

VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY - 2026 SESSION

CHAPTER 395

An Act to amend the Code of Virginia by adding in Title 8.01 a chapter numbered 17.4, consisting of sections numbered 8.01-465.26 through 8.01-465.34, relating to Uniform Consumer Debt Default Judgments Act established.

[H 444]

Approved April 8, 2026

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Title 8.01 a chapter numbered 17.4, consisting of sections numbered 8.01-465.26 through 8.01-465.34, as follows:

CHAPTER 17.4.

UNIFORM CONSUMER DEBT DEFAULT JUDGMENTS ACT.

§ 8.01-465.26. Definitions.

For purposes of this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Charge off" means a creditor's removal of a consumer debt as an asset from the creditor's financial records.

"Complaint" means a warrant in debt or civil claim filed to recover a consumer debt according to the jurisdictional amount.

"Consumer" means an individual named as a defendant in an action for collection of consumer debt.

"Consumer debt" means an obligation or alleged obligation of an individual to pay money that arises out of a transaction in which the money, property, insurance, or service that is the subject of the transaction is primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose.

"Creditor" means a person to which a consumer debt is owed at the time of the charge off or, if the consumer debt was not charged off, at the time of default. "Creditor" includes a person that acquired charged-off debt as an incidental part of acquiring a portfolio of debt that is predominantly not charged off, provided that the acquirer is the person to whom the debt was owed at the time of charge off, or if the debt was not charged off, at the time of default.

"Default" means, except as used in the term default judgment, a failure to satisfy a consumer debt that gives rise to an action to which this chapter applies.

"Electronic" means relating to technology having electrical, digital, magnetic, wireless, optical, electromagnetic, or similar capabilities.

"Finance charge" means the same as that term is defined in § 106 of the Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1605.

"Outstanding balance" means the amount owed on a consumer debt (i) at the time of the charge off or, if the consumer debt was not charged off, at the time of default or (ii) after disposition of property that secured the debt.

"Person" means an individual, estate, business or nonprofit entity, government or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality or other legal entity.

"Record" means information (i) inscribed on a tangible medium or (ii) stored in an electronic or other medium and retrievable in perceivable form.

"Secured consumer debt" means consumer debt secured by real or personal property.

"Sign" means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record, to (i) execute or adopt a tangible symbol or (ii) attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic symbol, sound, or process.

"Unsecured consumer debt" means a consumer debt not secured by real or personal property.

§ 8.01-465.27. Scope.

A. Except as provided in subsection B, this chapter shall apply to the award of a default judgment in an action for the collection of (i) an unsecured consumer debt; (ii) a secured consumer debt if the action is brought solely to obtain a money judgment; or (iii) a deficiency that remains after disposition of property that secured a consumer debt.

B. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to an action to (i) take possession or dispose of real or personal property, even if such action includes a request for a money judgment or (ii) collect a debt owed to a government, governmental subdivision, or agency in which the government, governmental subdivision, or agency is the plaintiff.

§ 8.01-465.28. Complaint requirements.

A. A default judgment in an action to which this chapter applies shall be entered only if the complaint or amended complaint complies with the provisions of this section and includes the notice required pursuant to § 8.01-465.29.

B. The complaint or amended complaint shall state:

1. Each name and address of the consumer in the records of the creditor at the time of charge off or, if the consumer debt was not charged off, at the time of default;
2. The name of the creditor, including any merchant brand, affinity brand, or facility name associated with the consumer debt;
3. At least the last four digits of the account number or other account identifier used in communicating with the consumer before charge off or, if the consumer debt was not charged off, before default;
4. The date and amount of the last payment;
5. The date of charge off or, if the consumer debt was not charged off, the date of default;
6. The amount of the outstanding balance;
7. The amount of the judgment sought by the plaintiff, itemizing the outstanding balance and any of the following amounts not included in the outstanding balance (i) total finance charges, (ii) total fees or costs, (iii) total attorney fees, and (iv) total credits and payments;
8. A statement as to whether the amount of the judgment may increase due to accrued interest, fees, or other charges;
9. The authority of the plaintiff to bring the action;
10. Facts sufficient to demonstrate that the action is being commenced in a proper venue;
11. Facts sufficient to demonstrate that the action is being commenced within the applicable statute of limitations; and
12. Unless the plaintiff is the creditor, (i) the name of each person that acquired ownership of the debt after charge off, or, if the consumer debt was not charged off, after default; and (ii) the date of each such acquisition of the consumer debt.

