HOUSE BILL NO. 852
AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE
 (Proposed by the House Committee on Appropriations on _____)

(Patron Prior to Substitute— Delegate Cousins)

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 16.1-266, 16.1-267, 17.1-275.5, 19.2-159, 19.2-163, 19.2-163.4:1, and 19.2-336 of the Code of Virginia, relating to abolition of fees; legal representation of indigent defendant; jury trial costs.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 16.1-266, 16.1-267, 17.1-275.5, 19.2-159, 19.2-163, 19.2-163.4:1, and 19.2-336 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 16.1-266. Appointment of counsel and guardian ad litem.

A. Prior to the hearing by the court of any case involving a child who is alleged to be abused or neglected or who is the subject of an entrustment agreement or a petition seeking termination of residual parental rights or who is otherwise before the court pursuant to subdivision A 4 of § 16.1-241 or § 63.2-1230, the court shall appoint a discreet and competent attorney-at-law as guardian ad litem to represent the child pursuant to § 16.1-266.1.

B. Prior to the detention hearing held pursuant to § 16.1-250, the court shall appoint a qualified and competent attorney-at-law to represent the child unless an attorney has been retained and appears on behalf of the child. For the purposes of appointment of counsel for the detention hearing held pursuant to § 16.1-250 only, a child's indigence shall be presumed. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a judge from releasing a child from detention prior to appointment of counsel.

C. Subsequent to the detention hearing, if any, and prior to the adjudicatory or transfer hearing by the court of any case involving a child who is alleged to be in need of services, in need of supervision, or delinquent, such child and his parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis shall be informed by a judge, clerk or probation officer of the child's right to counsel ~~and of the liability of the parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis for the costs of such legal services pursuant to § 16.1-267~~ and be given an opportunity to:

1. Obtain and employ counsel of the child's own choice; or

2. Request that the court appoint counsel, provided that before counsel is appointed or the court continues any appointment previously made pursuant to subsection B, the court shall determine that the child is indigent within the contemplation of the law pursuant to guidelines set forth in § 19.2-159 by requiring the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis to complete a statement of indigence substantially in the form provided by § 19.2-159 and a financial statement, and upon determination of indigence the court shall appoint an attorney from the list maintained by the Indigent Defense Commission pursuant to § 19.2-163.01 to represent the child; or

3. Waive the right to representation by an attorney, if the court finds the child and the parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis of the child consent, in writing, and such waiver is consistent with the interests of the child. Such written waiver shall be in accordance with law and shall be filed with the court records of the case. A child who is alleged to have committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, may waive such right only after he consults with an attorney and the court determines that his waiver is free and voluntary. The waiver shall be in writing, signed by both the child and the child's attorney and shall be filed with the court records of the case.

D. A judge, clerk or probation officer shall inform the parent or guardian of his right to counsel prior to the adjudicatory hearing of a petition in which a child is alleged to be abused or neglected or at risk of abuse or neglect as provided in subdivision A 2a of § 16.1-241 and prior to a hearing at which a parent could be subjected to the loss of residual parental rights. In addition, prior to the hearing by the court of any case involving any other adult charged with abuse or neglect of a child, this adult shall be informed of his right to counsel. This adult and the parent or guardian shall be given an opportunity to:

1. Obtain and employ counsel of the parent's, guardian's or other adult's own choice; or

2. If the court determines that the parent, guardian or other adult is indigent within the contemplation of the law pursuant to the guidelines set forth in § 19.2-159, a statement substantially in the form provided by § 19.2-159 and a financial statement shall be executed by such parent, guardian or other adult and the court shall appoint an attorney-at-law to represent him; or

3. Waive the right to representation by an attorney in accordance with the provisions of § 19.2-160.

If the identity or location of a parent or guardian is not reasonably ascertainable or a parent or guardian fails to appear, the court shall consider appointing an attorney-at-law to represent the interests of the absent parent or guardian, and the hearing may be held.

