158 writing or by posting in a manner accessible to a prospective tenant (i) the amount of any application fee or 159 application deposit that may be charged to or collected from an applicant prior to execution of a rental 160 agreement and whether such fee or deposit is optional or refundable and (ii) the amount of any 161 administrative fee, utility account set-up fee, or security deposit that may be charged to or collected from a 162 tenant upon execution of a rental agreement and whether such fee or deposit is refundable.

163 B. No landlord shall charge or collect from a tenant any fee prior to the execution of a rental agreement 164 that is not an application fee or application deposit. An application fee shall not exceed the actual out-of- 165 pocket expenses paid by the landlord to a third party performing background, credit, or other pre-occupancy

177 deposit wrongfully withheld and reasonable attorney fees.

178 ~~B.~~ C. A landlord may request that a prospective tenant provide information that will enable the landlord to 179 determine whether each applicant may become a tenant. The landlord may photocopy each applicant's driver's

180 license or other similar photo identification, containing either the applicant's social security number or control 181 number issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to § 46.2-342. However, a landlord shall not 182 photocopy a U.S. government-issued identification so long as to do so is a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 701. The 183 landlord may require, for the purpose of determining whether each applicant is eligible to become a tenant in 184 the landlord's dwelling unit, that each applicant provide a social security number issued by the U.S. Social 185 Security Administration or an individual taxpayer identification number issued by the U.S. Internal Revenue 186 Service.

187 ~~C. An application fee shall not exceed $50, exclusive of any actual out-of-pocket expenses paid by the~~ 193 D. A landlord shall consider evidence of an applicant's status as a victim of family abuse, as defined in 194 § 16.1-228, to mitigate any adverse effect of an otherwise qualified applicant's low credit score. In order to 195 establish the applicant's status as a victim of family abuse, an applicant may submit to the landlord (i) a letter 196 from a sexual and domestic violence program, a housing counselor certified by the U.S. Department of 197 Housing and Urban Development, or an attorney representing the applicant; (ii) a law-enforcement incident 198 report; or (iii) a court order. If a landlord does not comply with this section, the applicant may recover actual 199 damages, including all amounts paid to the landlord as an application fee, application deposit, or 200 reimbursement for any of the landlord's out-of-pocket expenses that were charged to the prospective tenant, 201 along with attorney fees.

202 E. No landlord shall charge or collect from a tenant any fee at the time of the execution of a rental 203 agreement that is not an administrative fee, a utility account set-up fee, or a security deposit.

204 § 55.1-1204. Terms and conditions of rental agreement; payment of rent; copy of rental agreement 205 for tenant.

206 A. A landlord and tenant may include in a rental agreement terms and conditions not prohibited by this 207 chapter or other rule of law, including rent, charges for late payment of rent, the term of the agreement, 208 automatic renewal of the rental agreement, requirements for notice of intent to vacate or terminate the rental 209 agreement, and other provisions governing the rights and obligations of the parties.

210 B. A landlord shall offer a prospective tenant a written rental agreement containing the terms governing

211 the rental of the dwelling unit and setting forth the terms and conditions of the landlord-tenant relationship 212 and shall provide with it the statement of tenant rights and responsibilities developed by the Department of 213 Housing and Community Development and posted on its website pursuant to § 36-139. The parties to a 214 written rental agreement shall sign the form developed by the Department of Housing and Community 215 Development and posted on its website pursuant to § 36-139 acknowledging that the tenant has received from 216 the landlord the statement of tenant rights and responsibilities. The written rental agreement shall be effective 217 upon the date signed by the parties.

218 If a tenant fails to sign the form available pursuant to this subsection, the landlord shall record the date or 219 dates on which he provided the form to the tenant and the fact that the tenant failed to sign such form.
220 Subsequent to the effective date of the tenancy, a landlord may, but shall not be required to, provide a tenant
221 with and allow such tenant an opportunity to sign the form described pursuant to this subsection. The form 222 shall be current as of the date of delivery.

