64 such contract is awarded shall certify, under oath, to the Commissioner of Labor and Industry the pay scale
65 for each craft or trade employed on the project to be used by such contractor and any of the contractor's 66 subcontractors for work to be performed under such public contract. This certification shall, for each craft or 67 trade employed on the project, specify the total hourly amount to be paid to employees, including wages and 68 applicable fringe benefits, provide an itemization of the amount paid in wages and each applicable benefit, 69 and list the names and addresses of any third party fund, plan or program to which benefit payments will be 70 made on behalf of employees.

71 H. Each employer subject to the provisions of this section shall keep, maintain, and preserve (i) records 72 relating to the wages paid to and hours worked by each individual performing the work of any mechanic, 73 laborer, or worker and (ii) a schedule of the occupation or work classification at which each individual 74 performing the work of any mechanic, laborer, or worker on the public works project is employed during 75 each work day and week. The employer shall preserve these records for a minimum of six years and make 76 such records available to the Department of Labor and Industry within 10 days of a request and shall certify

90 under subsection M of § 40.1-29.

91 § 11-4.6. Required contract provisions in construction contracts.

92 A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning:

93 "Construction contract" means a contract for the construction, alteration, repair, or maintenance of a 94 building, structure, or appurtenance thereto, including moving, demolition, and excavation connected 95 therewith, or any provision contained in any contract relating to the construction of projects other than 96 buildings, except for contracts awarded solely for professional services as that term is defined in § 2.2-4301.

97 "Contractor" or "general contractor" means the same as that term is defined in § 54.1-1100, except that 98 such term shall not include persons solely furnishing materials.

99 "Owner" means a person or entity, other than a public body as defined in § 2.2-4301, responsible for 100 contracting with a general contractor for the procurement of a construction contract.

101 "Subcontractor" means the same as that term is defined in § 2.2-4347.

102 B. 1. In any construction contract between an owner and a general contractor, the parties shall include a 103 provision that requires the owner to pay such general contractor within 60 days of the receipt of an invoice 104 following satisfactory completion of the portion of the work for which the general contractor has invoiced.
105 An owner shall not be liable for amounts otherwise reducible due to the general contractor's noncompliance
106 with the terms of the contract. However, in the event that an owner withholds all or a part of the amount 107 invoiced by the general contractor under the terms of the contract, the owner shall notify the general 108 contractor within 45 days of the receipt of such invoice, in writing, of his intention to withhold all or part of 109 the general contractor's payment with the reason for nonpayment, specifically identifying the contractual 110 noncompliance and the dollar amount being withheld. Failure of an owner to make timely payment as 111 provided in this subdivision shall result in interest penalties consistent with § 2.2-4355. Nothing in this 112 subdivision shall be construed to apply to or prohibit the inclusion of any retainage provisions in a 113 construction contract.

114 2. Any construction contract in which there is at least one general contractor and one subcontractor shall 115 be deemed to include a provision under which any general contractor is liable to any subcontractor with 116 whom the general contractor contracts for satisfactory performance of the subcontractor's duties under the 117 contract. Such contract shall require such general contractor to pay such subcontractor within the earlier of (i) 118 60 days of the receipt of an invoice following satisfactory completion of the portion of the work for which the 119 subcontractor has invoiced or (ii) seven days after receipt of amounts paid by the owner to the general 120 contractor or by the contractor to the subcontractor for work performed by a subcontractor pursuant to the 121 terms of the contract. Such contractors shall not be liable for amounts otherwise reducible due to the

122 subcontractor's noncompliance with the terms of the contract. However, in the event that a contractor 123 withholds all or a part of the amount invoiced by any subcontractor under the contract, the contractor shall 124 notify the subcontractor within 50 days of the receipt of such invoice, in writing, of his intention to withhold 125 all or a part of the subcontractor's payment with the reason for nonpayment, specifically identifying the 126 contractual noncompliance, the dollar amount being withheld, and the subcontractor responsible for the 127 contractual noncompliance. Payment by the party contracting with the contractor shall not be a condition 128 precedent to payment to any subcontractor, regardless of that contractor's receiving payment for amounts 129 owed to that contractor, unless the party contracting with the contractor is insolvent or a debtor in bankruptcy
 130 as defined in § 50-73.79. Any provision in a contract contrary to this section shall be unenforceable. Failure 131 of a contractor to make timely payment as provided in this subdivision shall result in interest penalties
 132 consistent with § 2.2-4355. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to apply to or prohibit the inclusion 133 of any retainage provisions in a construction contract. Every subcontract between a subcontractor and a 134 lower-tier subcontractor or supplier, of any tier, shall contain the identical payment, notice, and interest 135 requirements as those provided in this subdivision if (i) such construction contract is related to a project other 136 than a single-family residential project and (ii) the value of the project, or an aggregate of projects under such 137 construction contract, is greater than $500,000.

138 C. 1. Any construction contract between a general contractor and its subcontractor and any lower tier
 139 additional subcontract entered into on or after July 1, 2020 2026, shall be deemed to include a provision 140 under which the general contractor, its subcontractor, and the additional subcontractor at any lower tier are 141 jointly and severally liable to pay the employees of any additional subcontractor at any lower tier the greater 142 of (i) all wages due to a subcontractor's employees or to the lower tier subcontractor's employees at such rate 143 and upon such terms as shall be provided in the employment agreement between the subcontractor and its 144 employees or (ii) the amount of wages that the subcontractor or any lower tier subcontractor is required to 145 pay to its employees under the provisions of applicable law, including the provisions of §§ 40.1-28.7:7 and 146 40.1-29, the Virginia Minimum Wage Act (§ 40.1-28.8 et seq.), and the federal Fair Labor Standards Act (29 147 U.S.C. § 201 et seq.).