Prior to a hearing at which a child is the subject of an initial foster care plan filed pursuant to § 16.1-281, a

60 foster care review hearing pursuant to § 16.1-282 and a permanency planning hearing pursuant to 61 § 16.1-282.1, the court shall consider appointing counsel to represent the child's parent or guardian.

62 E. In those cases described in subsections A, B, C and D, which in the discretion of the court require 63 counsel or a guardian ad litem to represent the child or children or the parent or guardian or other adult party 64 in addition to the representation provided in those subsections, a discreet and competent attorney-at-law may 65 be appointed by the court as counsel or a guardian ad litem.

66 F. In all other cases which in the discretion of the court require counsel or a guardian ad litem, or both, to 67 represent the child or children or the parent or guardian, discreet and competent attorneys-at-law may be 68 appointed by the court. However, in cases where the custody of a child or children is the subject of 69 controversy or requires determination and each of the parents or other persons claiming a right to custody is 70 represented by counsel, the court shall not appoint counsel or a guardian ad litem to represent the interests of 71 the child or children unless the court finds, at any stage in the proceedings in a specific case, that the interests 72 of the child or children are not otherwise adequately represented.

73 G. Any state or local agency, department, authority or institution and any school, hospital, physician or 74 other health or mental health care provider shall permit a guardian ad litem or counsel for the child appointed 75 pursuant to this section to inspect and copy, without the consent of the child or his parents, any records 76 relating to the child whom the guardian or counsel represents upon presentation by him of a copy of the court 77 order appointing him or a court order specifically allowing him such access. Upon request therefor by the 78 guardian ad litem or counsel for the child made at least 72 hours in advance, a mental health care provider 79 shall make himself available to conduct a review and interpretation of the child's treatment records which are 80 specifically related to the investigation. Such a request may be made in lieu of or in addition to inspection and 81 copying of the records.

82 § 16.1-267. Compensation of appointed counsel.

83 A. When the court appoints counsel to represent a child pursuant to subsection A of § 16.1-266 and, after 84 an investigation by the court services unit, finds that the parents are financially able to pay for the attorney 85 and refuse to do so, the court shall assess costs against the parents for such legal services in the maximum 86 amount of that awarded the attorney by the court under the circumstances of the case, considering such 87 factors as the ability of the parents to pay and the nature and extent of the counsel's duties in the case. Such 88 amount shall not exceed the maximum amount specified in subdivision 1 of § 19.2-163 if the action is in 89 district court.

90 When the court appoints counsel to represent a child pursuant to subsection B or C of § 16.1-266 and, 91 after an investigation by the court services unit, finds that the parents are financially able to pay for the 92 attorney in whole or in part and refuse to do so, the court shall assess costs in whole or in part against the 93 parents for such legal services in the amount awarded the attorney by the court. Such amount shall not exceed 94 $100 if the action is in circuit court or the maximum amount specified in subdivision 1 of § 19.2-163 if the 95 action is in district court. In determining the financial ability of the parents to pay for an attorney to represent 96 the child, the court shall utilize the financial statement required by § 19.2-159.

97 In all other cases, except as provided in § 16.1-343, counsel appointed to represent a child shall be 98 compensated for his services pursuant to § 19.2-163.

99 B. When the court appoints counsel to represent a parent, guardian, or other adult pursuant to § 16.1-266, 100 such counsel shall be compensated for his services pursuant to § 19.2-163. When the court appoints counsel 101 to represent a parent, guardian, or other adult pursuant to § 16.1-266 in a child dependency case as defined in 102 § 16.1-266.1, such counsel shall be compensated for his services in an amount not to exceed $330, except that 103 in matters arising under § 16.1-283, such counsel shall be compensated for his services in an amount not to 104 exceed $680. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no court may waive the limitation of fees as set forth therein.