C. Subject to authentication as may be required by law or the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, the plaintiff shall attach to the complaint or amended complaint a copy of:

1. At least one of the following that is sufficient to demonstrate the existence of the consumer debt:
  - a. An agreement signed by the consumer;
  - b. A record of a purchase, payment, or use of an account; or
  - c. A record otherwise demonstrating that the consumer debt was incurred; and
2. If the plaintiff is not the creditor, documentation sufficient to demonstrate the authority of the plaintiff to collect the consumer debt.

§ 8.01-465.29. Consumer notice.

A. A default judgment in an action to which this chapter applies shall only be entered if the complaint or amended complaint is accompanied by a separate notice warning that a default judgment may be awarded against the consumer.

B. The notice shall be in a record substantially similar to the form set forth in subsection C and shall state:

1. That if the consumer does not file an answer to the complaint or amended complaint within the time and in the manner indicated in the summons or does not appear for the hearing referred to in the summons, a default judgment may be entered against the consumer;

2. That if such default judgment is entered against the consumer, the amount of the judgment, plus interest, remains in effect for at least 10 years, even if the judgment no longer remains on the consumer's credit report;

3. That after entry of a default judgment, the plaintiff may, as permitted by relevant provisions of law, take steps to recover such judgment by initiating an action for (i) the judicial sale of the consumer's real property; (ii) requesting that the court issue a writ of fieri facias or writ of possession for the seizure or sale, or both, of the personal property of the consumer; (iii) attachment of specific personal property; or (iv) garnishment;

4. That entry of a default judgment may impair access to employment, insurance, credit, or housing;

5. That an attorney may provide assistance in understanding the complaint or amended complaint and advice about what action to take in response to such complaint or amended complaint; and

6. Contact information for a legal aid or attorney referral service that may assist the consumer in finding an attorney who may provide free or reduced cost legal services.

C. The following notice meets the requirements of this section:

WARNING

IF YOU DO NOT ACT, A DEFAULT JUDGMENT MAY BE ENTERED AGAINST YOU

1. Why am I getting this Notice?

You are getting this notice because (name of plaintiff) says you owe money. (Name of plaintiff) has filed a lawsuit against you to collect the money you owe.

2. What will happen if I do nothing?

If you do not [ ] file a response to the lawsuit and/or [ ] appear at the hearing on the date and time indicated on the attached summons, a judgment may be entered against you.

3. What happens if a judgment is entered against me?

The law provides multiple methods for a creditor to recover money against you. Your property may be taken and sold, money may be taken directly from your bank account, your wages may be garnished, or a lien may be put on your house or other real estate or your real estate may be sold.

If the judgment is not paid in full, the amount due may grow because of interest charges.

You will owe the amount of the judgment for at least 10 years, even if it no longer appears on your credit report.

The judgment may make it harder for you to get a job or insurance and more expensive for you to get a loan or credit card, rent an apartment, or buy a house or car.

4. Is help available?

You may wish to speak with a lawyer. A lawyer may be able to explain the situation and help you decide what to do. The following office may be able to help you find a lawyer (name and contact information of legal aid or attorney referral service).

§ 8.01-465.30. Waiver void.

A waiver by a consumer of any requirement of this chapter shall be deemed void. However, the provisions of this section shall not prevent a voluntary settlement agreement or judgment between the parties that does not result in a default judgment.

§ 8.01-465.31. Relation to other law.

The provisions of this chapter supplement all rights and remedies available to a consumer under any other law of the Commonwealth.

§ 8.01-465.32. Uniformity of application and construction.

In applying and construing this uniform act, a court shall consider the promotion of uniformity of the law among jurisdictions that enact it.

§ 8.01-465.33. Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act.

This chapter modifies, limits, or supersedes the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001 et seq., but shall not modify, limit, or supersede 15 U.S.C. § 7001(c) or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in 15 U.S.C. § 7003(b).

§ 8.01-465.34. Severability.

If a provision of this chapter or its application to a person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect another provision or application that can be given effect without such invalid provision.

2. That the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall promulgate a form consistent with the notice statement described in § 8.01-465.29 of the Code of Virginia, as created by this act.

3. That the provisions of this act shall become effective on July 1, 2027.