148 2. A general contractor shall be deemed to be the employer of any subcontractor's employees for purposes
 149 of § 40.1-29. If the wages due to the subcontractor's employees under the terms of the employment agreement 150 between a subcontractor and its employees are not paid, the general contractor shall be subject to all 151 penalties, criminal and civil, to which an employer that fails or refuses to pay wages is subject under 152 § 40.1-29. Any liability of a general contractor pursuant to § 40.1-29 shall be joint and several with the 153 subcontractor that failed or refused to pay the wages to its employees.

154 3. Except as otherwise provided in a contract between the general contractor and the subcontractor, the 155 subcontractor shall indemnify the general contractor for any wages, damages, interest, penalties, or attorney 156 fees owed as a result of the subcontractor's failure to pay wages to the subcontractor's employees as provided 157 in subdivision 1, unless the subcontractor's failure to pay the wages was due to the general contractor's failure 158 to pay moneys due to the subcontractor in accordance with the terms of their construction contract.

159 4. The provisions of this subsection shall only apply if ~~(i) it can be demonstrated that the general~~ 160 ~~contractor knew or should have known that the subcontractor was not paying his employees all wages due,~~ 161 ~~(ii) the construction contract is related to a project other than a single family residential project; and (iii) the~~ 162 ~~value of the project, or an aggregate of projects under one construction contract, is greater than $500,000. As~~ 163 ~~evidence a general contractor or any subcontractor may offer a written certification, under oath, from the~~ 164 ~~subcontractor in direct privity of contract with the general contractor or subcontractor stating that (a) the~~ 165 ~~subcontractor and each of his sub-subcontractors has paid all employees all wages due for the period during~~ 166 ~~which the wages are claimed for the work performed on the project and (b) to the subcontractor's knowledge~~
 167 ~~all sub-subcontractors below the subcontractor have similarly paid their employees all such wages. Any~~ 168 ~~person who falsely signs such certification shall be personally liable to the general contractor or subcontractor~~
 169 ~~for fraud and any damages the general contractor or subcontractor may incur.~~

170 § 40.1-28.7:7. Misclassification of workers.

171 A. An individual who has not been properly classified as an employee may bring a civil action for 172 damages against his employer for failing to properly classify the employee if the employer had knowledge of 173 the individual's misclassification. An individual's representative may bring the action on behalf of the 174 individual. If the court finds that the employer has not properly classified the individual as an employee, the 175 court may award the individual damages in the amount of any wages, salary, employment benefits, including 176 expenses incurred by the employee that would otherwise have been covered by insurance, or other 177 compensation lost to the individual, a reasonable attorney fee, and the costs incurred by the individual in 178 bringing the action. In addition, any employer that violates this section shall be liable to the aggrieved 179 individual for the applicable remedies, damages, or other relief available in an action brought pursuant to 180 subsection J of § 40.1-29. Any action brought pursuant to this subsection shall commence within three years 181 after the accrual of the cause of action.

182 B. In a proceeding under subsection A, an individual who performs services for a person for remuneration 183 shall be presumed to be an employee of the person that paid such remuneration, and the person that paid such

184 remuneration shall be presumed to be the employer of the individual who was paid for performing the 185 services, unless it is shown that the individual is an independent contractor as determined under the Internal 186 Revenue Service guidelines.

187 C. As used in this section, "Internal Revenue Service guidelines" means the most recent version of the 188 guidelines published by the Internal Revenue Service for evaluating independent contractor status, including 189 its interpretation of common law doctrine on independent contractors, and any regulations that the Internal 190 Revenue Service may promulgate regarding determining whether an employee is an independent contractor,

194 state of emergency has been declared pursuant to § 44-146.17 shall not be considered in any determination 195 regarding whether such individual is an employee or independent contractor. For the purposes of this 196 subsection, the terms "communicable disease of public health threat," "disaster," and "state of emergency" 197 have the same meaning as provided in § 44-146.16.

198 E. For the purposes of this section, "employer" includes any person or group of persons acting directly or 199 indirectly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employee.

200 § 40.1-28.12. Employee's remedies.

201 Any employer who violates any of the minimum wage requirements of this ~~law article~~ shall be liable to 202 the employee or employees affected ~~in the amount of the unpaid minimum wages, plus interest at eight per~~ 203 ~~centum per annum upon such unpaid wages as may be due the plaintiff, said interest to be awarded from the~~ 204 ~~date or dates said wages were due the employee or employees. The court may, in addition to any judgment~~ 205 ~~awarded to the employee or employees, require defendant to pay reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the~~ 206 ~~employee or employees for the applicable remedies, damages, or other relief available in an action brought~~ 207 ~~pursuant to subsection J of § 40.1-29.~~

208 § 40.1-29. Time and medium of payment; withholding wages; written statement of earnings;
209 agreement for forfeiture of wages; proceedings to enforce compliance; penalties.

224 is able to withdraw or transfer funds with full written disclosure by the employer of any applicable fees and 225 affirmative consent thereto by the employee. However, an employer that elects not to pay wages ~~or salaries~~ in 226 accordance with clause (i) or (ii) to an employee who is hired after January 1, 2010, shall be permitted to pay 227 wages ~~or salaries~~ by credit to a prepaid debit card or card account in accordance with clause (iv), even though 228 such employee has not affirmatively consented thereto, if the employee fails to designate an account at a 229 financial institution in accordance with clause (iii) and the employer arranges for such card or card account to 230 be issued through a network system through which the employee shall have the ability to make at least one 231 free withdrawal or transfer per pay period, which withdrawal may be for any sum in such card or card 232 account as the employee may elect, using such card or card account at financial institutions participating in 233 such network system.