105 C. 1. In any proceeding in which the court appoints a guardian ad litem to represent a child pursuant to 106 § 16.1-266, the court shall order the parent, or other party with a legitimate interest who has filed a petition in 107 such proceeding, to reimburse the Commonwealth the costs of such services in an amount not to exceed the 108 amount awarded the guardian ad litem by the court. If the court determines that such party is unable to pay, 109 the required reimbursement may be reduced or eliminated. No party whom the court determines to be 110 indigent pursuant to § 19.2-159 shall be required to pay reimbursement ~~except where the court finds good~~
111 ~~cause to do so~~. The Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court shall administer the guardian ad litem program 112 and shall report August 1 and January 1 of each year to the Chairmen of the House Committee on 113 Appropriations and the Senate Committee on Finance and Appropriations on the amounts paid for guardian 114 ad litem purposes, amounts reimbursed, savings achieved, and management actions taken to further enhance 115 savings under this program.

116 2. For good cause shown, or upon the failure by the guardian ad litem to substantially comply with the 117 standards adopted for attorneys appointed as guardians ad litem pursuant to § 16.1-266.1, the court may 118 adjust the cost sought by the guardian ad litem of such services.

119 3. For the purposes of this subsection, "other party with a legitimate interest" shall not include child 120 welfare agencies or local departments of social services.

121 § 17.1-275.5. Amounts to be added; judgment in favor of the Commonwealth.

122 A. The clerk shall assess, in addition to the fees provided for by § 17.1-275.1, 17.1-275.2, 17.1-275.3, 123 17.1-275.4, 17.1-275.7, 17.1-275.8, 17.1-275.9, 17.1-275.10, 17.1-275.11, 17.1-275.11:1, or 17.1-275.12, the 124 following costs:

145 B. The total amount of assessments described in subsection A, including (i) the fees provided for by 146 § 17.1-275.1, 17.1-275.2, 17.1-275.3, 17.1-275.4, 17.1-275.7, 17.1-275.8, 17.1-275.9, 17.1-275.10, 147 17.1-275.11, 17.1-275.11:1, or 17.1-275.12 and (ii) all other fines and costs, shall be docketed by the clerk as 148 a judgment against the defendant in favor of the Commonwealth in accordance with § 8.01-446.

149 C. No fee shall be assessed to the defendant for any amount paid by the Commonwealth or the locality for 150 legal representation of the defendant.

151 § 19.2-159. Determination of indigency; guidelines; statement of indigence; appointment of counsel.

152 A. If the accused shall claim that he is indigent, and the charge against him is a criminal offense that may 153 be punishable by confinement in the state correctional facility or jail, subject to the provisions of § 19.2-160, 154 the court shall determine from oral examination of the accused or other competent evidence whether or not 155 the accused is indigent within the contemplation of law pursuant to the guidelines set forth in this section.

156 B. In making its finding, the court shall determine whether or not the accused is a current recipient of a 157 state or federally funded public assistance program for the indigent. If the accused is a current recipient of 158 such a program and does not waive his right to counsel or retain counsel on his own behalf, he shall be 159 presumed eligible for the appointment of counsel. This presumption shall be rebuttable where the court finds 160 that a more thorough examination of the financial resources of the defendant is necessary. If the accused shall 161 claim to be indigent and is not presumptively eligible under the provisions of this section, then a thorough 162 examination of the financial resources of the accused shall be made with consideration given to the 163 following:

164 1. The net income of the accused, which shall include his total salary and wages minus deductions 165 required by law. The court also shall take into account income and amenities from other sources including but 166 not limited to social security funds, union funds, veteran's benefits, other regular support from an absent 167 family member, public or private employee pensions, dividends, interests, rents, estates, trusts, or gifts.

168 2. All assets of the accused which are convertible into cash within a reasonable period of time without 169 causing substantial hardship or jeopardizing the ability of the accused to maintain home and employment.
170 Assets shall include all cash on hand as well as in checking and savings accounts, stocks, bonds, certificates
171 of deposit, and tax refunds. All personal property owned by the accused which is readily convertible into cash 172 shall be considered, except property exempt from attachment. Any real estate owned by the accused shall be 173 considered in terms of the amounts which could be raised by a loan on the property. For purposes of 174 eligibility determination, the income, assets, and expenses of the spouse, if any, who is a member of the 175 accused's household, shall be considered, unless the spouse was the victim of the offense or offenses 176 allegedly committed by the accused.