223 C. If a landlord does not offer a written rental agreement, the tenancy shall exist by operation of law, 224 consisting of the following terms and conditions:

- 225 1. The provision of this chapter shall be applicable to the dwelling unit that is being rented;
- 226 2. The duration of the rental agreement shall be for 12 months and shall not be subject to automatic 227 renewal, except in the event of a month-to-month lease as otherwise provided for under subsection D of 228 § 55.1-1253;
- 229 3. Rent shall be paid in 12 equal periodic installments in an amount agreed upon by the landlord and the 230 tenant and if no amount is agreed upon, the installments shall be at fair market rent;
- 231 4. Rent payments shall be due on the first day of each month during the tenancy and shall be considered 232 late if not paid by the fifth of the month;
- 233 5. If the rent is paid by the tenant after the fifth day of any given month, the landlord shall be entitled to 234 charge a late charge as provided in this chapter;
- 235 6. The landlord may collect a security deposit in an amount that does not exceed a total amount equal to 236 two months of rent; and
- 237 7. The parties may enter into a written rental agreement at any time during the 12-month tenancy created 238 by this subsection.

239 D. Except as provided in the written rental agreement, or as provided in subsection C if no written 240 agreement is offered, rent shall be payable without demand or notice at the time and place agreed upon by the 241 parties. Except as provided in the written rental agreement, rent is payable at the place designated by the 242 landlord, and periodic rent is payable at the beginning of any term of one month or less and otherwise in 243 equal installments at the beginning of each month. If the landlord receives from a tenant a written request for 244 a written statement of charges and payments, he shall provide the tenant with a written statement showing all 245 debits and credits over the tenancy or the past 12 months, whichever is shorter. The landlord shall provide 246 such written statement within 10 business days of receiving the request.

247 E. A landlord shall not charge a tenant for late payment of rent unless such charge is provided for in the 248 written rental agreement. No such late charge shall exceed the lesser of 10 percent of the periodic rent or 10 249 percent of the remaining balance due and owed by the tenant.

250 F. Except as provided in the written rental agreement or, as provided in subsection C if no written 251 agreement is offered, the tenancy shall be week-to-week in the case of a tenant who pays weekly rent and 252 month-to-month in all other cases. Terminations of tenancies shall be governed by § 55.1-1253 unless the 253 rental agreement provides for a different notice period.

254 G. If the rental agreement contains any provision allowing the landlord to approve or disapprove a 255 sublessee or assignee of the tenant, the landlord shall, within 10 business days of receipt of the written 256 application of the prospective sublessee or assignee on a form to be provided by the landlord, approve or 257 disapprove the sublessee or assignee. Failure of the landlord to act within 10 business days is evidence of his 258 approval.

259 H. The landlord shall provide a copy of the signed written rental agreement and the statement of tenant 260 rights and responsibilities to the tenant within 10 business days of the effective date of the written rental 261 agreement. The failure of the landlord to deliver such a rental agreement and statement shall not affect the 262 validity of the agreement. However, the landlord shall not file or maintain an action, including any summons 263 for unlawful detainer, against the tenant in a court of law for any alleged lease violation until he has provided 264 the tenant with the statement of tenant rights and responsibilities.

265 The landlord shall provide the tenant with an additional hard copy of such tenant's rental agreement once 266 per year upon request or shall maintain such rental agreement in an electronic format that can be easily
267 accessed by or shared with the tenant upon request. Any additional electronic copy of a tenant's rental 268 agreement provided pursuant to this subsection shall be provided by the landlord at no charge to the tenant.

269 I. No unilateral change in the terms of a rental agreement by a landlord or tenant shall be valid unless (i)

270 notice of the change is given in accordance with the terms of the rental agreement or as otherwise required by 271 law and (ii) both parties consent in writing to the change.

272 J. 1. The landlord shall provide the tenant with a written receipt, upon request from the tenant, whenever 273 the tenant pays rent in the form of cash or money order. No landlord shall charge a tenant any fee for the 274 collection or processing of any payment of rent, security deposit, or any other fees, unless the landlord offers 275 an alternative method of payment that does not include additional fees.

276 2. A landlord with four or fewer rental dwelling units, or up to a 10 percent interest in four or fewer rental 277 dwelling units, shall not be required to accept payment of periodic rent and any security deposit by debit or 278 credit card.

279 K. A landlord who owns more than four rental dwelling units or more than a 10 percent interest in more 280 than four rental dwelling units, whether individually or through a business entity, in the Commonwealth shall 281 be required to provide written notice to any tenant who has the option to renew a rental agreement or whose 282 rental agreement contains an automatic renewal provision of any increase in rent during the subsequent rental 283 agreement term. Such landlord shall also provide written notice of nonrenewal to any tenant. Such notices 284 shall be provided to the tenant no less than 60 days prior to the end of the rental agreement term. This 285 subsection shall not apply to any periodic tenancy created pursuant to subsection C of § 55.1-1253.

