

1 VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY — CHAPTER

2 An Act to amend and reenact §§ 17.1-405 and 59.1-204 of the Code of Virginia and to amend the Code of
 3 Virginia by adding in Title 8.01 a chapter numbered 5.2, consisting of sections numbered 8.01-267.10
 4 through 8.01-267.16, relating to civil actions filed on behalf of multiple persons; class actions; violations
 5 of Virginia Consumer Protection Act; award of damages.

6 [H 449]

7 Approved

8 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

9 1. That §§ 17.1-405 and 59.1-204 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted and that the Code
 10 of Virginia is amended by adding in Title 8.01 a chapter numbered 5.2, consisting of sections numbered 11 8.01-267.10 through 8.01-267.16, as follows:

12 CHAPTER 5.2.

14 § 8.01-267.10. Requirements for certification; types of class actions.

15 A. One or more members of a class may, as representative parties on behalf of all members, bring a civil 16 action or may be proceeded against in a civil action, provided that:

17 1. The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;

18 2. There are questions of law or fact common to the class;

19 3. The claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class;
 20 and

21 4. The representative parties shall fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

22 B. An action may be certified as a class action if all the requirements of subsection A are satisfied and if:

23 1. Prosecuting separate actions by or against individual class members would create a risk of (i)
 24 inconsistent or varying adjudications of individual class members that would establish incompatible
 25 standards of conduct for the opposing party or (ii) adjudications of individual class members that, as a 26 practical matter, would be dispositive of the interests of the other members that are not parties to the 27 individual adjudications or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests;

28 2. The party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds that apply generally to the class, so
 29 that the final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief is appropriate to the class as a whole; or

30 3. The court finds that the questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any 31 questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods
 32 for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy. In making this finding, the court may consider (i) the 33 class members' interests in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions, (ii) the 34 extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already begun by or against class members,
 35 (iii) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in a particular forum, (iv)
 36 the likely difficulties in managing a class action, and (v) the practical ability of individual class members to 37 pursue their claims without certification.

38 § 8.01-267.11. Certification order; notice to class members; judgment.

39 A. A class action shall be certified by order only if the requirements described in § 8.01-267.10 are met.
 40 Such order shall define the class and class claims being certified, identify the representative party or parties,
 41 and appoint class counsel pursuant to the criteria set forth in § 8.01-267.12. The court shall determine as 42 early as is practicable after a person brings an action or an action is brought against a person as a class
 43 representative whether to certify the action as a class action. Any order that grants or denies class
 44 certification may be amended or altered prior to final judgment.

45 B. For any class certified pursuant to subdivision B 1 or 2 of § 8.01-267.10, the court may direct 46 appropriate notice to such class. For any class certified pursuant to subdivision B 3 of § 8.01-267.10, or 47 upon ordering notice pursuant to § 8.01-267.13 to a class proposed to be certified for the purposes of 48 settlement in accordance with subdivision B 3 of § 8.01-267.10, the court shall direct to class members notice
 49 as is reasonable under the circumstances, including sending individual notice to all members that can be
 50 identified through reasonable effort. The notice may be sent through the United States Postal Service,
 51 electronic means, or any other appropriate means. The notice shall state clearly and concisely in plain, easily
 52 understood language (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the class certified; (iii) the class claims,
 53 issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney; (v) that the court
 54 shall exclude from the class any member that requests exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting
 55 such exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a class judgment on members in accordance with subsection C.

56 C. Whether or not favorable to the class, the judgment in a class action shall, for any class certified

57 pursuant to subdivision B 1 or 2 of § 8.01-267.10, include and describe those that the court determines to be
 58 class members, and, for any class certified pursuant to subdivision B 3 of § 8.01-267.10, include and specify
 59 or describe those to which notice pursuant to this section was directed, that have not requested exclusion, 60 and that the court finds to be class members.

61 D. In certain cases, an action may be brought or maintained as a class action for particular issues.

62 E. When appropriate, a class may be divided into subclasses that are each treated as a class pursuant to 63 this chapter.

64 § 8.01-267.12. Class counsel; duties; order of appointment.

65 A. Unless otherwise provided by law, a court that certifies a class shall appoint at least one discreet and 66 competent attorney-at-law as class counsel. In making such appointment, the court shall consider (i) the work
 67 such attorney has done in identifying or investigating potential claims in the action; (ii) such attorney's 68 experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of claims asserted in the action;
 69 (iii) such attorney's knowledge of the applicable law; and (iv) the resources such attorney shall commit to 70 representing the class. The court may also consider any other matter pertinent to such attorney's ability to 71 fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class.

72 B. The court may order potential class counsel to provide information on any subject pertinent to such 73 appointment and to propose terms for attorney fees and costs and may include provisions about such attorney
 74 fees and costs in the order of appointment. The court may make any further necessary orders in connection 75 with such appointment.