177 3. Any exceptional expenses of the accused and his family which would, in all probability, prohibit him 178 from being able to secure private counsel. Such items shall include but not be limited to costs for medical 179 care, family support obligations, and child care payments.

180 The available funds of the accused shall be calculated as the sum of his total income and assets less the 181 exceptional expenses as provided in the first paragraph of this subdivision 3. If the accused does not waive 182 his right to counsel or retain counsel on his own behalf, counsel shall be appointed for the accused if his 183 available funds are equal to or below 125 percent of the federal poverty income guidelines prescribed for the

184 size of the household of the accused by the federal Department of Health and Human Services. The Supreme 185 Court of Virginia shall be responsible for distributing to all courts the annual updates of the federal poverty 186 income guidelines made by the Department.

187 If the available funds of the accused exceed 125 percent of the federal poverty income guidelines and the 188 accused fails to employ counsel and does not waive his right to counsel, the court may, in exceptional 189 circumstances, and where the ends of justice so require, appoint an attorney to represent the accused.
190 However, in making such appointments, the court shall state in writing its reasons for so doing. The written 191 statement by the court shall be included in the permanent record of the case.

192 C. If the court determines that the accused is indigent as contemplated by law pursuant to the guidelines 193 set forth in this section, the court shall provide the accused with a statement which shall contain the 194 following:

195 "I have been advised this _____ day of _____, 20____, by the (name of court) court of my right 196 to representation by counsel in the trial of the charge pending against me; I certify that I am without means to 197 employ counsel and I hereby request the court to appoint counsel for me."

198 _____ (signature of accused)

199 The court shall also require the accused to complete a written financial statement to support the claim of 200 indigency and to permit the court to determine whether or not the accused is indigent within the 201 contemplation of law. The accused shall execute the said statements under oath, and the said court shall 202 appoint competent counsel to represent the accused in the proceeding against him, including an appeal, if any, 203 until relieved or replaced by other counsel.

204 The executed statements by the accused and the order of appointment of counsel shall be filed with and 205 become a part of the record of such proceeding.

206 All other instances in which the appointment of counsel is required for an indigent shall be made in 207 accordance with the guidelines prescribed in this section.

208 D. Except in jurisdictions having a public defender, or unless (i) the public defender is unable to represent 209 the defendant by reason of conflict of interest; (ii) the court finds that appointment of other counsel is 210 necessary to attain the ends of justice; or (iii) the public defender, with the concurrence of the executive 211 director of the Virginia Indigent Defense Commission or his designee, determines that the current active
212 caseload would preclude the public defender from providing adequate representation to new clients, counsel 213 appointed by the court for representation of the accused shall be selected by a fair system of rotation among 214 members of the bar practicing before the court whose names are on the list maintained by the Virginia 215 Indigent Defense Commission pursuant to § 19.2-163.01. If no attorney who is on the list maintained by the 216 Virginia Indigent Defense Commission is reasonably available, the court may appoint as counsel an attorney 217 not on the list who has otherwise demonstrated to the court's satisfaction an appropriate level of training and 218 experience. The court shall provide notice to the Commission of the appointment of the attorney.

219 E. No person shall have fees assessed against him for any amount paid by the Commonwealth or the 220 locality for legal representation.

221 § 19.2-163. Compensation of court-appointed counsel.

222 Upon submission to the court, for which appointed representation is provided, of a detailed accounting of 223 the time expended for that representation, made within 30 days of the completion of all proceedings in that 224 court, counsel appointed to represent an indigent accused in a criminal case shall be compensated for his 225 services on an hourly basis at a rate set by the Supreme Court of Virginia in a total amount not to exceed the 226 amounts specified in this section, or other such amount as may be provided by law. Such amounts shall be 227 allowed in any case wherein counsel conducts the defense of a single charge against the indigent accused 228 through to its conclusion or a charge of violation of probation at any hearing conducted under § 19.2-306;
229 thereafter, compensation for additional charges against the same accused also conducted by the same counsel 230 shall be allowed on the basis of additional time expended as to such additional charges:

