

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 135

Commending Joseph P. Casey, Ph.D.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 3, 2026
Agreed to by the Senate, March 5, 2026

WHEREAS, Joseph P. Casey, Ph.D., an esteemed public administrator who has greatly served Chesterfield County as its county administrator for the past decade, will retire on July 1, 2026; and

WHEREAS, Joseph "Joe" P. Casey, Ph.D., earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Richmond and worked briefly as an accountant with KPMG before embarking on his career in local government as a deputy county administrator with Hanover County; and

WHEREAS, Joe Casey earned both a master's degree in public finance and a doctoral degree in public policy from Virginia Commonwealth University and served for three years as deputy county manager of Henrico County before he was appointed county administrator of Chesterfield County in July 2016; and

WHEREAS, as county administrator, Joe Casey oversaw a staff of more than 4,000 full-time employees and an operating budget of $2.4 billion to implement an array of programs and services benefitting the citizens of Chesterfield County; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure, Joe Casey bolstered Chesterfield County's long-term fiscal standing by attracting a number of world-class businesses to the locality, generating $12 billion in capital investment and the creation of 10,200 new jobs, which helped the locality become the first in the Commonwealth to achieve a Quad-AAA bond rating; and

WHEREAS, Joe Casey advanced a number of infrastructure projects improving transportation and utility services in the region, while managing the construction of 13 new schools and three new fire stations, enhancements at local libraries, parks, and recreational facilities, and the adoption of a new zoning ordinance; and

WHEREAS, Joe Casey fostered productive relationships with the local business community, institutions of higher education, and nonprofit organizations to strengthen the Chesterfield County government's ability to make a positive impact in the lives of the county's residents; and

WHEREAS, Joe Casey guided the restructuring of departments within the Chesterfield County government to prepare the locality for the challenges of today and shepherded the rollout of a new pay plan for teachers, law-enforcement officers, firefighters, and other county employees to ensure the locality's competitiveness in the local job market; and

WHEREAS, with extraordinary integrity, compassion, and dedication to the well-being of the community he served, Joe Casey helped Chesterfield County reach new levels of excellence during his tenure, earning the praise and esteem of all Virginians; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Joseph P. Casey, Ph.D., county administrator of Chesterfield County, on the occasion of his retirement; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Joseph P. Casey, Ph.D., as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for his contributions to Chesterfield County and the Commonwealth.