286 L. A landlord that charges an administrative fee shall charge an amount equal to the actual cost of 287 executing the rental agreement. Such costs shall only include the actual expenses incurred by the landlord.

288 § 55.1-1204.1. Fee disclosure statement; fee prohibition.

289 A. A landlord shall provide, beginning on the first page of the written rental agreement, an itemization of 290 all charges to the tenant that comprise (i) the security deposit, (ii) the amount of rent due per payment period 291 pursuant to the lease period, and (iii) any ~~additional one-time charges fees~~ due prior to the commencement 292 date of the rental agreement or that will be included in the first rental payment. Immediately above the 293 itemized list of charges, the written rental agreement shall state: No additional security deposits or rent shall 294 be charged unless they are listed below or incorporated into this agreement by way of a separate addendum 295 after execution of this rental agreement.

296 B. No landlord shall charge a renewal fee or administrative fee to a tenant prior to the execution of a 297 subsequent rental agreement unless (i) a change to the terms and conditions of the subsequent rental 298 agreement is requested by the tenant in writing, (ii) such a fee is necessary to cover the actual cost of 299 implementing the changes proposed by the tenant, and (iii) the change is agreed to by the landlord and tenant 300 in writing. If a change to the terms and conditions of the subsequent rental agreement is proposed by the 301 landlord, no renewal fee or administrative fee shall be charged to the tenant.

302 C. A landlord that charges a fee pursuant to subsection B shall charge an amount equal to the actual cost 303 of implementing the changes to the terms and conditions of a rental agreement. Such costs shall only include 304 the actual expenses and damages incurred in the application process pursuant to § 55.1-1203 and actual 305 administrative expenses incurred by the landlord, his employees, or a third party.

306 § 55.1-1208. Prohibited provisions in rental agreements.

307 A. A rental agreement shall not contain provisions that the tenant:

308 1. Agrees to waive or forgo rights or remedies under this chapter;

309 2. Agrees to waive or forgo rights or remedies pertaining to the 120-day conversion or rehabilitation 310 notice required in the Virginia Condominium Act (§ 55.1-1900 et seq.) or the Virginia Real Estate 311 Cooperative Act (§ 55.1-2100 et seq.) or under § 55.1-1410;

312 3. Authorizes any person to confess judgment on a claim arising out of the rental agreement;

313 4. Agrees to pay the landlord's attorney fees except as provided in this chapter;

314 5. Agrees to the exculpation or limitation of any liability of the landlord to the tenant arising under law or 315 to indemnify the landlord for that liability or any associated costs;

316 6. Agrees as a condition of tenancy in public housing to a prohibition or restriction of any lawful 317 possession of a firearm within individual dwelling units unless required by federal law or regulation;

318 7. Agrees to the payment of a security deposit, insurance premiums for damage insurance, and insurance 319 premiums for renter's insurance prior to the commencement of the tenancy that exceed the amount of two 320 months' periodic rent; ~~or~~

321 8. Agrees to hire or pay for a professional service, including professional cleaning, painting, and trash 322 removal, upon conclusion of the rental agreement; however, nothing in this subdivision shall limit the right of 323 a landlord to recover a security deposit from a tenant pursuant to § 55.1-1226; or

324 9. Agrees to waive remedies or rights under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C. § 3901 et 325 seq., prior to the occurrence of a dispute between landlord and tenant. Execution of leases shall not be 326 contingent upon the execution of a waiver of rights under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act; however, 327 upon the occurrence of any dispute, the landlord and tenant may execute a waiver of such rights and remedies 328 as to that dispute in order to facilitate a resolution.

329 B. Any provision prohibited by subsection A that is included in a rental agreement is unenforceable. If a 330 landlord brings an action to enforce any such provision, the tenant may recover actual damages sustained by 331 him and reasonable attorney fees.

332 C. If the landlord is a public housing authority, the landlord shall not require a tenant to pay any fee for 333 the maintenance or repair of any dwelling unit unless the repair is necessitated by the tenant's action or 334 omission.

335 § 55.1-1212. Energy submetering, energy allocation equipment, sewer and water submetering 336 equipment, and ratio utility billing systems; local government fees.