231 1. In a district court, except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3, (i) a sum not to exceed $330 or (ii) for a 232 charge of violation of probation for any misdemeanor offense, a sum not to exceed $180, provided that, 233 notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, the court in its discretion and subject to guidelines issued by the 234 Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia may waive the limitation of fees provided under clause 235 (i) or (ii) up to an additional $120 when the effort expended, the time reasonably necessary for the particular 236 representation, the novelty and difficulty of the issues, or other circumstances warrant such a waiver;

237 2. For a misdemeanor charge in a district court for a violation of § 18.2-266, 18.2-266.1, 18.2-270, or 238 46.2-341.24, (i) a sum not to exceed $448 or (ii) for a charge of violation of probation for such a 239 misdemeanor offense, a sum not to exceed $180, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, the 240 court in its discretion and subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of 241 Virginia may waive the limitation of fees provided under clause (i) or (ii) up to an additional $120 when the 242 effort expended, the time reasonably necessary for the particular representation, the novelty and difficulty of 243 the issues, or other circumstances warrant such a waiver;

244 3. For a juvenile charge in a district court, (i) a sum not to exceed $680 or (ii) for a charge of violation of 245 probation for any offense, a sum not to exceed $180, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing limitation,

246 the court in its discretion and subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of 247 Virginia may waive the limitation of fees provided under clause (i) or (ii) up to (a) an additional $120 or (b) 248 an additional $650 for an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult that may be punishable by 249 confinement in the state correctional facility for a period of more than 20 years or a charge of violation of 250 probation for such offense when the effort expended, the time reasonably necessary for the particular 251 representation, the novelty and difficulty of the issues, or other circumstances warrant such a waiver;

252 4. In a circuit court (i) to defend a Class 1 felony charge, compensation for each appointed attorney in an 253 amount deemed reasonable by the court; (ii) to defend a felony charge that may be punishable by 254 confinement in the state correctional facility for a period of more than 20 years or any felony violation of 255 § 18.2-35, 18.2-36, 18.2-36.1, 18.2-41, 18.2-51, 18.2-67.3, 18.2-79, 18.2-80, 18.2-370, 18.2-370.1, or 256 18.2-371.1, a sum not to exceed $1,692, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, the court in 257 its discretion and subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia 258 may waive the limitation of fees up to an additional $850 when the effort expended, the time reasonably 259 necessary for the particular representation, the novelty and difficulty of the issues, or other circumstances 260 warrant such a waiver; (iii) to defend any other felony charge, except those described in clause (i) or (ii), a 261 sum not to exceed $834, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, the court in its discretion 262 and subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia may waive the 263 limitation of fees up to an additional $155 when the effort expended, the time reasonably necessary for the 264 particular representation, the novelty and difficulty of the issues, or other circumstances warrant such a 265 waiver; (iv) for a charge of violation of probation for any felony offense, except Class 1 felonies, a sum not to 266 exceed $445, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, the court in its discretion and subject to 267 guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia may waive the limitation of 268 fees up to (a) an additional $850 for a charge of violation of probation for any felony described in clause (ii) 269 or (b) an additional $155 for a charge of violation of probation of any other felony when the effort expended, 270 the time reasonably necessary for the particular representation, the novelty and difficulty of the issues, or 271 other circumstances warrant such a waiver; (v) to defend a misdemeanor violation of § 18.2-266, 18.2-266.1, 272 18.2-270, or 46.2-341.24, a sum not to exceed $448 and to defend any other misdemeanor charge punishable 273 by confinement in jail, a sum not to exceed $330; (vi) for a charge of violation of probation for any 274 misdemeanor offense, a sum not to exceed $180; (vii) for a juvenile adjudication appealed from a district 275 court, a sum not to exceed $680; or (viii) for a charge of violation of probation for any juvenile adjudication 276 appealed from a district court, a sum not to exceed $180. In the event any case is required to be retried due to 277 a mistrial for any cause or reversed on appeal, the court may allow an additional fee for each case in an 278 amount not to exceed the amounts allowable in the initial trial. In the event counsel is appointed to defend an 279 indigent charged with a felony that is punishable as a Class 1 felony, each attorney appointed shall continue 280 to receive compensation as provided in this paragraph for defending such a felony, regardless of whether the 281 charge is reduced or amended to a lesser felony, prior to final disposition of the case. In the event counsel is 282 appointed to defend an indigent charged with any other felony, such counsel shall receive compensation as 283 provided in this paragraph for defending such a felony, regardless of whether the charge is reduced or 284 amended to a misdemeanor or lesser felony prior to final disposition of the case in either the district court or 285 circuit court.

