8 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

9 1. That § 46.2-390.1 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

10 § 46.2-390.1. Required revocation for conviction of drug offenses or deferral of proceedings.11 A. Except as otherwise ordered pursuant to § 18.2-259.1, and as provided in this section, the 12 Commissioner shall forthwith revoke, and not thereafter reissue for six months from the later of (i) the 13 date of conviction or deferral of proceedings under § 18.2-251, unless the deferral was for proceedings
14 for possession of marijuana pursuant to § 18.2-250.1, or (ii) the next date of eligibility to be licensed, 15 the driver's license, registration card, and license plates of any resident or nonresident on receiving 16 notification of (a) his conviction, (b) his having been found guilty in the case of a juvenile, or (c) the 17 deferral of further proceedings against him under § 18.2-251 for any violation of any provisions of 18 Article 1 (§ 18.2-247 et seq.) of Chapter 7 of Title 18.2, unless the proceedings were for possession of 19 marijuana pursuant to § 18.2-250.1, or of any state or federal law or valid county, city or town 20 ordinance, or a law of any other state substantially similar to provisions of such Virginia laws. Such 21 license revocation shall be in addition to and shall run consecutively with any other license suspension, 22 revocation or forfeiture in effect against such person.23 B. Any person whose license has been revoked pursuant to this section and § 18.2-259.1 shall be 24 subject to the provisions of §§ 46.2-370 and 46.2-414 and shall be required to pay a reinstatement fee as 25 provided in § 46.2-411 in order to have his license restored.26 C. Any person whose driver's license has been revoked pursuant to this section based upon a
27 conviction of a law of any other state substantially similar to the provisions of Article 1 (§ 18.2-247 et 28 seq.) of Chapter 7 of Title 18.2 may petition the general district court of the county or city where he 29 resides for a restricted license. In those cases where the court determines there are compelling 30 circumstances warranting an exception, the court may provide that any individual be issued a restricted
31 license to operate a motor vehicle for any of the purposes set forth in subsection E of § 18.2-271.1. No 32 restricted license issued pursuant to this subsection shall permit any person to operate a commercial 33 motor vehicle as defined in the Virginia Commercial Driver's License Act (§ 46.2-341.1 et seq.). The 34 court shall order the surrender of such person's license in accordance with the provisions of subsection
35 B and shall forward to the Commissioner of the Department of Motor Vehicles a copy of its order 36 entered pursuant to this subsection. This order shall specifically enumerate the restrictions imposed and 37 contain such information regarding the person to whom such restricted license is issued as is reasonably 38 necessary to identify such person. The court shall also provide a copy of its order to such person who 39 may operate a motor vehicle on the order until receipt from the Commissioner of the Department of 40 Motor Vehicles of a restricted license, but only if the order provides for a restricted license for that 41 period. A copy of the order and, after receipt thereof, the restricted license shall be carried at all times
42 by such person while operating a motor vehicle. The court may require a person issued a restricted 43 license under the provisions of this subsection to be monitored by an alcohol safety action program 44 during the period of license suspension. Any violation of the terms of the restricted license or of any 45 condition set forth by the court related thereto, or any failure to remain drug-free during such period 46 shall be reported forthwith to the court by such program. Any person who operates a motor vehicle in 47 violation of any restriction imposed pursuant to this section is guilty of a violation of § 46.2-301.