337 A. As used in this section:

338 "Energy allocation equipment" means the same as that term is defined in § 56-245.2.

339 "Energy submetering equipment" has the same meaning ascribed to "submetering equipment" in 340 § 56-245.2.

341 "Local government fees" means any local government charges or fees assessed against a residential 342 building, including charges or fees for stormwater, recycling, trash collection, elevator testing, fire or life 343 safety testing, or residential rental inspection programs.

344 "Ratio utility billing system" means a program that utilizes a mathematical formula for allocating, among 345 the tenants in a residential building, the actual or anticipated water, sewer, electrical, oil, or natural gas
346 billings billed to the residential building owner from a third-party provider of the utility service. Permitted 347 allocation methods may include formulas based on square footage, occupancy, number of bedrooms, or some 348 other specific method agreed to by the residential building owner and the tenant in the rental agreement or 349 lease.

350 "Residential building" means all of the individual units served through the same utility-owned meter 351 within a residential building that is defined in § 56-245.2 as an apartment building or house or all of the 352 individual dwelling units served through the same utility-owned meter within a manufactured home park as 353 defined in § 55.1-1300.

354 "Water and sewer submetering equipment" means equipment used to measure actual water or sewer usage 355 in any residential building when such equipment is not owned or controlled by the utility or other provider of 356 water or sewer service that provides service to the residential building.

357 B. Energy submetering equipment, energy allocation equipment, water and sewer submetering equipment, 358 or a ratio utility billing system may be used in a residential building if clearly stated in the rental agreement 359 or lease for the residential building. All energy submetering equipment and energy allocation equipment shall 360 meet the requirements and standards established and enforced by the State Corporation Commission pursuant 361 to § 56-245.3.

362 C. If energy submetering equipment, energy allocation equipment, or water and sewer submetering 363 equipment is used in any residential building, the owner, manager, or operator of such residential building 364 shall bill the tenant for electricity, oil, natural gas, or water and sewer for the same billing period as the utility 365 serving the residential building, unless the rental agreement or lease expressly provides otherwise. The 366 owner, manager, or operator of such residential building may charge and collect from the tenant additional 367 service charges, including monthly billing fees, account set-up fees, or account move-out fees, to cover the 368 actual costs of administrative expenses and billing charged to the residential building owner, manager, or 369 operator by a third-party provider of such services, provided that such charges are agreed to by the residential 370 building owner and the tenant in the rental agreement or lease. The residential building owner may require 371 the tenant to pay a late charge of up to $5 if the tenant fails to make payment when due, which shall not be 372 less than 15 days following the date of mailing or delivery of the bill sent pursuant to this section.

373 D. If a ratio utility billing system is used in any residential building, in lieu of increasing the rent, the 374 owner, manager, or operator of such residential building may employ such a program that utilizes a 375 mathematical formula for allocating, among the tenants in a residential building, the actual or anticipated 376 water, sewer, electrical, oil, or natural gas billings billed to the residential building owner from a third-party 377 provider of the utility service. The owner, manager, or operator of the residential building may charge and 378 collect from the tenant additional service charges, including monthly billing fees, account set-up fees, or 379 account move-out fees, to cover the actual costs of administrative expenses and billings charged to the 380 residential building owner, manager, or operator by a third-party provider of such services, provided that such 381 charges are agreed to by the residential building owner and the tenant in the rental agreement or lease. The 382 residential building owner may require the tenant to pay a late charge of up to $5 if the tenant fails to make 383 payment when due, which shall not be less than 15 days following the date of mailing or delivery of the bill
384 sent pursuant to this section. The late charge shall be deemed rent (i) as defined in § 55.1-1200 if a ratio 385 utility billing system is used in a residential multifamily dwelling unit subject to this chapter or (ii) as defined 386 in § 55.1-1300 if a ratio utility billing system is used in a manufactured home park subject to the 387 Manufactured Home Lot Rental Act (§ 55.1-1300 et seq.).

388 E. Energy allocation equipment shall be tested periodically by the owner, manager, or operator of the 389 residential building. Upon the request by a tenant, the owner shall test the energy allocation equipment 390 without charge. The test conducted without charge to the tenant shall not be conducted more frequently than

391 once in a 24-month period for the same tenant. The tenant or his designated representative may be present 392 during the testing of the energy allocation equipment. A written report of the results of the test shall be made 393 to the tenant within 10 working days after the completion of the test.