286 Counsel appointed to represent an indigent accused in a criminal case, who are not public defenders, may 287 request an additional waiver exceeding the amounts provided for in this section. The request for any 288 additional amount shall be submitted to the presiding judge, in writing, with a detailed accounting of the time 289 spent and the justification for the additional amount. The presiding judge shall determine, subject to 290 guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia, whether the request for an 291 additional amount is justified in whole or in part, by considering the effort expended and the time reasonably 292 necessary for the particular representation, and, if so, shall forward the request as approved to the chief judge 293 of the circuit court or district court for approval. If the presiding judge determines that the request for an 294 additional amount is not justified in whole or in part, such presiding judge shall provide to the requesting 295 attorney, in writing, the reasons for such determination and shall, if such request has been approved in part,
 296 include a copy of such writing when forwarding the request as approved to the chief judge of the circuit court
 297 or district court for approval. If the chief judge of the circuit court or district court, upon review of the request 298 as approved, determines, subject to the guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of 299 Virginia, that any part of the request for an additional amount is not justified, such chief judge shall provide 300 to the requesting attorney and to the presiding judge, in writing, the reason for such determination.

301 If at any time the funds appropriated to pay for waivers under this section become insufficient, the 302 Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall so certify to the courts and no further waivers 303 shall be approved.

304 The circuit or district court shall direct the payment of such reasonable expenses incurred by such court-305 appointed counsel as it deems appropriate under the circumstances of the case. Counsel appointed by the 306 court to represent an indigent charged with repeated violations of the same section of the Code of Virginia, 307 with each of such violations arising out of the same incident, occurrence, or transaction, shall be compensated

308 in an amount not to exceed the fee prescribed for the defense of a single charge, if such offenses are tried as 309 part of the same judicial proceeding. The trial judge shall consider any guidelines established by the Supreme 310 Court but shall have the sole discretion to fix the amount of compensation to be paid counsel appointed by the 311 court to defend a felony charge that is punishable as a Class 1 felony.

312 The circuit or district court shall direct that the foregoing payments shall be paid out by the 313 Commonwealth, if the defendant is charged with a violation of a statute, or by the county, city, or town, if the 314 defendant is charged with a violation of a county, city, or town ordinance, to the attorney so appointed to 315 defend such person as compensation for such defense.

316 Counsel representing a defendant charged with a Class 1 felony may submit to the court, on a monthly 317 basis, a statement of all costs incurred and fees charged by him in the case during that month. Whenever the 318 total charges as are deemed reasonable by the court for which payment has not previously been made or 319 requested exceed $1,000, the court may direct that payment be made as otherwise provided in this section.

320 When such directive is entered upon the order book of the court, the Commonwealth, county, city, or 321 town, as the case may be, shall provide for the payment out of its treasury of the sum of money so specified.
322 ~~If the defendant is convicted, the amount allowed by the court to the attorney appointed to defend him shall~~ 323 ~~be taxed against the defendant as a part of the costs of prosecution and, if collected, the same shall be paid to~~ 324 ~~the Commonwealth, or the county, city, or town, as the case may be. In the event that counsel for the~~ 325 ~~defendant requests a waiver of the limitations on compensation, the court shall assess against the defendant~~ 326 ~~an amount equal to the pre-waiver compensation limit specified in this section for each charge for which the~~ 327 ~~defendant was convicted. An abstract of such costs shall be docketed in the judgment docket and execution~~
328 ~~lien book maintained by such court. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, no person found indigent~~ 329 ~~pursuant to § 19.2-159 who is represented by either a public defender or court-appointed counsel shall have~~ 330 ~~fees assessed against him for his legal representation pursuant to this chapter in an amount greater than the~~ 331 ~~amount such defendant would have owed if the assessment took place on or before June 30, 2024.~~