76 C. When any attorney seeks appointment as class counsel, the court shall only appoint such attorney if he 77 adequately meets the considerations pursuant to this section. If more than one applicant seeks appointment, 78 the court shall appoint the applicant or applicants it deems best able to represent the interests of the class.

79 D. The court may designate interim counsel to act on behalf of a putative class at any time prior to 80 determining whether to certify the action as a class action.

81 E. Class counsel appointed pursuant to this section shall have a duty to fairly and adequately represent 82 the interests of the class.

83 § 8.01-267.13. Conducting a class action.

84 A. In conducting a class action pursuant to this chapter, the court may issue orders that:

85 1. Determine the course of proceedings or prescribe measures to prevent undue repetition or 86 complication in presenting evidence or argument;

87 2. Require, for the purpose of protecting class members and conducting the action fairly, giving 88 appropriate notice to some or all class members about (i) any step in the action; (ii) the proposed extent of 89 the judgment; or (iii) the members' opportunity to signify whether they consider the representation fair and 90 adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or to otherwise join the action;

91 3. Impose conditions on the representative or intervening parties;

92 4. Require that the pleadings be amended to eliminate allegation about representation of absent persons 93 and that the action proceed accordingly; or

94 5. Deal with similar procedural matters.

95 B. An order issued pursuant to this section may be altered or amended under limited circumstances and 96 may be combined with an order for a pretrial conference.

97 C. A claim for attorney fees and costs shall be made by motion, and, upon such motion, the court may
 98 award reasonable attorney fees and costs as authorized by law or by agreement of the parties. A class
 99 member or party from whom payment is sought may object to such motion for attorney fees and costs. The 100 court may award attorney fees as a percentage of the common fund, if applicable.

101 § 8.01-267.14. Settlement, voluntary dismissal, or compromise; court approval required.

102 A. The claims, issues, or defenses of a certified class or a class proposed to be certified for purposes of 103 settlement may be settled, voluntarily dismissed, or compromised only with the approval of the court.

104 B. Notice of the proposed dismissal of an action previously certified as a class action shall be provided to 105 all members of the class. Notice shall be given in such a reasonable manner as the court directs. The court 106 may order such dismissal without notice if such dismissal is to be without prejudice to the class or with 107 prejudice to the plaintiff only. Such notice may be given by any appropriate means as approved by the court, 108 including through first-class mail, email, or publication.

109 C. The parties seeking approval shall file a statement identifying any agreement made in connection with 110 such proposed settlement, voluntary dismissal, or compromise. If the proposed settlement, voluntary 111 dismissal, or compromise would bind class members, the court may approve such proposal only upon a
 112 hearing and a finding that such proposal is fair, reasonable, and adequate. In making such finding, the court 113 shall consider whether:

114 1. The class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the class;

115 2. The proposal was negotiated at arm's length;

116 3. The relief provided for the class is adequate, including the costs, risks, and delay of a trial and appeal,
 117 the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, the agreement identified by the 118 parties seeking approval required by this subsection, and the terms of any proposed award of attorney fees;

119 and

120 4. The proposal treats the class members equitably relative to each other.

121 D. If the class action was previously certified pursuant to subdivision B 3 of § 8.01-267.10, the court may 122 refuse to approve a settlement unless such settlement affords a new opportunity for an individual class
123 member to request exclusion if such individual class member had an earlier opportunity to request exclusion
124 but did not do so.

125 E. In addition to the procedures enumerated in subsection C, a class member may object to the proposed 126 settlement, voluntary dismissal, or compromise if such proposal requires court approval. Such class member 127 shall state whether such objection applies only to the objector, to a specific subset of the class, or to the 128 entire class, and shall state specifically the grounds for such objection. Unless such proposal is approved 129 after a hearing, no payment or other consideration shall be provided for forgoing or withdrawing such 130 objection or forgoing, dismissing, or abandoning an appeal from a judgment approving such proposal.

131 F. Any order approving a settlement pursuant to this section that establishes a process for compensating 132 class members shall provide for the disbursement of residual funds, if any.

133 § 8.01-267.15. Venue and transfer.

134 A. For the purposes of this chapter, venue shall be proper in accordance to the provisions of Chapter 5
135 (§ 8.01-257 et seq.).

136 B. When two or more separate civil actions requesting certification of a class pursuant to this chapter 137 involve common questions of law or fact arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of 138 transactions or occurrences and such classes, if certified, would encompass one or more of the same 139 plaintiffs suing in the same capacities, any party may apply to a panel of circuit court judges designated by 140 the Supreme Court of Virginia for an order of transfer. Such panel of judges shall consider (i) the nature of 141 common questions of law or fact; (ii) the convenience of the parties, witnesses, and counsel; (iii) the efficient
142 use of judicial facilities and personnel; (iv) the calendar of the courts; and (v) any other relevant factors.

143 § 8.01-267.16. Interlocutory appeal.

144 A. The Court of Appeals may permit an appeal to be taken from an order certifying or declining to certify 145 a class pursuant to § 8.01-267.11.

