HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 629

Offered May 13, 2024

Prefiled May 13, 2024

4 Commending Captain Thomas Theodore Scambos, USN, Ret.

5 Patron—McClure

6 WHEREAS, Captain Thomas Theodore Scambos, USN, Ret., a dedicated veteran who made 7 numerous contributions to naval aviation over the course of his distinguished career and a respected 8 entrepreneur in Northern Virginia, celebrated his 100th birthday in 2024; and

9 WHEREAS, born in New York City on March 15, 1924, Thomas "Tom" Theodore Scambos earned
10 a bachelor's degree in aeronautical engineering from New York University, then began his military 11 career as a member of the United States Navy Reserve in 1944; and

12 WHEREAS, at the dawn of the jet age, Tom Scambos served as a turbo-jet project engineer at Naval 13 Air Station Patuxent River, Maryland, and was one of the first three instructors at the United States
14 Naval Test Pilot School; and

15 WHEREAS, Tom Scambos transferred to active duty in the United States Navy in 1947, then 16 reported for flight training at Naval Air Station Pensacola, Florida, followed by additional training at 17 facilities in Corpus Christi, Texas; and

18 WHEREAS, Tom Scambos was designated as a naval aviator in July 1949 and was assigned to 19 Strike Fighter Squadron 31, from which he was detached to serve in the Department of the Navy's 20 Bureau of Aeronautics; and

21 WHEREAS, in the 1950s, Tom Scambos continued his education at the Harvard Business School, 22 where he earned a master of business administration degree and received the prestigious George F.
23 Baker Scholar award; he also completed industrial production training at Grumman Aircraft Engineering 24 Corporation; and

25 WHEREAS, Tom Scambos next reported to Naval Station Norfolk as a production engineering
26 officer and to what is now part of Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst, New Jersey, as a test coordinator;
27 he completed a series of consecutive assignments in 1960-1961 as a fleet replacement pilot with Strike
28 Fighter Squadron 125 and Fighter Squadron 126, then as the operations officer of Carrier Air Wing 14; 29 and

30 WHEREAS, as a member of the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations in the early 1960s, Tom 31 Scambos provided his expertise to projects on antisatellite capabilities, surveillance, manned space flight, 32 and more; and

33 WHEREAS, after receiving instruction at the Center for Advanced Engineering Study at the 34 Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1965-1966, Tom Scambos returned to the Department of the 35 Navy as deputy project manager for the development of a new carrier-based interceptor, then as project 36 manager of a fleet escort study; and

37 WHEREAS, after completing his service to the nation, Tom Scambos established General 38 Technology Applications, Inc., in Manassas and served as chair and chief executive officer of the 39 company from 1984 until his well-earned retirement in 1992; and

40 WHEREAS, Tom Scambos secured several patents for innovative technology and helped 41 revolutionize oil spill cleanups by creating a nontoxic chemical additive that increased the viscosity of 42 oil, allowing for more efficient and effective recovery; and

43 WHEREAS, Tom Scambos ultimately settled in Arlington County, where he is a respected and 44 highly admired member of his community; now, therefore, be it

45 RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That Captain Thomas Theodore Scambos, USN, Ret., 46 hereby be commended on the occasion of his 100th birthday; and, be it

47 RÉSOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution 48 for presentation to Captain Thomas Theodore Scambos, USN, Ret., as an expression of the House of 49 Delegates' admiration for his service to the nation, the Commonwealth, and his community.