332 Any statement submitted by an attorney for payments due him for indigent representation or for 333 representation of a child pursuant to § 16.1-266 shall, after the submission of the statement, be forwarded 334 forthwith by the clerk to the Commonwealth, county, city, or town, as the case may be, responsible for 335 payment. ~~Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, if the court has determined such child's parents or~~ 336 ~~other persons responsible for his care to be indigent pursuant to § 19.2-159 and such child was represented by~~ 337 ~~either a public defender or court-appointed counsel, no fee shall be taxed by the clerk against any such child~~ 338 ~~in an amount greater than the amount the clerk would have taxed against such child if the assessment took~~ 339 ~~place on or before June 30, 2024. No such amount allowed by the court to the attorney appointed to defend~~ 340 ~~such child shall be taxed against him as part of the costs of prosecution.~~

341 For the purposes of this section, the defense of a case may be considered conducted through to its 342 conclusion and an appointed counsel entitled to compensation for his services in the event an indigent 343 accused fails to appear in court subject to a capias for his arrest or a show cause summons for his failure to 344 appear and remains a fugitive from justice for one year following the issuance of the capias or the summons 345 to show cause, and appointed counsel has appeared at a hearing on behalf of the accused.

346 Effective July 1, 2007, the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall track and report the 347 number and category of offenses charged involving adult and juvenile offenders in cases in which court-348 appointed counsel is assigned. The Executive Secretary shall also track and report the amounts paid by 349 waiver above the initial cap to court-appointed counsel. The Executive Secretary shall provide these reports 350 to the Governor, members of the House Committee on Appropriations, and members of the Senate 351 Committee on Finance and Appropriations on a quarterly basis.

352 § 19.2-163.4:1. Repayment of representation costs by convicted persons.

353 In any case in which an attorney from a public defender office represents an indigent person charged with 354 an offense and such person is convicted, the sum that would have been allowed a court-appointed attorney as 355 compensation and as reasonable expenses shall not be taxed against the person defended as a part of the costs 356 of the prosecution; ~~and, if collected, shall be paid to the Commonwealth or, if payment was made to the~~ 357 ~~Commonwealth by a locality for defense of a local ordinance violation, to the appropriate county, city or~~ 358 ~~town. An abstract of such costs shall be docketed in the judgment lien docket and execution book of the~~ 359 ~~court.~~

360 § 19.2-336. Clerk to make up statement of whole cost, and issue execution therefor.

361 In every criminal case the clerk of the circuit court in which the accused is found guilty or is placed on 362 probation during deferral of the proceedings pursuant to § 16.1-278.8, 16.1-278.9, 18.2-61, 18.2-67.1, 363 18.2-67.2, 18.2-251, 19.2-298.02, 19.2-303.2, or 19.2-303.6 or, if the conviction is in a district court, the 364 clerk to which the judge thereof certifies as aforesaid, shall, as soon as may be, make up a statement of all the 365 expenses incident to the prosecution, including such as are certified under § 19.2-335, and execution for the 366 amount of such expenses shall be issued and proceeded with. Chapter 21 (§ 19.2-339 et seq.) shall apply 367 thereto in like manner as if, on the day of completing the statement, there was a judgment in such court in 368 favor of the Commonwealth against the accused for such amount as a fine. ~~However, in any case in which an~~ 369 ~~accused waives trial by jury, at least 10 days before trial, but the Commonwealth or the court trying the case~~

370 refuses to so waive, then the cost of the jury shall not be included in such statement or judgment recorded 371 pursuant to ~~§ 17.1-275.5~~ However, in no case shall such statement of the expenses incident to the prosecution 372 include any (i) amount paid by the Commonwealth or the locality for legal representation for the accused or 373 (ii) jury costs associated with the prosecution of the accused.
