 132 Board, interviews may be conducted by the Board or its representatives and may be either public or private.

§ 53.1-154.2. Parole procedures and considerations for certain juvenile offenders; appeal.

133 A. For the purpose of this section, "juvenile offender" means a prisoner eligible for parole pursuant to 134 subsection E of § 53.1-165.1.

135 B. The Board shall provide a meaningful opportunity to obtain release for juvenile offenders on the basis 136 of demonstrated maturity and rehabilitation and the lesser culpability of juvenile offenders.

137 *C. In providing such meaningful opportunity to obtain release, the Board shall give substantial weight to 138 the following when making a determination on whether to grant parole to any juvenile offender: (i) such 139 juvenile offender's demonstrated emotional maturity and reflection, including reflection on his past conduct; 140 (ii) such juvenile offender's maturity of judgment, including improved impulse control, development of 141 prosocial relationships, and independence from negative influences; (iii) such juvenile offender's 142 participation in rehabilitative, treatment, and educational programs while incarcerated, if such programs
 143 were available to him; (iv) such juvenile offender's employment history while incarcerated, if employment 144 opportunities were available to him; (v) any obstacles such juvenile offender may have faced as a juvenile 145 entering an adult correctional facility; (vi) such juvenile offender's institutional conduct while incarcerated, 146 with greater weight given to more recent conduct occurring after he has had time to mature and adjust to 147 prison; (vii) such juvenile offender's occupational skills and employment potential, including his ability and 148 readiness to assume employment-related obligations and responsibilities; (viii) such juvenile offender's 149 reentry plan; and (ix) any other information relevant to such juvenile offender's maturity and rehabilitation.*

150 *D. The Board shall give substantial mitigating weight to the following factors when making a 151 determination on whether to grant parole to any juvenile offender: (i) the diminished culpability and 152 heightened capacity for change for juveniles as compared to adults; (ii) the hallmark features of juveniles, 153 including immaturity, impetuosity, and limited ability to assess or appreciate risks and consequences; (iii) the 154 age of such juvenile offender at the time of the offense; (iv) whether and to what extent peer or adult pressure
 155 influenced such juvenile offender to commit the offense; (v) such juvenile offender's family and community 156 circumstances at the time of the offense, including any history of abuse, trauma, poverty, and involvement in 157 the child welfare system; and (vi) the lack of ability of such juvenile offender to extricate himself from 158 criminogenic circumstances.*

159 E. Under no circumstance shall the Board consider a juvenile offender's age at the time of the offense as 160 an aggravating factor to deny parole. The Board shall not deny parole for a juvenile offender based 161 principally on factors outside of his demonstrated ability to change, such as the nature of the offense or any 162 effects resulting from the commission of such offense.

163 *F. A juvenile offender may request for reconsideration or appeal of a decision by the Board not to grant 164 parole based on (i) the Board's failure to give substantial weight to such juvenile offender's age and its 165 related mitigating circumstances as required by this section or (ii) the Board's overreliance on static factors 166 such as the nature and circumstances of the offense and failure to ground its decision in evidence of maturity,
 167 rehabilitation, and a lack of present danger to public safety. The Board shall provide individualized reasons 168 for the grant or denial of parole upon reconsideration or appeal.*

§ 53.1-165.1. Limitation on the application of parole statutes.

169 *A. The provisions of this article, except §§ 53.1-160 and 53.1-160.1, shall not apply to any sentence

180 C. The Parole Board shall establish procedures for consideration of parole of persons entitled under 181 subsection B consistent with the provisions of § 53.1-154.

184        D. Any person who meets eligibility criteria for parole under subsection B and pursuant to § 53.1-151 as