394 F. The owner of any residential building shall maintain adequate records regarding energy submetering 395 equipment, energy allocation equipment, water and sewer submetering equipment, or a ratio utility billing 396 system. A tenant may inspect and copy the records for the leased premises during reasonable business hours 397 at a convenient location within or serving the residential building. The owner of the residential building may 398 impose and collect a reasonable charge for copying documents, reflecting the actual costs of materials and 399 labor for copying, prior to providing copies of the records to the tenant.

400 G. Notwithstanding any enforcement action undertaken by the State Corporation Commission pursuant to 401 its authority under § 56-245.3, tenants and owners shall retain any private right of action resulting from any 402 breach of the rental agreement or lease terms required by this section or § 56-245.3, if applicable, to the same 403 extent as such actions may be maintained for breach of other terms of the rental agreement or lease under this 404 chapter, if applicable. The use of energy submetering equipment, energy allocation equipment, water and 405 sewer submetering equipment, or a ratio utility billing system is not within the jurisdiction of the Department 406 of Agriculture and Consumer Services under Chapter 56 (§ 3.2-5600 et seq.) of Title 3.2.

407 H. In lieu of increasing the rent, the owner, manager, or operator of a residential building may employ a 408 program that utilizes a mathematical formula for allocating the actual or anticipated local government fees 409 billed to the residential building owner among the tenants in such residential building if clearly stated in the 410 rental agreement or lease. Permitted allocation methods may include formulas based upon square footage, 411 occupancy, number of bedrooms, or some other specific method agreed to by the residential building owner
412 and the tenant in the rental agreement or lease. Such owner, manager, or operator of a residential building 413 may also charge and collect from each tenant additional service charges, including monthly billing fees, 414 account set-up fees, or account move-out fees, to cover the actual costs of administrative expenses for 415 administration of such a program, provided that such charges are agreed to by the residential building owner
416 and the tenant in the rental agreement or lease. If the building is residential and is subject to (i) this chapter, 417 such local government fees and administrative expenses shall be deemed to be rent as defined in § 55.1-1200
418 or (ii) the Manufactured Home Lot Rental Act (§ 55.1-1300 et seq.), such local government fees and 419 administrative expenses shall be deemed to be rent as defined in § 55.1-1300.

420 I. Nothing in this section shall be construed to ~~prohibit~~ allow an owner, manager, or operator of a 421 residential building ~~from including~~ to charge a tenant for water, sewer, electrical, natural gas, oil, or other

422 utilities ~~in the amount of rent as specified in the rental agreement or lease~~ if the tenant directly pays the 423 provider of such utilities for the provision of such utilities.

424 § 55.1-1226. Security deposits.

425 A. No landlord may demand or receive a security deposit, however denominated, in an amount or value in 426 excess of two months' periodic rent. Upon termination of the tenancy or the date the tenant vacates the 427 dwelling unit, whichever occurs last, such security deposit, whether it is property or money held by the 428 landlord as security as provided in this section, ~~may~~ shall be applied by the landlord solely to (i) the payment 429 of accrued rent, including the reasonable charges for late payment of rent specified in the rental agreement; 430 (ii) the payment of the amount of damages that the landlord has suffered by reason of the tenant's 431 noncompliance with § 55.1-1227, less reasonable wear and tear; (iii) other damages or charges as provided in 432 the rental agreement; or (iv) actual damages for breach of the rental agreement pursuant to § 55.1-1251.

433 B. No amount of security deposit shall be applied by the landlord toward (i) the cost of professional 434 services or (ii) the cost of materials and labor performed by the landlord or an employee of the landlord, 435 unless (a) such costs are reasonably necessary to return the premises to the same condition as the condition 436 of the premises at the start of the rental agreement, less reasonable wear and tear, and (b) the landlord 437 provides a receipt reflecting such costs to the tenant. The security deposit and any deductions, damages, and 438 charges shall be itemized by the landlord in a written notice given to the tenant, together with any amount due 439 to the tenant, within 45 days after the termination date of the tenancy or the date the tenant vacates the 440 dwelling unit, whichever occurs last. As of the date of the termination of the tenancy or the date the tenant 441 vacates the dwelling unit, whichever occurs last, the tenant shall be required to deliver possession of the 442 dwelling unit to the landlord. If the termination date is prior to the expiration of the rental agreement or any 443 renewal thereof, or the tenant has not given proper notice of termination of the rental agreement, the tenant 444 shall be liable for actual damages pursuant to § 55.1-1251, in which case, the landlord shall give written 445 notice of security deposit disposition within the 45-day period but may retain any security balance to apply 446 against any financial obligations of the tenant to the landlord pursuant to this chapter or the rental agreement.
447 If the tenant fails to vacate the dwelling unit as of the termination of the tenancy, the landlord may file an 448 unlawful detainer action pursuant to § 8.01-126.

