7 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

8 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Title 32.1 a chapter numbered 21, consisting of 9 sections numbered 32.1-376, 32.1-377, and 32.1-378, as follows:

10 CHAPTER 21.
 11 CONTRACEPTION.

12 § 32.1-376. Right to contraception.13 *A. For the purposes of this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:*14 "Contraception" means the use of contraceptives or sterilization procedures.

15 "Contraceptive" means any drug, device, or biological product intended for use in the prevention of 16 pregnancy, whether specifically intended to prevent pregnancy or for other health needs, that is legally
 17 marketed under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. § 301 et seq.), including oral
 18 contraceptives, long-acting reversible contraceptives such as intrauterine devices and hormonal
 19 contraceptive implants, emergency contraceptives, internal and external condoms, injectables, vaginal
 20 barrier methods, transdermal patches, and vaginal rings.

21 "Health care provider" means the same as that term is defined in § 8.01-581.1.

22 B. A person shall have the right to obtain contraceptives and to engage in contraception. A health care
 23 provider shall have the right to provide contraceptives and contraception-related information to the extent
 24 the provider is properly licensed and acting within the scope of the provider's professional practice.

25 C. The rights specified in subsection B shall not be infringed upon by any law, regulation, or policy that
 26 expressly or effectively limits, delays, or impedes access to contraceptives or information related to
 27 contraception.

28 D. To defend against a claim that a law, regulation, or policy violates a health care provider's or patient's
 29 statutory rights under subsection B, a party must establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

30 1. The law, regulation, or policy significantly advances the safety of contraceptives, contraception, and
 31 contraception-related information, and the safety of contraceptives, contraception, and contraception-related
 32 information or the health of patients cannot be advanced by a less restrictive alternative measure or action;
 33 or

34 2. The law, regulation, or policy that is being applied to contraception is also being applied to other 35 medically similar drugs, devices, or biological products.

36 E. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to permit or sanction the performance of any sterilization
 37 procedure without the patient's voluntary and informed consent.

38 § 32.1-377. Applicability.

39 A. Neither the Commonwealth nor any locality may administer, implement, or enforce any law, rule,
 40 regulation, standard, or other provision having the force and effect of law in a manner that:

41 1. Prohibits or restricts the sale, provision, or use of any contraceptives.

42 2. Prohibits or restricts any person from aiding another person in obtaining any contraceptives or 43 utilizing any contraceptive methods.

44 3. Exempts any contraceptives approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration from any other
 45 generally applicable law in a way that would make it more difficult to sell, provide, obtain, or use such 46 contraceptives or contraceptive methods.

47 B. An individual or entity that is subject to a law, regulation, or policy that violates this chapter may raise
 48 this section as a defense to any cause of action against the individual or entity.

49 § 32.1-378. Enforcement.

50 A. The Attorney General may commence a civil action on behalf of the Commonwealth against any person
 51 that violates or enforces a law, regulation, or policy that violates the provisions of this chapter.

52 B. Any individual or entity adversely affected by an alleged violation of this chapter may commence a civil 53 action against any person that violates, implements, or enforces a law, regulation, or policy in violation of 54 this chapter.

55 C. A health care provider may commence an action for relief on the provider's own behalf, on behalf of 56 the provider's staff, and on behalf of the provider's patients who are or may be adversely affected by an

57 alleged violation of this chapter.

58 D. If a court finds that there has been a violation of this chapter, the court shall hold unlawful and set
59 aside the law, regulation, or policy. In any action under this chapter, the court may award appropriate
60 equitable relief, including temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunctive relief.
