or any penalty from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date. Such civil actions may be brought against any officer, employee, or agent of a corporation or partnership in his individual, personal capacity when that person willfully fails to cause the employer to pay the appropriate contributions or interest and he had the authority to do so. No person shall be subject to this section unless it is proved that such person (i) knew of the failure or attempt to make such payment and (ii) had authority to prevent such failure or attempt. In addition to the foregoing remedies, the Commissioner shall have such other remedies as 680 are available to the Tax Commissioner and county and city treasurers for the collection of taxes generally.

681 The Commissioner is authorized to compromise, settle, and adjust any contributions, including interest, or 682 any penalty assessed against any employer where in the judgment of the Commissioner the best interests of 683 the Commonwealth will be promoted or served. The Commissioner may in such cases accept in full settlement
684 of the contributions assessed an amount less than that assessed.

685 C. When an unsatisfied execution has been returned by an officer, and the employer against whom the 686 judgment has been obtained on which the execution was issued continues in default of payment of 687 contributions, or any portion thereof, such employer may be enjoined from operating and doing business in 688 the Commonwealth until such contributions have been paid. The Circuit Court of the City of Richmond shall 689 have exclusive original jurisdiction to grant such injunction upon the complaint of the Commissioner. Notice
690 of the time and place when the application for the injunction will be made shall be served on the employer
691 and a copy of the bill of complaint shall be served with the notice.

692 § 60.2-814. Erroneous payments and disqualification for benefits.

693 A. An individual shall be disqualified from family and medical leave benefits for one year if the individual
694 is determined by the Commissioner to have willfully made a false statement or misrepresentation regarding a
695 material fact, or willfully failed to report a material fact, to obtain benefits under this chapter.

696 B. If family and medical leave benefits are paid erroneously or as a result of willful misrepresentation, or 697 if a claim for family and medical leave benefits is rejected after benefits are paid, the Commission may seek 698 repayment of benefits from the recipient. The Commissioner shall exercise his discretion to waive, in whole
699 or in part, the amount of any such payments where the recovery would be against equity and good 700 conscience.

701 § 60.2-815. Elective coverage.

702 A. A self-employed person, including a sole proprietor, partner, or joint venturer, may elect coverage
703 under this chapter for an initial period of not less than three years. The self-employed person shall file a
704 notice of election in writing with the Commissioner, as required by the Commission. Such election shall 705 become effective on the date such notice is filed, provided that such self-employed person agrees to supply
706 any information concerning income that the Commission deems necessary.

707 B. A self-employed person who has elected coverage may withdraw from coverage within 30 days after 708 the end of the three-year period of coverage, or at such other times as the Commissioner may prescribe by
709 rule, by filing written notice with the Commissioner, such withdrawal to take effect not sooner than 30 days
710 after filing such notice.

711 § 60.2-816. Private employer plans; exemption from contributions.

712 A. Employers may apply to the Commission for approval to meet their obligations under this chapter
713 through a private plan. The Commission may approve such private plan if the Commission determines that 714 such private plan:

715 1. Confers all of the same rights, protections, and benefits provided to covered individuals under this 716 chapter, including:

717 a. The provision of family and medical leave benefits for all purposes specified in subsection A of 718 § 60.2-802;

719 b. The provision of family and medical leave benefits for the maximum number of weeks required in 720 § 60.2-803 per application year;

721 c. The provision of family and medical leave benefits as specified in subdivision A 3 § 60.2-802 for a
722 covered individual with a serious health condition;

723 d. A wage replacement rate for all family and medical leave benefits that equals or exceeds the rate
724 required by subsection A of § 60.2-804;

725 e. A maximum weekly family and medical leave benefit amount that equals or exceeds the amount
726 specified in subsection C of § 60.2-804 and a minimum weekly family and medical leave benefit amount that 727 equals or exceeds the amount specified in subsection B of § 60.2-804;

728 f. The provision of family and medical leave benefits on an intermittent basis as specified in § 60.2-807;

729 g. No additional conditions or restrictions on family and medical leave benefits, or leave taken in 730 accordance with such benefits, beyond those explicitly authorized by this chapter or regulations issued
731 pursuant to this chapter;

732 h. The provision of family and medical leave benefits to any employee covered under such private plan 733 who would otherwise be eligible for such benefits pursuant to this chapter; and

734 i. An employee contribution amount that does not exceed the amount such employee would otherwise 735 contribute for family and medical leave benefits pursuant to § 60.2-806.