449 ~~B-~~ C. Where there is more than one tenant subject to a rental agreement, unless otherwise agreed to in 450 writing by each of the tenants, disposition of the security deposit shall be made with one check being payable 451 to all such tenants and sent to a forwarding address provided by one of the tenants. The landlord shall make 452 the security deposit disposition within the 45-day time period required by subsection A, but if no forwarding

453 address is provided to the landlord, the landlord may continue to hold such security deposit in escrow. If a 454 tenant fails to provide a forwarding address to the landlord to enable the landlord to make a refund of the 455 security deposit, upon the expiration of one year from the date of the end of the 45-day time period, the 456 landlord may remit such sum to the State Treasurer as unclaimed property on a form prescribed by the 457 administrator that includes the name; social security number, if known; and last known address of each tenant 458 on the rental agreement. If the landlord or managing agent is a real estate licensee, compliance with this 459 subsection shall be deemed compliance with § 54.1-2108 and corresponding regulations of the Real Estate 460 Board.

461 ~~C. D.~~ Nothing in this section shall be construed by a court of law or otherwise as entitling the tenant, upon 462 the termination of the tenancy, to an immediate credit against the tenant's delinquent rent account in the 463 amount of the security deposit. The landlord shall apply the security deposit in accordance with this section 464 within the 45-day time period required by subsection A. However, provided that the landlord has given prior 465 written notice in accordance with this section, the landlord may withhold a reasonable portion of the security 466 deposit to cover an amount of the balance due on the water, sewer, or other utility account that is an 467 obligation of the tenant to a third-party provider under the rental agreement for the dwelling unit, and upon 468 payment of such obligations the landlord shall provide written confirmation to the tenant within 10 days,
469 along with payment to the tenant of any balance otherwise due to the tenant. In order to withhold such funds 470 as part of the disposition of the security deposit, the landlord shall have so advised the tenant of his rights and 471 obligations under this section in (i) a termination notice to the tenant in accordance with this chapter, (ii) a 472 written notice to the tenant confirming the vacating date in accordance with this section, or (iii) a separate 473 written notice to the tenant at least 15 days prior to the disposition of the security deposit. Any written notice 474 to the tenant shall be given in accordance with § 55.1-1202.

475 The tenant may provide the landlord with written confirmation of the payment of the final water, sewer, or 476 other utility bill for the dwelling unit, in which case the landlord shall refund the security deposit, unless there 477 are other authorized deductions, within the 45-day period required by subsection A. If the tenant provides 478 such written confirmation after the expiration of the 45-day period, the landlord shall refund any remaining 479 balance of the security deposit held to the tenant within 10 days following the receipt of such written 480 confirmation provided by the tenant. If the landlord otherwise receives confirmation of payment of the final 481 water, sewer, or other utility bill for the dwelling unit, the landlord shall refund the security deposit, unless 482 there are other authorized deductions, within the 45-day period.

483 ~~D. E.~~ Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the landlord from making the disposition of the 484 security deposit prior to the 45-day period required by subsection A and charging an administrative fee to the 485 tenant for such expedited processing, if the rental agreement so provides and the tenant requests expedited 486 processing in a separate written document.