146 B. The Court of Appeals may allow an appeal to be taken from any other order of the circuit court in an 147 action pursuant to this chapter although the order is not a final order, provided that the written order of the 148 circuit court states that the order involves a controlling question of law as to which there is substantial 149 ground for difference of opinion and that an immediate appeal from such order may materially advance the 150 ultimate termination of the litigation.

151 C. Application for an appeal pursuant to this section shall be made within 10 days after the entry of the 152 order and shall not stay proceedings in the circuit court unless the circuit court or the appellate court shall 153 so order.

154 § 17.1-405. Appellate jurisdiction — Administrative agency, Virginia Workers' Compensation
155 Commission, and civil matter appeals.

156 A. Unless otherwise provided by law, any aggrieved party may appeal to the Court of Appeals from:

157 1. Any final decision of a circuit court on appeal from (i) a decision of an administrative agency, or (ii) a 158 grievance hearing decision issued pursuant to § 2.2-3005;

159 2. Any final decision of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission;

160 3. Except as provided in subsection B of § 17.1-406, any final judgment, order, or decree of a circuit court
161 in a civil matter;

162 4. Any interlocutory decree or order pursuant to § 8.01-267.8, 8.01-267.16, or 8.01-675.5;

163 5. Except as provided in subsection B, any interlocutory decree or order involving an equitable claim in 164 which the decree or order (i) requires money to be paid or the possession or title of property to be changed or 165 (ii) adjudicates the principles of a cause; or

166 6. Any final judgment, order, or decree of a circuit court (i) involving an application for a concealed 167 weapons permit pursuant to Article 6.1 (§ 18.2-307.1 et seq.) of Chapter 7 of Title 18.2, (ii) involving 168 involuntary treatment of prisoners pursuant to § 53.1-40.1 or 53.1-133.04, or (iii) for declaratory or injunctive
169 relief under § 57-2.02.

170 B. Except as provided in § 8.01-675.5, no interlocutory decree or order shall be appealed if such decree or 171 order involves:

172 1. Affirmance or annulment of a marriage;

173 2. Divorce;

174 3. Custody of a minor child;

175 4. Spousal or child support;

176 5. Control or disposition of a minor child;

177 6. Any other domestic relations matter arising under Title 16.1 or 20; or 178 7. Any protective order other than a final protective order issued by a circuit court.

179 § 59.1-204. Individual action or class action for damages or penalty.

180 A. Any person who suffers loss as the result of a violation of this chapter shall be entitled to initiate an

181 action to recover actual damages, or $500 per violation, whichever is greater. If the trier of fact finds that the 182 violation was willful, it may increase damages to an amount not exceeding three times the actual damages
183 sustained, or $1,000 per violation, whichever is greater. Any person who accepts a cure offer under this 184 chapter may not initiate or maintain any other or additional action based on any cause of action arising under 185 any other statute or common law theory if such other action is substantially based on the same allegations of 186 fact on which the action initiated under this chapter is based.

187 B. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in addition to any damages awarded, such 188 person also may be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs.

189 C. No cure offer shall be admissible in any proceeding initiated under this section, unless the cure offer is 190 delivered by a supplier to the person claiming loss or to any attorney representing such person, prior to the 191 filing of the supplier's initial responsive pleading in such proceeding. If the cure offer is timely delivered by 192 the supplier, then the supplier may introduce the cure offer into evidence at trial. The supplier shall not be 193 liable for such person's attorneys' fees and court costs incurred following delivery of the cure offer unless the 194 actual damages found to have been sustained and awarded, without consideration of attorneys' fees and court
195 costs, exceed the value of the cure offer.

196 D. In any action in which the parties desire to settle all matters in dispute, the question of whether the 197 plaintiff shall be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs in accordance with subsections B and C
198 may be tendered to the court for consideration of the amount of such an award, if any.

199 E. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require proof that the person relied upon a prohibited
200 practice or representation to establish that such person or class member has suffered a loss as a violation of 201 the provisions of this chapter.

202 F. To the extent practicable, the provisions of this section shall also apply in a class action pursuant to 203 Chapter 5.2 (§ 8.01-267.10 et seq.) of Title 8.01 where the class claims allege a loss suffered by class
204 members for violations of this chapter.

205 2. That the provisions of this act are procedural in nature and shall become effective on January 1,
206 2027. Any conduct occurring prior to January 1, 2027, may be filed as a class action after January 1, 207 2027, provided that such conduct is otherwise actionable pursuant to relevant law.

208 3. That the provisions of subsection A of § 59.1-204, as amended by this act, are declarative of existing 209 law.

210 4. That the provisions of subsection E of § 59.1-204, as amended by this act, shall only apply to actions
211 filed on or after January 1, 2027, and are intended to reverse the holding in *Owens v. DRS Auto.
212 Fantomworks, Inc.*, 288 Va. 489 (2014).