736 2. Complies with the following provisions:

737 a. Such private plan shall provide family and medical leave benefits for all eligible employees throughout 738 the course of their employment;

739 b. If such private plan is in the form of self-insurance, the employer shall furnish a bond to the 740 Commonwealth in a form, amount, and manner determined by the Commission; and

741 c. If such plan is in the form of a third-party provider of insurance, the forms of the policy must be issued by an insurer approved by the Commission.

B. The Commission shall withdraw approval for an employer's private plan pursuant to subsection A if such employer violates the terms or conditions of such private plan, including by:

- a. Failing to pay benefits;
- b. Failing to pay benefits timely and in a manner consistent with the provisions of this chapter;
- c. Failing to maintain an adequate surety bond;
- d. Misusing private plan money;
- e. Failing to submit reports or comply with other requirements or terms set by the Commission; or
- f. Failing to comply with this chapter or regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

C. An employee covered by a private plan approved under this section shall retain all applicable rights provided in §§ 60.2-808 and 60.2-809.

D. A contested determination or denial of family and medical leave insurance benefits by a private plan is subject to appeal before the Commission and any court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to § 60.2-812.

E. The Commission shall establish a fine structure for employers and entities offering private plans that violate this section. The Commission shall transfer any fines collected pursuant to this subsection to the state treasurer for deposit into the Fund. The Commission shall establish a process for the determination, assessment, and appeal of fines under this subsection.

F. The Commission shall annually determine the total amount expended by the Commission for costs arising from the administration of private plans. Each employer offering a private plan pursuant to this section shall reimburse the Commission for the costs arising out of the private plans in the amount, form, and manner determined by the Commission.

G. The Commission and the State Corporation Commission shall establish rules, processes for data sharing, and a memorandum of understanding related to their respective roles in implementing the approval of coverage pursuant to this section, authorizing products, and requiring filings related to private family leave insurance, paid family and medical leave, group disability, and individual or group accident and sickness policies.

§ 60.2-817. Federal income tax treatment.

If the Internal Revenue Service determines that family and medical leave benefits under this chapter are subject to federal income tax, the Commission shall advise any covered individual filing a new claim for family and medical leave benefits, at the time of filing such claim, that:

1. The Internal Revenue Service has determined that benefits are subject to federal income tax;
2. Requirements exist pertaining to estimated tax payments;
3. The individual may elect to have federal income tax deducted and withheld from the individual's payment of benefits in the amount specified in the federal Internal Revenue Code; and
4. The individual is permitted to change a previously elected withholding status.

§ 60.2-818. Reports; public dashboard.

By April 1, 2030, and annually thereafter, the Commission shall report to the General Assembly on projected and actual program participation by purpose listed in § 60.2-802, gender of beneficiaries, race and ethnicity of beneficiaries, age of beneficiaries, amount of benefits paid to beneficiaries per week, premium rates, fund balances, outreach efforts, and, for leaves taken under subdivision A 2 of § 60.2-802, family members for whom leave was taken to provide care.

The Commission shall develop and continually update a publicly accessible online dashboard with information including the number of claims filed and approved and the average times for claim approval, in the aggregate and divided by the purpose for which leave is requested, and additional information as the Commission deems appropriate. The dashboard shall be developed and launched no later than the date on which family and medical leave benefits are first paid pursuant to this chapter.

§ 60.2-819. Public education.

The Commission shall develop and conduct a public education campaign to inform workers and employers regarding the availability of family and medical leave benefits. Such campaign shall include multiple ways to communicate to employers and employees about the new benefits system and leave rights, contributions, timeline, and eligibility requirements. Such campaign shall be an ongoing function of the Commission for the duration of the paid family and medical leave insurance program. In conducting and planning such campaign, the Commission shall consult with the Board established in § 60.2-821 and work with other stakeholders, including chambers of commerce, trade associations, nonprofit organizations, and labor unions, to develop and implement a statewide communication outreach strategy. Such campaign shall also include targeted outreach and education for small businesses. Outreach information shall be available in English, Spanish, Korean, Tagalog, Vietnamese, Urdu, Arabic, and other languages spoken by more than five percent of the Commonwealth's population. The Commission shall deliver to the Board quarterly updates on applications, approvals, and any additional information as requested by the Board.

§ 60.2-820. Sharing technology.