487 ~~E.~~ F. The landlord shall notify the tenant in writing of any deductions provided by this section to be made 488 from the tenant's security deposit during the course of the tenancy. Such notification shall be made within ~~30~~ 489 15 days of the date of the determination of the deduction and shall itemize the reasons in the same manner as 490 provided in subsection F. No such notification shall be required for deductions made less than ~~30~~ 15 days 491 prior to the termination of the rental agreement. If the landlord willfully fails to comply with this section, the 492 court shall order the return of the security deposit to the tenant, together with actual damages and reasonable 493 attorney fees, unless the tenant owes rent to the landlord, in which case the court shall order an amount equal 494 to the security deposit credited against the rent due to the landlord. In the event that damages to the premises 495 exceed the amount of the security deposit and require the services of a third-party contractor, the landlord 496 shall give written notice to the tenant advising him of that fact within the 45-day period required by 497 subsection A. If notice is given as prescribed in this subsection, the landlord shall have an additional ~~15-day~~
498 10-day period to provide an itemization of the damages and the cost of repair. This section shall not preclude 499 the landlord or tenant from recovering other damages to which he may be entitled under this chapter. The 500 holder of the landlord's interest in the premises at the time of the termination of the tenancy, regardless of 501 how the interest is acquired or transferred, is bound by this section and shall be required to return any security 502 deposit received by the original landlord that is duly owed to the tenant, whether or not such security deposit 503 is transferred with the landlord's interest by law or equity, regardless of any contractual agreements between 504 the original landlord and his successors in interest.

505 ~~F.~~ G. The landlord shall:

506 1. Maintain and itemize records for each tenant of all deductions from security deposits provided for 507 under this section that the landlord has made by reason of a tenant's noncompliance with § 55.1-1227, or for 508 any other reason set out in this section, during the preceding two years; and 509 2. Permit a tenant or his authorized agent or attorney to inspect such tenant's records of deductions at any 510 time during normal business hours.

511 ~~G.~~ H. Upon request by the landlord to a tenant to vacate, or within five days after receipt of notice by the 512 landlord of the tenant's intent to vacate, the landlord shall provide written notice to the tenant of the tenant's 513 right to be present at the landlord's inspection of the dwelling unit for the purpose of determining the amount 514 of security deposit to be returned. If the tenant desires to be present when the landlord makes the inspection,

515 he shall, in writing, so advise the landlord, who in turn shall notify the tenant of the date and time of the 516 inspection, which must be made within 72 hours of delivery of possession. Following the move-out 517 inspection, the landlord shall provide the tenant with a written security deposit disposition statement, 518 including an itemized list of damages. If additional damages are discovered by the landlord after the security 519 deposit disposition has been made, nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the landlord from 520 recovery of such damages against the tenant, provided, however, that the tenant may present into evidence a 521 copy of the move-out report to support the tenant's position that such additional damages did not exist at the 522 time of the move-out inspection.

523 ~~H. I.~~ If the tenant has any assignee or sublessee, the landlord shall be entitled to hold a security deposit 524 from only one party in compliance with the provisions of this section.

525 ~~F. J.~~ The landlord may permit a tenant to provide damage insurance coverage in lieu of the payment of a 526 security deposit. Such damage insurance in lieu of a security deposit shall conform to the following criteria:

527 1. The provider of damage insurance is licensed or approved by the Virginia State Corporation 528 Commission;

529 2. The coverage is effective upon the payment of the first premium and remains effective for the entire 530 lease term;

531 3. The coverage provided per claim is no less than the amount the landlord requires for security deposits;

532 4. The provider of damage insurance agrees to approve or deny payment of a claim; and

533 5. The provider of damage insurance shall notify the landlord within 10 days if the damage policy lapses 534 or is canceled.

535 ~~F. K.~~ A tenant who initially opts to provide damage insurance in lieu of a security deposit may, at any time 536 without consent of the landlord, opt to pay the full security deposit to the landlord in lieu of maintaining a 537 damage insurance policy. The landlord shall not alter the terms of the lease in the event a tenant opts to pay 538 the full amount of the security deposit pursuant to this subsection.

539 § 55.1-1311. Other provisions of law applicable.

540 Section 55.1-1202, subsection A of § 55.1-1204, and §§ 55.1-1203, 55.1-1207, 55.1-1208, 55.1-1216, 541 55.1-1224, 55.1-1226, 55.1-1228, 55.1-1234 through 55.1-1252, and 55.1-1259 shall, insofar as they are not 542 inconsistent with this chapter, apply, mutatis mutandis, to the rental and occupancy of a manufactured home 543 lot, including termination of a lot lease if a tenant commits a remediable breach and, after remedying such 544 breach, intentionally commits a subsequent breach of a like nature, during the same lease term.

545 2. That nothing in this act shall invalidate, alter, or otherwise affect any rental agreements entered into 546 or renewed prior to July 1, 2026.
