SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 151

Celebrating the life of Charles Harry Carrico, Jr.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 5, 2026
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 9, 2026

WHEREAS, Charles Harry Carrico, Jr., an active member of the Smyth County community who was well known for his craftsmanship as a drywall contractor, died on October 26, 2025; and

WHEREAS, Charles “June” Carrico grew up in Chilhowie and was the eldest of eight children born to Jake and Mary Carrico; he was a caring and attentive big brother, who proudly supported his siblings in all their endeavors; and

WHEREAS, June Carrico made his career as a drywaller, and provided his services to numerous homeowners, businesses, and churches in the region; he often worked with his brothers, David and Calvin, and relished opportunities to bring his nephews and grandchildren to jobs; and

WHEREAS, June Carrico took pride in his work and was highly admired for his skill and attention to detail; his signature radiating plaster design adorns many homes in Southwest Virginia and is instantly recognizable to anyone who worked with him over the years; and

WHEREAS, June Carrico expressed his deep and abiding faith through his compassion and generosity; he was a member of several church communities and held leadership positions as a church elder and mentor; and

WHEREAS, June Carrico's greatest joy in life was his family, and he was ever ready to guide his children and grandchildren through any challenge with a calming word and a gentle hand, imparting to them in the process his determination, confidence, and quiet strength; and

WHEREAS, June Carrico will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his beloved wife of 68 years, Alda; his children, Mary, Bill, Danny, and Pam, and their families; and numerous other family members and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of Charles Harry Carrico, Jr., a respected member of the Smyth County community; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Charles Harry Carrico, Jr., as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.
