HOUSE BILL NO. 944

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE
(Proposed by the House Committee on Labor and Commerce on February 12, 2026)

(Patron Prior to Substitute—Delegate Clark)

A BILL to amend and reenact § 40.1-27.3 of the Code of Virginia and to amend the Code of Virginia by adding in Article 5 of Chapter 3 of Title 40.1 a section numbered 40.1-51.4:6, relating to workplace violence policy required for certain employers; civil penalty.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 40.1-27.3 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Article 5 of Chapter 3 of Title 40.1 a section numbered 40.1-51.4:6 as follows:

§ 40.1-27.3. Retaliatory action against employee prohibited.

A. An employer shall not discharge, discipline, threaten, discriminate against, or penalize an employee, or take other retaliatory action regarding an employee's compensation, terms, conditions, location, or privileges of employment, because the employee:

1. Or a person acting on behalf of the employee in good faith reports a violation of any federal or state law or regulation to a supervisor or to any governmental body or law-enforcement official;

2. Is requested by a governmental body or law-enforcement official to participate in an investigation, hearing, or inquiry;

3. Refuses to engage in a criminal act that would subject the employee to criminal liability;

4. Refuses an employer's order to perform an action that violates any federal or state law or regulation and the employee informs the employer that the order is being refused for that reason; ~~or~~

5. Provides information to or testifies before any governmental body or law-enforcement official conducting an investigation, hearing, or inquiry into any alleged violation by the employer of federal or state law or regulation; or

6. Reports an incident of workplace violence under a policy developed pursuant to § 40.1-51.4:6 or otherwise.

B. This section does not:

1. Authorize an employee to make a disclosure of data otherwise protected by law or any legal privilege;

2. Permit an employee to make statements or disclosures knowing that they are false or that they are in reckless disregard of the truth; or

3. Permit disclosures that would violate federal or state law or diminish or impair the rights of any person to the continued protection of confidentiality of communications provided by common law.

C. A person who alleges a violation of this section may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction within one year of the employer's prohibited retaliatory action. The court may order as a remedy to the employee (i) an injunction to restrain continued violation of this section, (ii) the reinstatement of the employee to the same position held before the retaliatory action or to an equivalent position, and (iii) compensation for lost wages, benefits, and other remuneration, together with interest thereon, as well as reasonable attorney fees and costs.

§ 40.1-51.4:6. Workplace violence; employer policy required; civil penalty.

A. For the purposes of this section:

"Employer" means an employer of 100 or more employees.

"Workplace violence" means any act of violence or threat of violence, without regard to intent, that occurs at an employer's workplace while an employee performs work duties. "Workplace violence" includes (i) the threat or use of physical force against an employee that directly results in physical injury or clinically diagnosed psychological trauma, acute stress disorder, or post-traumatic stress disorder, regardless of whether the employee sustains an injury; (ii) the use of weapons to threaten or harm others; and (iii) suicidal ideation or threats. "Workplace violence" does not include general workplace conflicts or disagreements, performance management discussions, or harassment complaints handled through separate processes.

B. Each employer shall develop, implement, and maintain an effective workplace violence policy that provides a mechanism for employees to report workplace violence and measures to protect employees from workplace violence based on the requirements of this section no later than January 1, 2027.

C. An employer's workplace violence policy shall be tailored and specific to conditions and hazards for the employer's workplace, including specific risk factors applicable to the type of workplace. Such policy shall be suitable for the size, complexity, and type of operations at the employer's workplace and shall remain in effect at all times. Such policy may be developed in consultation with stakeholders or experts who specialize in workplace violence prevention, emergency response, or other related areas of expertise for all relevant aspects of the policy.

D. Each workplace violence policy developed pursuant to this section shall include procedures and

60 methods for (i) identifying the individual or team responsible for implementation of the policy; (ii) reporting
61 instances, threats, concerns, risks, and hazards of workplace violence to the responsible individual or team;
62 (iii) incident response and post-incident investigation, including procedures for employers to respond to
63 reports of workplace violence; (iv) emergency response, including procedures for threats of incidents
64 involving a firearm or dangerous weapon; (v) communicating with and training employees on workplace
65 violence hazards and threats, work practice controls, the employer's policy, and procedures for deescalating
66 and reporting workplace violence threats, incidents, and concerns; (vi) assessing risks of workplace violence
67 and hazards to employees exposed to such risks and hazards; and (vii) hazard prevention, engineering
68 controls, or work practice controls to correct hazards in a timely manner. The employer training required by
69 this section may be integrated into existing employer safety training programs.

70 E. An employer shall document all reports of incidents of workplace violence, any incident response or 71 post-incident investigation undertaken following such a report, and any corrective measures taken for each
72 investigation conducted pursuant to the policy required by this section. Such documentation shall include, at
73 a minimum, a description of (i) the violent incident; (ii) the date, time, and location of the incident and the
74 names and job titles of involved employees; (iii) the nature and extent of injuries to covered employees; and
75 (iv) if applicable, how the incident was abated. If an employer learns of a workplace violence incident for
76 which a report has not been submitted, the employer shall document the incident no later than 15 days after
77 the employer learns of such incident.

78 Each employer shall maintain the documentation required by this subsection for not less than five years
79 and make such documentation available upon request to law enforcement.

80 F. An employer shall ensure that its policy for mitigating workplace violence developed pursuant to the 81 requirements of this section is made available at all times to its employees.

82 G. An employer shall provide information regarding its policy for mitigating workplace violence and 83 associated procedures and methods for submitting a report under such policy to each employee upon
84 commencement of employment as part of the employer's onboarding process. This information shall be
85 appropriate in content and vocabulary to the language, educational level, and literacy of the employee.

86 H. An employer that fails to comply with the requirements of this section and does not abate the violation
87 within 30 days of being provided notice by the Department shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than
88 $1,000 per violation and not more than $10,000 in any calendar year. Civil penalties under this subsection
89 shall be assessed by the Department and paid to the Literary Fund, provided that no civil penalty shall be
90 assessed under this subsection prior to July 1, 2027.

91 I. No employer shall discriminate or retaliate against any employee for (i) reporting a workplace violence
92 incident, threat, or concern to, or seeking assistance or intervention with respect to such incident, threat, or
93 concern from, the employer, law enforcement, local emergency services, or a local, state, or federal
94 government agency or (ii) exercising any other rights under this section.

95 J. The provisions of § 40.1-51.4:5 that provide immunity from all civil liability to any employee who
96 truthfully reports threatening conduct at the workplace shall apply to any employee who truthfully reports
97 workplace violence under a policy developed pursuant to this section.

98 K. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or prevent employees from reporting violent
99 incidents to appropriate law enforcement or to limit or diminish any other employee protections in local,
100 state, or federal law.

101 2. That the provisions of this act shall become effective on January 1, 2027.
